DEDICATION AND CREDITS

The 2014 Miami Dolphins Media Guide is dedicated to the memory of former Dolphins running back Rick Casares and quarterback Earl Morrall, both of whom passed away within the past year.

Casares (July 4, 1931 – Sept. 13, 2013) played 12 seasons as a running back for the Chicago Bears (1955-64), Washington Redskins (1965) and Miami Dolphins (1966). In his lone season with the Dolphins, Casares recorded 43 carries for 135 yards and eight receptions for 45 yards and a touchdown.

Morrall (May 17, 1934 – April 25, 2014) played 21 seasons as a quarterback for the San Francisco 49ers (1956), Pittsburgh Steelers (1957-58), Detroit Lions (1958-64), N.Y. Giants (1965-67), Baltimore Colts (1968-71) and Miami Dolphins (1972-76). He was a successful NFL quarterback before joining the Dolphins, leading the Don Shula-coached Baltimore Colts to a berth in Super Bowl III. In 1972, Morrall replaced an injured Bob Griese during Miami's October 15 win over the San Diego Chargers. The victory gave Miami a 5-0 record, and the team won the next ten games with Morrall as the starter before Griese returned to the lineup to complete the only perfect season in NFL history.

Stephen M. ROSS

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD/MANAGING GENERAL PARTNER

COLLEGE: MICHIGAN
NFL: SEVENTH SEASON
DOLPHINS: SEVENTH SEASON

Stephen M. Ross, Chairman and Founder of Related Companies – an international real estate firm – began his ownership interest in the Miami Dolphins in February of 2008 when he became a 50 percent partner with H. Wayne Huizenga in the team, Sun Life Stadium and the surrounding developable land. He increased that share to a 95 percent ownership of the team and the stadium on January 20, 2009 and assumed the responsibility of Managing General Partner of both the Dolphins and the stadium, which culminated one of his long-held dreams; Mr. Ross grew up in South Florida and the Dolphins have been a lifetime passion for him.

Under Mr. Ross' leadership, the Dolphins have become one of the most fan-friendly teams in the National Football League. They have significantly expanded the Miami Dolphins Foundation's presence in the South Florida community with a host of new civic and charitable initiatives. Additionally, Mr. Ross reached a unique agreement with Miami-Dade County in June of 2014 to modernize the home stadium of the Miami Dolphins. The performance-based arrangement provides for the stadium to be comprehensively modernized without County funds. Mr. Ross has also improved the game-day experience for fans by upgrading all facets of stadium operations and by introducing best-in-class amenities and activities. Also, Mr. Ross has lived up to his pledge to provide the coaches, staff and players all of the necessary resources to build a winning team, including a multi-million dollar renovation of the club's training facility over the past two seasons.

In 2012, Mr. Ross and Matt Higgins founded RSE Ventures, a multi-national sports and entertainment venture firm with a focus on new technologies. Today, RSE Ventures owns and operates a diverse group of companies in four interrelated verticals: Sports, Entertainment, Digital, and New Ventures. In addition to building businesses, RSE also actively invests in early stage companies through its partnership with marketing expert and serial entrepreneur, Gary Vaynerchuk. In the summer of 2013, RSE revolutionized the international soccer landscape by organizing the Guinness International Champions Cup, an innovative transformation of the traditional European club preseason tours into a competitive tournament which has attracted hundreds of millions of viewers. The championship game of the tournament is held at Sun Life Stadium.

Mr. Ross, a resident of Palm Beach and New York, formed Related in 1972. Today, the company is considered one of the most successful privately owned real estate firms in the United States, with expertise in fund management, development, acquisitions, property management, marketing and sales. Related is one of the largest owners of affordable housing, has real estate assets valued at $15 billion and has developed $22 billion in real estate assets including the landmark Time Warner Center and Hudson Yards development in New York City, and CityPlace in West Palm Beach.

Mr. Ross graduated from the University of Michigan with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree and from Wayne State University Law School with a Juris Doctor degree. He later received a Master of Laws in Taxation from New York University School of Law. In 2004, the University of Michigan renamed its business school the Stephen M. Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan and in 2011, the school awarded him an honorary Doctor of Laws degree at its commencement.

Mr. Ross is Chairman of the Board of Directors of Equinox Holdings, Inc., and serves on the Executive Committee and is a trustee of Lincoln Center. In addition, he is a trustee of New York-Presbyterian Hospital and the Guggenheim Foundation. He also is a director on the board of the Culture Shed and the Jackie Robinson Foundation and Chair Emeritus of the Real Estate Board of New York (REBNY), the city's leading real estate trade association. Mr.

Ross is also a director on the board of the World Resources Institute (WRI) and recently established the WRI Ross Center for Sustainable Cities, an innovative new initiative to integrate urban planning, sustainable transport, energy and climate change, water resources, and governance.

Over the years, Mr. Ross has received numerous honors for his business, civic, and philanthropic activities. Most recently, he was named a New York Power Player by the New York Times, the Most Powerful Person in New York Real Estate by the New York Observer, Multi-Family Property Executive of the Year by Commercial Property News, and Housing Person of the Year by the National Housing Conference. He also received The National Building Museum Honor Award, REBNY's Harry B. Helmsley Distinguished New Yorker Award and the Jack D. Weiler Award from United Jewish Appeal. Crain's New York named Mr. Ross one of the 100 Most Influential Leaders in Business and he was recognized by NYC & Company with their Leadership in Tourism Award.

In May of 2013, Mr. Ross pledged to give more than half of his estate to philanthropic causes and charitable organizations, including South Florida based institutions. The commitment was made through the Giving Pledge, a long-term global initiative created by Warren Buffett and Bill and Melinda Gates that aims to inspire deeper engagement in philanthropy and increase charitable giving globally.

In February of 2014, Mr. Ross spearheaded a white paper with the NYU Sports and Society program, headed by University Professor Arthur R. Miller and NYU Law Dean and founder of the Sports and Society Program Trevor Morrison, examining the phenomenon of intolerant behavior in sports, and proposing a comprehensive range of initiatives focused on youth athletics to combat them. Mr. Ross is working with Morrison, Miller a team of NYU Law faculty, alumni, and students, as well as faculty affiliated with NYU to work on a range of linked projects examining the issue.

SUN LIFE STADIUM MODERNIZATION PROJECT

On June 17, 2014, the Miami-Dade County Commission approved by a 7-4 vote a Performance-Based Marquee Event Grant Agreement, which moved forward the Sun Life Stadium modernization plan. The agreement gave bonus payments to the Miami Dolphins for hosting major events in exchange for Dolphins Chairman of the Board/Managing General Partner Stephen Ross being financially responsible for the renovation of the stadium without county assistance.

The agreement, which was designed to help bring marquee events such as Super Bowls, college football championships, college football semifinals, World Cup soccer matches as well as other international soccer events, is for a period of 20 years.

The modernization of the stadium, which commenced on June 28, 2014, will take place during the next two off-seasons (2015 and 2016). When complete, the stadium will have a canopy to protect fans from rain and sun, more seats closer to the field, a reduced capacity of about 65,000, new HD lighting, upgraded sound system, four new video boards and other modern amenities.

Tom GARFINKEL

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

COLLEGE: COLORADO
NFL: SECOND SEASON
DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Tom Garfinkel is in his second season as president and chief executive officer of the Miami Dolphins and Sun Life Stadium. He was named to the position by Dolphins Chairman of the Board and Managing General Partner Stephen Ross on September 9, 2013.

Garfinkel joined the Dolphins after working with the San Diego Padres from 2009-13, where he served as president and chief executive officer. During his tenure with the Padres, Garfinkel led an executive team that grew local revenues and attendance, improved and innovated concessions, implemented new Wi-Fi throughout the ballpark, built a farm system recognized as the best in baseball by ESPN.com in 2012 and negotiated a new local TV contract worth over $1.2B. In addition, the team was recognized in a SportsBusiness Journal survey for having the number one ticket sales and service team in baseball in both 2011 and 2012.

Prior to joining the Padres, Garfinkel was executive vice president and chief operating officer of the Arizona Diamondbacks. During his tenure there, he built a long-term strategic plan for the franchise, led the re-branding of the club and updating of Chase Field, and led a team that produced the highest controllable revenues in the franchise's history in 2008.

Prior to joining the Diamondbacks, Garfinkel spent five years with Chip Ganassi Racing Teams as executive vice president, overseeing all business operations of the 400-employee company. He negotiated more than $500 million in sponsorship and driver contracts that resulted in a 280 percent increase of annual company revenue during his tenure. While Garfinkel was at Chip Ganassi Racing Teams, the organization won two championships and grew to include three NASCAR Sprint Cup teams (formerly Nextel Cup), one Nationwide Series team (formerly Busch Series), two IndyCar teams and one Grand-Am team.

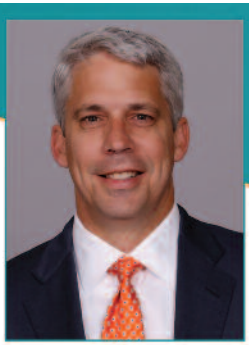
Garfinkel's background also includes time at Texaco, Inc. and at Miller Brewing Company. Garfinkel earned a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Colorado, Boulder, and a Master of Business Administration from the Stephen M. Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan.

Garfinkel lives in Pinecrest, Fla. with his wife and three sons.

JOE ROBBIE ALUMNI PLAZA

On September 12, 2011, just hours before the season opener against the Patriots, Dolphins owner Steve Ross was accompanied by Tim Robbie and Hall of Famers Dan Marino, Bob Griese, Larry Little and Dwight Stephenson as Ross re-dedicated a statue of team founder Joe Robbie on the newly named Joe Robbie Alumni Plaza, located at Gate C of Sun Life Stadium.

Later during the 2011 season on December 4, a little more than an hour before the Dolphins and Raiders game at Sun Life Stadium, Joe Robbie and nine Dolphins legends took their place on the newly minted Walk of Fame. The shrine surrounds a statue of the late Robbie as the centerpiece of the Joe Robbie Alumni Plaza. Hall of Famers Don Shula, Marino, Griese, Nick Buoniconti, Jim Langer, Little, Larry Csonka and Stephenson and Paul Warfield joined Robbie in having their names immortalized in bronze. The second class of the Walk of Fame was inducted on Dec. 16, 2012 and included Tim Bowens, A.J. Duhe, Manny Fernandez, Nat Moore, Earl Morrall, and Don Strock. On Dec. 29, 2013, Kim Bokamper, O.J. McDuffie, Eugene "Mercury" Morris and Keith Sims were officially inducted as the third Walk of Fame class.



Dennis HICKEY

GENERAL MANAGER

COLLEGE: TULSA
NFL: 19TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Miami Dolphins Chairman of the Board and Managing General Partner Stephen Ross named Dennis Hickey as the team's general manager on January 28, 2014. He joined the Dolphins after spending 18 years with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, including three seasons (2011-13) as the team's director of player personnel.

Hickey is responsible for football operations and administration, including directing the college and pro personnel departments. He directs all scouting efforts involving the college draft, free agency, the Canadian Football League and personnel of the other 31 NFL teams. Hickey works together with head coach Joe Philbin and other senior executives in implementing the philosophy of building a championship caliber football team.

During his time as Tampa Bay's director of player personnel, Hickey worked alongside General Manager Mark Dominik to engineer a series of impressive off-seasons both via free agency acquisitions as well as through the NFL draft. In addition to his eye for talent evaluation, Hickey also has a history of scouting and evaluating all levels of professional football including NFL, CFL and the Arena Football League while also handling all aspects of the NFL draft. He also assisted in managing the day-to-day football operations focusing on player personnel, overseeing both the pro personnel and college scouting departments. Along with his football operations duties, Hickey also assisted Dominik and the Buccaneers coaching staff with all transactions made by the team, including daily roster moves, free agency and contract negotiations.

Over his final two seasons in Tampa Bay, three Buccaneers who were drafted by the team in recent years have earned All-Pro recognition or have been selected to play in the Pro Bowl. The three players, Doug Martin (2012 Pro Bowl selection), Gerald McCoy (2012 and 2013 Pro Bowl selection and 2013 All-Pro Selection) and Lavonte David (2013 All-Pro Selection) were all draft selections and have become a solid foundation for the team going forward.

The 2013 off-season saw the Buccaneers sign Pro Bowl safety Dashon Goldson while further bolstering the defensive backfield with the acquisition of perennial All-Pro and 2009 AFC Defensive Player of the Year, cornerback Darrelle Revis. Coupled with free agent acquisitions, Tampa Bay also added talent on both sides of the ball through the draft highlighted by All-Rookie selections defensive back Jonathan Banks and quarterback Mike Glennon, who also was named NFC Rookie of the Month for November. Other key contributors acquired in the 2013 Draft were defensive end Akeem Spence, linebacker William Gholston and running back Mike James, who each started multiple games as well as undrafted free tight end Tim Wright, who appeared in all 16 games in 2013, with eight starts, while leading all rookie tight ends in receptions. All six of the Buccaneers draft choices in 2013 were a part of Tampa's 53-man roster and appeared in 75 of the 96 regular season games, starting a combined 50 games.

The additions of 2013 came following a 2012 off-season which the Buccaneers were one of the most active teams in the pursuit of available free agents. During the 2012 free agency period, the Buccaneers made an immediate splash as they signed Pro Bowl wide receiver Vincent Jackson, Pro Bowl guard Carl Nicks and cornerback Eric Wright. Coupled with the free agent signings, Hickey also had a key role with an impressive 2012 draft which saw the team select three players who went on to be named to the PFW/PFWA All-Rookie Team, safety Mark Barron, running back Doug Martin and linebacker Lavonte David. In addition to being named to the All-Rookie team, Martin also garnered a trip to the Pro Bowl following the 2012 season.

The 2011 draft saw the Buccaneers lay a foundation on defense as they drafted several players who would make an immediate impact on the defensive side of the ball. Hickey started in the first round selecting University of Iowa defensive end Adrian Clayborn with the 20th overall selection. Clayborn went on to start all 16 games while recording 54 tackles, a team-leading 7.5 sacks, 26 quarterback pressures, four tackles for loss and three forced fumbles. The defensive trend continued as the Buccaneers selected Clemson defensive end Da'Quan Bowers, considered by many a potential high first round pick, in the second round and linebacker Mason Foster in the third round. Foster would go on to record a team-leading 126 tackles, four tackles for loss, 2.0 sacks, four quarterback pressures, one interception, two passes defensed, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

In 2010, Hickey's first year as the team's director of player personnel, he looked to the draft to build and strengthen the team in route to a 10-6 record. Seven of the nine players selected in the draft had at least one start, with the class as a whole recording a total of 49 starts on the season. The 2010 class was highlighted by wide receiver Mike Williams, as the fourth-round selection started every game for the Buccaneers and finished with 65 receptions for 964 yards and 11 touchdowns, all which led all NFL rookie receivers. At the conclusion of the 2010 season Williams was named a finalist for the Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Year and finished second to St. Louis quarterback Sam Bradford in voting for AP Offensive Rookie of the Year.

Hickey served as director of college scouting from 2005-09, assembling draft classes that made their mark on the organization. The 2009 Draft provided immediate returns as first round pick, quarterback Josh Freeman, led all rookies in completion percentage (54.5). Freeman also made his mark on the Buccaneers record book as he set rookie franchise marks with 10 touchdown passes and 1,855 passing yards in just nine starts. The 2008 Draft produced a number of contributors which included cornerback Aqib Talib, who tied for the NFL lead among rookies with four interceptions, and offensive lineman Jeremy Zuttah, who emerged as a starter at both guard positions. In 2007, the Buccaneers compiled a draft class that was highlighted by two selections to the Pro Football Writers/Pro Football Writers Association All-Rookie team. In 2006, the Tampa rookie class saw four draft selections start 38 games for the Buccaneers including quarterback Bruce Gradkowski, guard Davin Joseph, wide receiver Maurice Stovall and tackle Jeremy Trueblood. In 2005, his first year as the director of college scouting, Hickey helped assembled a draft class that provided three immediate starters on offense, including the Diet Pepsi NFL Rookie of the Year running back Carnell "Cadillac" Williams, guard Dan Buenning, who started all 16 games during his rookie campaign, and tight end Alex Smith, who recorded 41 receptions for 367 yards and two touchdowns while appearing in all 16 games.

Hickey's eye for talent has also extended past the draft, as he played instrumental roles in the acquisition of a number of undrafted collegiate free agents who developed into promising professional players. Some of the undrafted free agents signed by the Buccaneers include: running back LeGarrett Blount, originally signed by the Tennessee Titans but claimed off waivers by Tampa, who led all rookies in 2010 with 1,007 yards rushing, and became only the second undrafted running back (Dominic Rhodes in 2001) to rush for more than 1,000 yards as a rookie in NFL history. Another player who found success with Tampa was defensive tackle Michael Bennett, who went undrafted in 2009 and was claimed off waivers from the Seattle Seahawks during the 2009 season by the Buccaneers after going undrafted and spent the next three seasons in Tampa Bay, turning in an impressive 2012 when he reached a career high in tackles, sacks and forced fumbles. In 2008, the Buccaneers signed two undrafted free agents who would significantly contribute, including running back/kick returner Clifton Smith (2008), a 2009 Pro Bowl selection as a kick returner as well as being named AP Second-Team All-Pro, and cornerback Elbert Mack, who appeared in 15 games in the Buccaneers' secondary and on special teams and finished the 2008 season with 12 special team tackles.

Prior to taking a senior administrative and personnel role with the Buccaneers, Hickey was a member of the team's college scouting staff where he was responsible for the Midwest region of the country. While a scout, Hickey played a key role in scouting several players who would become key contributors to the Buccaneers, including University of Nebraska linebacker Barrett Ruud in 2005 and Kansas State kicker Martin Gramatica in 1999. Ruud, a second-round selection (36th overall) during the 2005 NFL Draft, spent six seasons (2005-2010) with the Buccaneers and was a mainstay on the Tampa defense starting 63 of 64 games during a four-year span (2007-2010). Gramatica was a third round selection (80th overall) during the 1999 NFL Draft, and spent five seasons (1999-2003) with Tampa Bay earning All-Pro Second Team honors in 2000 while also being named to the 2000 Pro Bowl. It also was during this time that he was a part of the Buccaneers organization that claimed the franchise's first Super Bowl Championship in 2002, a 48-21 victory over the Oakland Raiders in Super Bowl XXXVII in San Diego, California.

Hickey joined the Buccaneers as a pro personnel assistant in 1996 following a stint as a coach at Blinn Junior College where he was responsible for coaching the defensive backs as well as recruiting in the state of Texas. Hickey has been a part of programs throughout his career whether on the high school, collegiate or professional level that have gone on to win championships, including a high school state championship in 1989, a junior college national championship in 1990 and a Super Bowl title in 2002. Hickey began his collegiate career as a safety at Coffeyville Community College in Coffeyville, Kansas, where he was a captain and an academic All-American prior to becoming a three-year starter and letter winner at safety for the University of Tulsa. He graduated from the University of Tulsa with a degree in history/education.

MIAMI DOLPHINS LOGO HISTORY

On April 25, 2013, the Miami Dolphins unveiled the fifth team logo in the organization's history. The new logo was developed during a creative process spanning more than a year and a half and incorporated input from ownership, members of the organization, former players and the franchise's loyal fans.

Highlighting the evolution is the return to the original aqua and orange color scheme that has come to embody the team and the surrounding Miami area. The iconic elements, the sun and the Dolphin, remain prominent and allow the redesigned logo to remain connected throughout the team's history while representing the constant influence of the South Florida environment and community.

Within the logo, the aqua, along with the marine blue, first introduced in 1997 and now finessed through this process, are inspired by the color of South Florida's Atlantic Ocean; while the orange is representative of the bright South Florida sun. The dolphins' positioning has been refined and now features the moment of most power in the marine mammal's trajectory, right before it breaks the plane of the water. The sun has also been refined to incorporate more rays as well as an overall enhancement to a more brighter and vibrant color.

The original logo featured the dolphin jumping in front of a sunburst using the team's base colors (aqua, coral and white). In 1974, the dolphin was repositioned in front of the sunburst and the aqua color was strengthened. In 1989, there was a further strengthening of the aqua color and the dolphin's tail was elongated. In 1997, the traditional logo and colors were kept as a base, while the sunburst on the logo was accentuated and the dolphin was strengthened with a stronger definition of its shape. In addition, the sunburst was more prominently displayed with the elimination of the hashmarks around the sun's perimeter, while the dolphin's features were accentuated by navy highlights.

COACHING STAFF

Joe PHILBIN

HEAD COACH

COLLEGE: WASHINGTON & JEFFERSON
NFL: 12TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: THIRD SEASON

Finishing his second season as head coach of the Miami Dolphins, Joe Philbin led the team to an 8-8 record in 2013. It marked the second straight season the Dolphins improved their win total under Philbin, and he became the Dolphins' first coach to improve the team's record two consecutive years since the 1997 and 1998 campaigns. In addition, the Dolphins were one of only four teams in the NFL in 2013 (along with Seattle, Cincinnati, and Carolina) to improve their record for a second straight season.

The Dolphins got off to a 3-0 start, the first time since 2002 they won their first three games. Philbin rallied the team through a variety of challenges in the middle of the campaign, winning five times in a seven-game stretch in November and December and keeping the team in playoff contention the entire season.

Along the way, the Dolphins improved in a number of key areas. Philbin emphasized the importance of takeaways throughout the year and the defense responded by recording a takeaway in 15 of their 16 games, one of only five NFL teams to accomplish that feat in 2013. In addition, the Dolphins improved their turnover ratio by a plus-8 margin from the previous season, the eighth best turnover improvement in the league.

In 2013, the Dolphins tied for the third least penalized team in the league. In fact, in Philbin's two years at the helm of the team, the Dolphins recorded 152 penalties for 1,322 yards, both of which were the second lowest figures in the NFL in that span, behind only the Atlanta Falcons' 146 penalties for 1,203 yards.

The Dolphins finished third in the AFC in scoring defense, while limiting opponents to a 77.3 passer rating, the third lowest total in the AFC and the fifth lowest total in the NFL. The Dolphins also had the best two-minute offense in the NFL, producing a league-high 36 points in drives that began with two minutes or less left in the half or the game.

Individually, quarterback Ryan Tannehill continued his development under Philbin's direction, becoming only the second Dolphins QB in team history (along with Dan Marino) to throw for 24 or more touchdowns in a season. In his two years playing under Philbin, Tannehill has thrown for a total of 7,207 yards, the fifth highest total by an NFL quarterback in his first two seasons in league history. Brian Hartline notched his second consecutive 1,000-yard receiving season, only the fifth time that has been accomplished in Dolphin annals. In addition, Charles Clay developed into one of the premier tight ends in the league, while center Mike Pouncey was named to his first Pro Bowl team.

Defensively, two Dolphins – defensive end Cameron Wake and cornerback Brent Grimes – were named to the Pro Bowl as a result of their outstanding season-long play. Three players – linebacker Philip Wheeler, safety Reshad Jones, and linebacker Dannell Ellerbe – each registered 100 or more tackles, and Olivier Vernon blossomed into one of the best pass-rushing defensive linemen in the league with his 11.5 sacks.

On special teams, punter Brandon Fields earned his first Pro Bowl selection while finishing second in the NFL in punting with an average of 48.8 yards per kick, while kicker Caleb Sturgis notched 111 points, the second-highest point total by a Dolphins rookie in club history.

In 2012, in Philbin's first year as an NFL head coach, the Dolphins finished in second place in the AFC East with a 7-9 record. Working with one of the youngest rosters in the NFL, Philbin had the Dolphins in playoff contention until the penultimate week of the season while improving the team's record from the previous year.

Under Philbin's leadership, the team finished tied for first in the AFC in touchdowns allowed by defense (32), and its 42.6 percent of red zone touchdowns allowed was the lowest figure in the NFL. Defensively, the team ranked third overall in the AFC in points allowed per game (19.8), and the team's 36.6 percent third down conversion rate against was the sixth best in the AFC and the tenth best mark in franchise history. In addition, the Dolphins had the third fewest penalties in the NFL in 2012.

Also under Philbin's guidance, Tannehill set franchise rookie records in several offensive categories and became the first quarterback in Dolphins history to start in all of the team's games in his first year in the league. In addition, Wake recorded 15 sacks to finish fourth in the NFL in that category while earning a starting role on the AFC's Pro Bowl team. For the third time in team history, the Dolphins had four players with 95 or more tackles.

The special teams unit also excelled under Philbin's direction, as Marcus Thigpen became the first Dolphin to return a punt and a kickoff for a touchdown in the same season. Fields' average of 50.2 yards per punt not only led the NFL, but was the highest single-season punting average in team history.

Philbin was named the 10th head coach in Miami Dolphins history on January 20, 2012. As a measure of the respect Philbin earned in his first year as the team's head coach, he was named to the Coaches Subcommittee of the NFL Competition Committee by Commissioner Roger Goodell on April 15, 2013. He also was chosen by the league to make a presentation at the NFL Career Development Symposium at the Wharton School of Business that May.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Philbin served as the Green Bay Packers' offensive coordinator from 2007-11. He originally joined the Packers on February 10, 2003 as assistant offensive line coach. He was elevated to tight ends/assistant offensive line coach on February 27, 2004. Packers Head Coach Mike McCarthy promoted Philbin to offensive line coach on January 17, 2006, and then to offensive coordinator on January 15, 2007.

From 2007-11, Philbin directed an offensive unit which ranked in the top 10 in both total yards and total points, one of only two teams in the league (New England) to accomplish that feat during that period. Green Bay's point total (2,263) was third in the league over that five-year span, trailing only New England (2,457) and New Orleans (2,283).

Green Bay reached the playoffs in four of Philbin's five seasons as offensive coordinator. In three of those appearances, the Packers set team postseason records for most points in a game, with 42 vs. Seattle in 2007, 45 at Arizona in 2009, and 48 at Atlanta in 2010.

During his five seasons as offensive coordinator, a total of 12 Packers were selected to the Pro Bowl, including wide receiver Greg Jennings (second appearance), fullback John Kuhn (first), quarterback Aaron Rodgers (second) and center Scott Wells (first), in 2011.

In 2011, the Packers set single-season franchise records for regular-season games won (15), total points (560), average points per game (35.0), total points at home (321), average points per game at home (40.1), touchdowns (64), net passing yards (4,924) and fewest giveaways (14). The 2011 season marked the third straight campaign (2009-11) that the Packers averaged at least 250.0 net passing yards. Prior to that three-year span, Green Bay had never accomplished that feat in consecutive seasons.

Rodgers established himself as one of the league's elite passers in 2011 as he posted a 122.5 passer rating, the best single-season mark in NFL history. He set an NFL single-season record with 13 games with a 100-plus quarterback rating and 12 games with 110-plus rating. He also set franchise marks with 4,643 passing yards and 45 TDs while becoming the only quarterback in NFL history to pass for 4,000+ yards and have six or fewer INTs.

Green Bay's 6,482 total net yards in 2011 ranks first in franchise history, besting the 2004 total of 6,357 yards. The Packers' 560 points for the 2011 season ranks third in NFL single-season annals behind only the 2007 New England Patriots (589) and the 2013 Denver Broncos (606). With 70 total touchdowns in 2011, Green Bay tied the 1984 Miami Dolphins for the third-most TDs in a season in NFL history, behind only the 2007 New England Patriots (75 TDs) and the 2013 Denver Broncos (76). The Packers' turnover differential of plus-24 in 2011 tied for the second-best in franchise history behind only the plus-26 margin in 1943.

In 2010, en route to the franchise's 13th world championship, the Packers finished with the NFL's fifth-ranked passing offense at 257.8 yards per contest. It was the first time in franchise history that the Packers averaged 250.0 net passing yards in back-to-back seasons. Rodgers finished in the top 10 in nearly every passing category, falling just 78 yards short of his third straight 4,000-yard season despite missing one-and-half games due to a concussion. The Packers also posted two 45-point games during the regular season, the first time Green Bay had accomplished that feat since 1983.

From 2008-09, the Packers became the first team in league history to have a 4,000-yard passer (Rodgers), a 1,200-yard rusher (Ryan Grant) and two 1,000-yard receivers (Greg Jennings, Donald Driver) in back-to-back seasons. The 2009 unit was particularly prolific, compiling a then-franchise-record 461 points and gaining 6,065 total net yards, which at the time was the third-most in team history. The 2009 offense also led the league in time of possession (33:03) and in fewest turnovers (16), both franchise bests.

In 2007, behind quarterback Brett Favre's MVP-caliber season, the offense ranked second in the NFL in total yards. That ranking was Green Bay's highest since 1983, while the 5,931 net yards and 435 total points both rank fourth on the franchise's single-season list. Favre's 4,155 yards passing that year combined with Rodgers' 4,038 yards in 2008 marked the first time in league history a team had different 4,000-yard passers in consecutive years.

Philbin's move from offensive line coach to offensive coordinator helped maintain continuity with the young offensive linemen and zone-blocking scheme. In 2006, Philbin oversaw a line that had three rookies (Daryn Colledge, Jason Spitz and Tony Moll) combine for 38 starts. Despite injuries that led to five different starting combinations, the Packers allowed only 24 sacks and improved their run production by a half-yard per carry.

In 2005, Philbin's tight ends contributed to a passing game hampered by injuries. Green Bay joined Tennessee as one of only two NFL teams to have three tight ends record at least 25 receptions each that season, as Philbin effectively blended Donald Lee into the offense despite the tight end's late-preseason arrival.

Philbin's group in 2004 contributed to an offense that racked up more total yards (6,357) and passing yards (4,449) than any team in franchise history to that point. As proved in 2003, the line played an integral role in the NFL's third-ranked offense, including team marks for first downs (354), completions (382) and fewest sacks (14). In 2003, Philbin's teaching played a role in a rushing offense that improved from 12th the year before to third in the NFL, proving to be one of the best lines in team history.

Philbin came to Green Bay after four seasons as offensive line coach at the University of Iowa (1999-2002). Under Philbin's stewardship, Iowa fielded one of college football's finest offensive lines in 2002, helping the Hawkeyes finish second in the Big Ten Conference in rushing (214.2 yards per game). Philbin pupils Eric Steinbach, Robert Gallery and Bruce Nelson earned three of the five first-team All-Big Ten linemen spots, while Steinbach earned consensus All-America honors. Over the next two years, all three were selected in the first two rounds of the NFL Draft.

Prior to coaching at Iowa, Philbin served as offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Harvard University (1997-98). Under his direction in 1997, the Crimson established 15 offensive records. Five members of his offensive squad earned All-Ivy League honors, including Matt Birk, a 1998 draft choice and six-time Pro Bowl selection.

Philbin was offensive coordinator/offensive line coach at Northeastern University (1995-96) and offensive line coach at Ohio University (1994). He also spent four seasons (1990-93) at Allegheny College, highlighted by two undefeated regular seasons and an NCAA Division III national championship in 1990.

Born in Springfield, Mass., Philbin is a 1984 graduate of Washington & Jefferson College (Pa.), where he played tight end (1980). He also possesses a master's degree in education from Tulane University (1986). He is married to Diane, and the couple has five children, Matthew, John, Kevin, Tim, Colleen and a deceased son, Michael.

In 2013, the Dolphins committed just 70 penalties, tied for the third-fewest total in the NFL that season, for 598 yards, the second-fewest total. Blue ADAMS

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE BACKS

COLLEGE: CINCINNATI
NFL: SEVENTH SEASON
DOLPHINS: THIRD SEASON

Blue Adams enters his third season with the Dolphins after being named assistant defensive backs coach on February 10, 2012.

In 2013, Adams assisted Defensive Backs Coach Lou Anarumo and helped guide a secondary that saw marked improvement in his second season at the helm, going from being ranked 27th in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game in 2012 to being ranked 16th in 2013. The defense also nearly doubled its interception output, from 10 in 2012 to 18 in 2013. Further, the defense allowed only four touchdown passes to receivers all season and the team's 35 touchdown passes allowed over the last two seasons are the second-fewest in the NFL to the Seattle Seahawks. The unit was fifth in the NFL in passer rating against, limiting opponents to a 77.3 rating. The defensive backfield was highlighted by the play of free-agent acquisition cornerback Brent Grimes who earned his second Pro Bowl trip after tying for the team lead with four interceptions and pacing the unit with 17 passes defensed.

In 2012, Adams also assisted Anarumo with the secondary, which started five different players at cornerback during the season (Nolan Carroll, Richard Marshall, Dimitri Patterson, Sean Smith and Jimmy Wilson), while safeties Chris Clemons and Reshad Jones started all 16 games. Clemons set a career high with 96 tackles (69 solo), while Jones recorded 95 tackles (74 solo), one sack, two forced fumbles and a career high four interceptions.

Adams joined the Dolphins after spending the 2011 season at the University of Northern Iowa working with the school's defensive backs. In 2010, he was a defensive graduate assistant at Purdue University, working with the defensive secondary.

A seventh-round selection of the Detroit Lions in the 2003 NFL Draft, Adams played for the Lions and the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2003. In 2004, he played for NFL Europe's Rhein Fire. From 2005-08, Adams returned to the NFL and played with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Cincinnati Bengals and Atlanta Falcons. Adams tallied 51 tackles in his 50 career NFL games. He rounded out his professional playing career in 2009 as a defensive back for the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League.

Adams played four years as a defensive back at the University of Cincinnati, recording a school-record 12 interceptions in his career. He was also a second-team All-Conference USA selection as a senior. Adams is a 1997 graduate of Miami (Fla.) Senior High School, where he lettered in football. As a senior, he earned honorable mention All-State and first-team All-County honors. He finished the year with four interceptions, four sacks, 69 tackles, two forced fumbles, and two fumble recoveries.

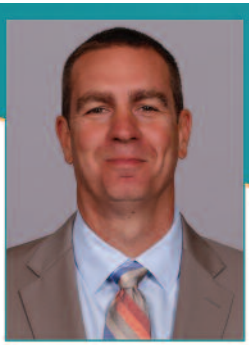
HIGHEST WIN TOTAL AFTER 0-7 SEASON START

In 2011, the Dolphins tied the NFL record for most wins in a season following an 0-7 start. The Dolphins finished the year with six wins and joined the 1978 St. Louis Cardinals and 1998 Washington Redskins as the only teams in NFL history to accomplish this feat.



Lou ANARUMO

DEFENSIVE BACKS

COLLEGE: WAGNER
NFL: THIRD SEASON
DOLPHINS: THIRD SEASON

Lou Anarumo enters his third season with the Dolphins after being named defensive backs coach on February 4, 2012.

In 2013, Anarumo guided a secondary that saw marked improvement in his second season at the helm, going from being ranked 27th in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game in 2012 to being ranked 16th in 2013. The defense also nearly doubled its interception output, from 10 in 2012 to 18 in 2013. Further, the defense allowed only four touchdown passes to receivers all season and the team's 35 touchdown passes allowed over the last two seasons are the second-fewest in the NFL to the Seattle Seahawks. The defensive backfield was highlighted by the play of free-agent acquisition cornerback Brent Grimes who earned his second Pro Bowl trip after tying for the team lead with four interceptions and pacing the unit with 17 passes defensed.

In Anarumo's first season with the Dolphins in 2012, he coached a secondary which started five different players at cornerback during the season (Nolan Carroll, Richard Marshall, Dimitri Patterson, Sean Smith and Jimmy Wilson). In addition, safeties Chris Clemons and Reshad Jones both had the best seasons of their NFL career. Starting all 16 games, Clemons set a career high with 96 tackles (69 solo), while Jones recorded 95 tackles (74 solo), one sack, two forced fumbles and a career-high four interceptions.

Anarumo joined the Dolphins after spending eight seasons (2004-11) as defensive backs coach at Purdue University. With four new starters in 2010, the Boilermaker secondary featured true freshman cornerback Ricardo Allen, who finished with three interceptions, returning two of them for touchdowns, and led the Big Ten in interception return yardage en route to earning freshman All-America honors. Cornerbacks Brandon King and David Pender were named second team All-Big Ten in 2009, while safety Torri Williams was an honorable mention selection. Pender finished his career ranked tied for second in school history with 33 pass breakups. From 2005 to 2006, the Boilermakers rebuilt their secondary and improved from 287.3 passing yards allowed per game to 241.2 yards. In 2008, they ranked third overall in the Big Ten, surrendering just 183.2 yards per game. That figure dropped to 152.5 yards in conference games and was tops in the Big Ten. Safety Bernard Pollard was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the second round (54th overall pick) of the 2006 NFL draft, becoming the highest-drafted Purdue defensive player since linebacker Fred Strickland (47th overall) by the Los Angeles Rams in 1988.

Anarumo came to the Boilermakers from Marshall, where he coached the defensive backs from 2001-03. He also served as special teams coordinator in 2003. The Thundering Herd ranked 10th in the nation in passing defense in 2003, allowing 177.4 yards per game. They were sixth in 2002 at 161.5 yards after ranking 37th in 2001 at 198.7 yards. Marshall compiled a 30-8 record over the three seasons and won the GMAC Bowl in 2001 and 2002. Strong safety Chris Crocker was a third-round selection of the Cleveland Browns in the 2003 Draft.

Prior to his stint at Marshall, Anarumo was assistant head coach at Harvard from 1995-2000, working with the defensive backs and coordinating the special teams. During his tenure, he helped build a pass defense regarded among the finest in the Ivy League. The Crimson led the league in pass efficiency defense in 1999 and ranked second in interceptions in 2000.

From 1992-94, Anarumo was defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy. He also served as the admissions liaison to the athletics department.

Anarumo was a graduate assistant coach at Syracuse during the 1990-91 seasons. He was assistant defensive backs coach under Phil Elmassian – whom Anarumo replaced on the Boilermaker staff – and was responsible for film breakdown and organization of the scout teams.

From January to June 1990, Anarumo was a part-time running backs coach at Wagner College. He filled that same role at the United States Merchant Marine Academy from September 1989 to January 1990.

DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

John Benton enters his first season with the Dolphins after first being named assistant offensive line coach on January 29, 2014 and then being promoted to offensive line coach on March 1, 2014.

Benton brings 27 years of coaching experience to the Dolphins, which includes 17 years in the college ranks and 10 seasons as an NFL assistant, including the last eight seasons as the Houston Texans offensive line coach. While with the Texans, Benton's offensive line was instrumental in establishing one of the NFL's top ranked offensive attacks, setting franchise marks for rushing yards (2,448) in 2011 and passing yards (4,654) and total offense (6,129 yards) in 2009. Behind All-Pro left tackle Duane Brown and All-Pro center Chris Myers, Houston's offensive line paved the way for the emergence of All-Pro running back Arian Foster, who became the 13th fastest player in NFL history to reach 5,000 career rushing yards. En route to 5,000 yards, Foster registered three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (2010-12), a franchise-record 25 career 100-yard regular season rushing games and, entering the 2014 season, he leads the AFC at 90.7 rushing yards per game since 2010.

Prior to joining the Texans in 2006, Benton spent two seasons (2004-05) with the St. Louis Rams, coaching an offensive line which was anchored by All-Pro left tackle Orlando Pace. In 2005, the Rams offensive line helped All-Pro running back Stephen Jackson rush for 1,046, the first 1,000 rushing season of his career.

Benton began his coaching career at Colorado State as a graduate assistant (1987-90) prior to accepting the position of offensive line coach at California University (Pa.) while also serving as the school's recruiting coordinator (1990-94). Benton returned to Colorado State as the offensive line coach in 1995, a position he held until 2000, when he was named the school's co-offensive coordinator from 2000-03.

Benton was a four-year starter as an offensive lineman at Colorado State (1983-86), and earned honorable mention All-WAC honors during his junior and senior seasons. He was named to the WAC's All-Academic team as a senior in 1986. A native of Durango, Colorado, he and his wife, Nicole, have two daughters, Gabrielle and Paige.

Jack BICKNELL JR.

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

COLLEGE: BOSTON COLLEGE
NFL: SIXTH SEASON
DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Jack Bicknell Jr. enters his first season with the Dolphins after first being named assistant offensive line coach on March 1, 2014.

Bicknell comes to Miami after spending the 2013 season as the offensive line coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers. While in Pittsburgh, Bicknell's unit paved the way for running back Le'Veon Bell, who amassed 1,259 yards from scrimmage, the most by a Steelers rookie surpassing Franco Harris (1,235) and became just the third Pittsburgh rookie to amass over 1,000 yards from scrimmage. Bell also became the first Steelers rookie to rush for more than 100 yards in a regular season game since the 2004 season when he compiled 124 yards on 26 carries and one touchdown in a Week 16 victory at Green Bay.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Bicknell served as the offensive line coach for the Kansas City Chiefs in 2012 where he directed a unit that was instrumental in helping running back Jamaal Charles return to All-Pro form after an ACL injury cut short his 2011 season. Charles returned in 2012 and set career highs in carries (285) and rushing yards (1,509) en route to his second Pro Bowl selection at the conclusion of the season.

Bicknell began his NFL coaching career with the New York Giants in 2009 and was a member of a coaching staff that helped lead the franchise to its fourth Super Bowl title with a 21-17 victory over the New England Patriots on February 5, 2012. During the 2011 season, the Giants' line anchored an offense that finished fifth in the NFL in passing while only allowing 28 sacks. During his tenure as the Giants offensive line coach, guards Chris Snee and Shaun O'Hara were selected to three straight Pro Bowls each (2009-11). Following his first season with New York, three offensive linemen (Snee, O'Hara and tackle David Diehl) were selected to the 2010 Pro Bowl, marking the first time since 1962 that three Giants from the same position group were selected to the Pro Bowl.

Before entering the NFL coaching ranks, Bicknell spent 24 seasons (1985-2008) coaching on the collegiate level, of which eight seasons were spent as the head coach at Louisiana Tech (1999-2006), where his 43 victories are still the third-most in school history. Following the 2001 season, he was named WAC Coach of the Year after leading the Bulldogs to a conference championship in its first year of membership. Bicknell also served as the Bulldogs' offensive line coach from 1997-98.

Bicknell began his coaching career at his alma mater, Boston College, as a graduate assistant from 1985-86. Following his two seasons with the Eagles, Bicknell joined the staff at the University of New Hampshire in 1987 and spent 10 seasons with the Wildcats coaching the defensive line (1987-92) before moving to the offensive line (1993-96). Bicknell returned to Boston College in 2007 as the Eagles' assistant head coach/offensive line coach for two seasons (2007-08) before joining the Giants in the NFL.

A three-year letter winner as an offensive lineman, Bicknell played collegiately for his father at Boston College from 1981-85 where he was the center for 1984 Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Doug Flutie. It was Bicknell who snapped the ball to Flutie on the final play of the Boston College/Miami game which led to one of the most memorable conclusions to a game in college football history. The Flutie "Hail Mary" game-winning touchdown pass to wide receiver Gerald Phelan propelled the Eagles over the Miami Hurricanes in the Orange Bowl in 1984. In Bicknell's final season at Boston College, he was honored with the Scanlon Award, the highest honor bestowed upon a Boston College football player, the Scarminach Award for athletic and academic excellence and the Dean's Award in the school of education.

Bicknell comes from a family of coaches. His father, Jack, was the head coach at Boston College (1981-90) prior to becoming the head coach of the Barcelona Dragons (1991-03) of NFL Europe. His brother, Bob, has been an assistant coach at the collegiate and professional level since 1993 and in the NFL since 2007 where he been with three different teams, including, Kansas City (2007-09), Buffalo (2010-12) and currently is the wide receiver coach in Philadelphia (2013-). Born in North Plainfield, New Jersey, Bicknell attended Orono (Maine) High School. He and his wife, Helen, have three children, John, Katelyn and Alyse.

DOLPHINS: THIRD SEASON

Charlie Bullen enters his third season with the Dolphins and his second as the team's assistant defensive line coach, having been named to the position on January 30, 2013. Bullen originally joined the organization as the team's defensive assistant on February 10, 2012.

In 2013, Bullen assisted Defensive Line Coach Kacy Rodgers and helped guide a unit that contributed 34 of the defense's 42 sacks which is the third consecutive season that the defense has recorded 40-plus sacks and marked the first time in team history the team has accomplished this feat in three straight seasons. Additionally, the Dolphins are one of only four NFL teams to record 40-or-more sacks in each of the last three seasons. Defensive end Cameron Wake earned his third Pro Bowl nod in 2013 with 8.5 sacks and fellow defensive end Olivier Vernon notched a team-high 11.5 sacks.

In 2012, Bullen assisted a defense that finished seventh in the NFL and third in the AFC in points allowed per game (19.8). The defense's 42.6 percent of red zone touchdowns allowed was the lowest figure in the NFL. Bullen spent a lot of time helping the defensive line, which featured two players who were selected to the Pro Bowl, Cameron Wake and Randy Starks. Wake ranked third in the AFC and fourth in the NFL with 15 sacks and that total also tied for the sixth-highest single-season sack total in Dolphins history.

Bullen joined the Dolphins after spending the 2009-11 seasons as a graduate assistant coach working with the defense at the University of Iowa. Bullen also served as a student assistant for two seasons, working with then offensive coordinator and current Dolphins wide receivers coach Ken O'Keefe and the Hawkeye quarterbacks while completing work towards his bachelor's degree.

Burris assisted Defensive Backs Coach Lou Anarumo and Assistant Defensive Backs Coach Blue Adams in 2013 and helped guide a secondary that saw marked improvement, going from being ranked 27th in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game in 2012 to being ranked 16th in 2013. The defense also nearly doubled its interception output, from 10 in 2012 to 18 in 2013. Further, the defense allowed only four touchdown passes to receivers all season and the team's 35 touchdown passes allowed over the last two seasons are the second-fewest in the NFL to the Seattle Seahawks. The unit was fifth in the NFL in passer rating against, limiting opponents to a 77.3 rating. The defensive backfield was highlighted by the play of free-agent acquisition cornerback Brent Grimes who earned his second Pro Bowl trip after tying for the team lead with four interceptions and pacing the unit with 17 passes defensed.

Burris joined the Dolphins after spending the 2012 season as the cornerbacks coach at the University of Massachusetts. He also served as the program's community outreach liaison and had responsibilities in recruiting. Prior to joining the Minutemen, Burris served as the defensive backs coach of the United Football League's Sacramento Mountain Lions in 2011. He served a coaching internship with the Buffalo Bills in September of 2008. Burris began his coaching career in 2007 at Fishers (Ind.) High School, where he worked with the defensive backfield and assisted in the implementation of the school's defensive scheme.

Kevin COYLE

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: MASSACHUSETTS
NFL: 14TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: THIRD SEASON

Entering his 37th season as a coach, Kevin Coyle begins his third season with the Dolphins after being named defensive coordinator on January 27, 2012.

In 2013, Coyle guided a defense that finished eighth in the NFL in points allowed per game (20.9), marking the second-consecutive season the Dolphins defense has finished in the top eight and one of only four teams to accomplish that feat. The defense also finished third in the AFC in points allowed for two-straight seasons. Similarly, Coyle's unit totaled 42 sacks, the third-consecutive season that the defense has recorded 40-or-more sacks and the first time in team history that the team has accomplished the feat in three-straight seasons. Further, the defense allowed only four touchdown passes to receivers all season and the team's 35 touchdown passes allowed over the last two seasons are the second-fewest in the NFL. The unit was fifth in the NFL in passer rating against, limiting opponents to a 77.3 rating and the defense's 46.4 percent of red zone touchdowns allowed was fifth-best in the NFL. Coyle's defense once again included two Pro Bowl selections in free-agent acquisition Brent Grimes, who made his second trip (tied for the team lead with four interceptions and led the team with 17 passes defensed), and Cameron Wake, who earned his third appearance with 8.5 sacks.

In 2012, Coyle oversaw a defense which ranked seventh in the NFL and third in the AFC in points allowed per game (19.8). The defense's 42.6 percent of red zone touchdowns allowed was the lowest figure in the NFL and the team's 36.6 percent third down conversion rate against was the sixth best in the AFC and 14th best mark in club history. Coyle's defense featured two Pro Bowl selections in Wake, who established a career-high 15 sacks, and Randy Starks, who added 4.5 sacks of his own. Additionally, for the third time in team history, the Dolphins had four players with 95 or more tackles.

Coyle joined Miami from the Cincinnati Bengals, where he served the previous nine seasons (2003-11) as defensive backs coach after serving as cornerbacks coach from 2001-02.

In 2011, the Bengals ranked seventh in the NFL in total defense, which included a pass defense that finished ninth by allowing just 211.6 passing yards per game. Coyle's secondary helped Cincinnati score a defensive touchdown in three-straight games, with each of the scores initiated through a turnover created by a member of the defensive backfield. That feat had not been accomplished by the Bengals in nearly 30 years.

The 2010 season presented a challenge for Coyle as five veteran defensive backs due for starting jobs or significant reserve roles wound up being placed on the Reserve/Injured list and missed a combined total of 46 games. Cornerbacks Leon Hall and Johnathan Joseph were standouts on this unit and combined for seven interceptions. Also during the 2010 season, Coyle helped guide a productive return to the NFL for cornerback Adam Jones, prior to Jones' season-ending injury after five games. Jones proved to be an explosive force and a solid team influence after sitting out the 2009 season. Additionally, he helped revive the careers of safeties Chris Crocker and Reggie Nelson.

In 2009, working with a healthier unit, Coyle directed a group that helped fuel the team's capture of the AFC North Division title. The Bengals finished sixth in the NFL in net pass defense and fourth in overall defense.

In 2005, Coyle oversaw a Bengals defensive backs unit that had 23 of Cincinnati's NFL-leading 31 interceptions on the year. He helped guide a 10-interception season by Pro Bowl cornerback Deltha O'Neal, the highest individual total in Bengals history. O'Neal was the second defensive back under Coyle to make the Pro Bowl, as cornerback Tory James earned the honor in 2004, when he had eight interceptions.

Prior to joining the Bengals, Coyle served as defensive coordinator at Fresno State from 1997-2000, where his defenses produced three first-team All-Western Athletic Conference players in both '99 and '00, best in the league both years. Six players from Coyle's Fresno State defenses went on to play in the NFL, including three defensive backs.

As Maryland's defensive coordinator from 1994-96, Coyle oversaw a dramatic improvement in the Terrapins defense, steadily guiding a program that had struggled prior to his arrival and coaching future NFL cornerbacks Chad Scott and Lewis Sanders.

Serving as defensive coordinator at Syracuse from 1991-93, Coyle's 1992 defense led the nation in interceptions (24) and set a school record for fewest rushing yards allowed (1,007) in an 11-game season. During his time there, the Orange posted victories over Ohio State and Colorado in consecutive seasons. He also coached future NFL standout safety Donovin Darius.

Coyle was at Holy Cross from 1982-90. During his five years as defensive coordinator (1986-90), the school was the winningest Division I-AA team in the nation (49-5-1). In 1980, he was a coaching assistant at Arkansas under College Football Hall of Famer Lou Holtz.

He began his college tenure in 1978 as a graduate assistant at the University of Cincinnati.

Coyle was born in Staten Island, N.Y. where he attended Monsignor Farrell High School and was inducted into the school's hall of fame in 2010. Coyle was also inducted into the Staten Island Sports Hall of Fame in January of 2012. He received his undergraduate degree in physical education from Massachusetts in 1978 and earned a master's degree in education from Cincinnati in 1979. He and his wife, Louise, have a daughter, Jenlain, who is a senior at George Washington University.

Mark DUFFNER

LINEBACKERS

COLLEGE: WILLIAM & MARY
NFL: 18TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Mark Duffner enters his first season with the Dolphins after being named linebackers coach on January 21, 2014. He comes to the Dolphins with 39 years of coaching experience, which includes the past 17 seasons as an NFL assistant and 22 years in the college ranks, of which 11 seasons were spent as a head coach.

Duffner joins Miami from the Jacksonville Jaguars where he spent the previous eight seasons as linebackers coach. In 2013 with the Jaguars, Duffner's unit was highlighted with the selection of veteran Paul Posluszny to the 2014 Pro Bowl. He became the first Jacksonville linebacker selected since 1999. In 2012, the duo of Posluszny, who broke the Jaguars franchise single-season record with a career-high 231 tackles, while adding three interceptions and two sacks, and first year starter Russell Allen, who posted a career-best 201 tackles, became the first tandem in Jaguars history to each make 200 or more tackles in a season. To date, three of the franchise's top four seasons in terms of individual tackles were made by Duffner-coached linebackers.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Duffner held the same position with the Green Bay Packers for three seasons (2003-05). During his time with the Packers, Duffner was instrumental in the development of 2003 first-round draft pick Nick Barnett, who set a franchise record with 194 tackles and became the first Packer to lead the team in tackles for three consecutive seasons (2003-05). Also while in Green Bay, the Packers defense concluded the 2005 season as the NFL's top ranked defense against the pass, and as the seventh ranked defense overall in the NFL.

Duffner entered the NFL coaching ranks with the Cincinnati Bengals, where he spent six seasons as linebackers coach (1997-2000) and defensive coordinator (2001-02). In his first year as coordinator in 2001, the Bengals defense allowed the unit's fewest points (309) since 1989 and fewest yards per game (302) since 1983. In addition, the defense set a franchise single-season record for sacks that year with 48, a mark that stood for 11 seasons.

As well as being an accomplished assistant coach in the NFL, Duffner has an 80-40-1 record as a head coach at the collegiate level. As head coach at the University of Maryland (1992-96), Duffner led the Terrapins to their best record over two seasons in over a decade in his final two seasons, as well as a return to the national rankings in 1995 for the first time in nine seasons. Duffner was also the head coach at The College of the Holy Cross for six seasons (1986-91). While Duffner was head coach of the Crusaders, Holy Cross won five Patriot League championships, four Lambert Cups and four ECAC Team of the Year awards. Duffner also led his team to the No. 1 ranking in the final 1987 NCAA Division I-AA poll. He was named the Patriot League Coach of the Year four times, while also being named National Coach of the Year honors in 1987 and 1991. Duffner's .917 winning percentage (60-5-1) was the best in school and Patriot League history when he left the program. He was inducted into The College of the Holy Cross Hall of Fame in 2008.

Darren KREIN

HEAD STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

COLLEGE: MIAMI (FLA.)
NFL: 16TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: FOURTH SEASON

Darren Krein enters his fourth season with the Dolphins after being named the head strength and conditioning coach on January 20, 2011. He was retained by Head Coach Joe Philbin on January 30, 2012.

In 2013, Krein was recognized by his peers with their highest honor as he named the NFL Strength Coach of the Year at the league's annual Strength and Conditioning Coaches banquet in Indianapolis.

Prior to his arrival in Miami, Krein spent 11 years in the NFL in various strength and conditioning capacities, having been a part of the Seattle Seahawks staff on two different occasions (1997-98 and 2001-09). He originally joined the Seahawks as a member of Dennis Erickson's staff on March 1, 1997, for two seasons and re-joined the team in 2001 in the same capacity under Mike Holmgren. Krein holds the distinction of being the first-ever assistant strength and conditioning coach hired by the Seattle Seahawks.

While in Seattle he assisted in the coordination of the players' weight training, along with the team's offseason conditioning program. He also played an integral role in the designing and implementation of the rehabilitation process, working with players that were previously injured to help build strength and flexibility to become game ready. A notable Krein achievement was the physical development of Pro Bowl quarterback Matt Hasselbeck, who after injuries cut short his first season in Seattle (2001) and serving as the primary backup in 2002, Hasselbeck's offseason training, under the supervision of Krein, allowed him in 2003, 2005 and 2007 to become the first Seahawks quarterback since Rick Mirer in 1993 to start all 16 games as well as being named a member of the NFC Pro Bowl squad.

Prior to joining the Seahawks, Krein was a 1994 fifth-round (150th overall) draft choice of the San Diego Chargers. He missed his rookie season due to a knee injury. Claimed off waivers by the Green Bay Packers on June 17, 1995, he did not see game action. Krein played the entire 1996 World League season with the Barcelona Dragons, but re-injured his knee which required surgery at the end of the season and retired.

A four-year letterman as a defensive end at the University of Miami (1989-93), Krein was named unanimous first-team All-Big East selection and second-team Associated Press All-American as a senior. He left the Hurricanes with 190 career tackles and 17.5 sacks after beginning his career as a middle linebacker. Krein earned his degree in business management from the University of Miami.

While with the Eagles, Lazor played a central role in the development of second-year quarterback Nick Foles, who completed the season as the NFL's highest rated passer with a 119.2 rating. The 119.2 rating was the third-highest single-season mark in NFL history behind only Green Bay's Aaron Rodgers (122.5 in 2011) and then Indianapolis' Peyton Manning (121.1 in 2004). During the 2013 campaign, Foles' accomplishments also included nine games of a passer rating over 100-plus and throwing for 27 touchdowns with only two interceptions. He also led the NFL in yards per pass attempt (9.1), and touchdown percentage (8.5).

Prior to his year with the Eagles, Lazor spent three seasons (2010-12) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Virginia. Under his guidance, the Cavaliers offense completed a dramatic turnaround, from a unit that ranked last in the ACC in 2009, to third in 2010 averaging more than 400 yards per game. That trend continued in 2011, as the Virginia offense averaged over 399 yards per game en route to the school's first bowl game appearance in four seasons.

Lazor began his NFL coaching career in 2003 with the Atlanta Falcons under Dan Reeves as an offensive quality control coach and later joined Hall of Fame coach Joe Gibbs as an offensive assistant with the Washington Redskins in 2004. He spent the next three seasons with the Redskins, including the final two years as the team's quarterbacks coach. Following his time with the Redskins, Lazor moved on to the Pacific Northwest and joined Mike Holmgren's staff with the Seattle Seahawks as quarterbacks coach, a position that he held through the 2009 season.

Following a decorated playing career at Cornell University, Lazor began his coaching career with a variety of positions on the Big Red staff. From 1994-2000, Lazor coached running backs, wide receivers, quarterbacks and tight ends as well as serving as the school's junior varsity head coach. Lazor's final two seasons at Cornell (1999-2000) were spent as the school's passing game coordinator and recruiting coordinator. A graduate of Cornell, Lazor completed his undergraduate studies with a Bachelor of Science degree in human development and family studies. He was a three-year starter at quarterback for the Big Red and completed his playing career with 26 passing and total offensive program records. An All-Ivy League performer, Lazor was captain and the team's most valuable player as a senior in 1993. Marwan MAALOUF

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

COLLEGE: BALDWIN-WALLACE
NFL: 10TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: SECOND SEASON

Marwan Maalouf enters his second season with the Dolphins after being named assistant special teams coach on January 30, 2013.

In 2013, Maalouf assisted Special Teams Coordinator Darren Rizzi with a unit that was rated among the top eight in the NFL based on the annual Dallas Morning News Special Teams rankings. The 2013 special teams units were highlighted by the play of punter Brandon Fields, who earned his first Pro Bowl berth. Fields ranked second in the NFL in punt average (48.8 yards per punt), second in net average (42.4, which is the eight best in NFL history), tied for third with 33 punts inside the 20-yard line and also recorded the third-longest punt (74 yards) during the season. Fields is one of only two Dolphins punters to be selected to the Pro Bowl, joining Reggie Roby (1984, 1989).

Maalouf joined the Dolphins after spending the 2012 season as the special teams coordinator with the Indianapolis Colts. Under his direction, the Colts special teams as a unit significantly improved in 2012, aided in part by returning a punt and a kickoff for a touchdown in the same season for the just the sixth time in franchise history and first since 2001. The kick return unit recorded its first touchdown since 2009. The Colts also posted an 11.1 per punt return which ranks as the fourth-highest punt return average in franchise history. Individually the Colts special teams saw returner Deji Karim return a kickoff 101-yards for a touchdown in the final week of the regular season against the Houston Texans. Karim's return was the longest return in franchise history in 39 years. In 2012, Pat McAfee was among the elite kickoff specialists and punters in the NFL, finishing third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL in punting average with a 47.9 per punt average. McAffee, who also handled the kickoff duties for Indianapolis, finished fourth in the AFC and eighth in the NFL with 43 touchback kicks. McAfee also made his mark in the Colts history books as his 2012 season set franchise single-season records for kickoff touchbacks (43), punting average (47.9), net punting average (40.3), 50.0-yard average games (five) and tied the franchise record for punts inside the 20 (26). Rounding out Maalouf's unit in 2012 was the reliable, consistent and future Hall of Fame kicker Adam Vinatieri. The 17-year veteran's 53-yard game winning field goal against the Minnesota Vikings was the longest game-winning field goal Vinatieri has made in his career in the last minute of the fourth quarter or in overtime. Also in 2012, Vinatieri surpassed 100 points scored for the season for the 15th time in his career, which currently ranks him second for most 100-point seasons in NFL history.

Prior to joining the Colts, Maalouf spent four seasons (2008-11) as the assistant special teams coach for the Baltimore Ravens. In 2010, Maalouf helped then rookie kickoff returner David Reed lead the NFL in kickoff return average (29.2) and coached a unit which finished third in the league in opponent average starting position (27.2-yard line). Kicker Billy Cundiff also earned his first Pro Bowl after tying an NFL mark with 40 touchbacks (since kickoffs moved back to the 30-yard line).

In 2009, Baltimore ranked second in the NFL in both kickoff return average (26.3) and opponents' average starting field position (26.9). Maalouf joined the Ravens in 2008 and that season coached punter Sam Koch, who had the NFL's fifth-best net punting average (39.9). Koch also led the league with 18 punts inside the 10-yard line and was second in the league with 34 kicks inside the 20-yard line. Maalouf also helped guide special teams ace Brendon Ayanbadejo to his third Pro Bowl selection.

Prior to coming to Baltimore, Maalouf spent the 2007 season working for Scouts Inc., writing weekly scouting reports and game reviews for ESPN.com and worked as a volunteer coach for Baldwin-Wallace.

From 2004-06, Maalouf was the special teams quality control coach for the Cleveland Browns. During his final season, he coached Josh Cribbs, who ranked third in the NFL with 1,545 total return yards. The Browns' punt return average of 10.3 yards also ranked seventh in the NFL.

Maalouf spent two seasons (2002-03) as an assistant offensive line coach/graduate assistant at Rutgers following a brief stint at Eastern Michigan as a graduate assistant. He also held positions as an assistant offensive line coach for Fordham (2001) and Baldwin-Wallace College (2000).

Collegiately, Maalouf earned three letters while playing guard for Baldwin-Wallace (1997-1999) and was a two-time All-Ohio Athletic Conference selection. He was Baldwin-Wallace's Outstanding Offensive Lineman and was elected as a team captain his senior season.

DOLPHINS: FIRST SEASON

Ben Martin joins the Dolphins as an offensive assistant after spending the 2013 season at Wagner College as the Seahawks' offensive line coach.

Prior to joining the staff at Wagner, Martin spent the 2012 season as the running backs coach for the Princeton Tigers. While with Princeton, he was a part of a staff that directed one of the biggest turnarounds in school history, as the team posted a 5-5 record in 2012 following a 2011 season which the Tigers went 1-9. The four-win improvement was in part due to a ground attack that saw the Tigers rush for more than 100-yards in nine of their ten games, highlighted by a 262-yard performance vs. Lafayette, as well as efforts of 194 yards vs. Brown and 184 yards vs. Yale.

Martin spent the 2010-11 seasons as offensive quality control coach at Texas A&M, where he worked with current Dolphins quarterbacks coach Zac Taylor and quarterback Ryan Tannehill. While at A&M, he helped guide the Aggies to a Big 12 South Division title in 2010. He joined the Aggies' staff after spending two seasons (2008-09) at Merrimack College (MA) as the run-game/recruiting coordinator. While at Merrimack, the Warriors' offense developed into one of the top units in all of Division II football. In 2009, the Warriors led the Northeast-10 Conference in scoring (349 points), total offense (482.6 yards per game), rushing offense (251.6 yards per game), first downs (226) and fewest sacks allowed (11). Darren RIZZI

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

COLLEGE: RHODE ISLAND
NFL: SIXTH SEASON
DOLPHINS: SIXTH SEASON

Darren Rizzi enters his sixth season as both an NFL assistant and as a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff and fourth as special teams coordinator. He joined the Dolphins as assistant special teams coach in 2009.

In his tenure at Miami, three members of the special teams (kicker Dan Carpenter, long snapper John Denney [two times] and punter Brandon Fields) have been named to the Pro Bowl.

In 2013, for the third consecutive season, the Dolphins' special teams under the direction of Rizzi were rated among the top eight units in the NFL based on the annual Dallas Morning News Special Teams rankings. Miami was one of three teams to remain in the top ten (along with Baltimore and Seattle) in both the 2013 and 2012 rankings. Additionally, over the past three seasons (2011-13) only Miami and Seattle have been ranked by the Dallas Morning News in the top ten.

Rizzi's 2013 special teams units were highlighted by the play of Fields, who earned his first Pro Bowl berth. Fields ranked second in the NFL in punt average (48.8 yards per punt), second in net average (42.4, which is the eight best in NFL history), tied for third with 33 punts inside the 20-yard line and also recorded the third-longest punt (74 yards) during the season. Fields is one of only two Dolphins punters to be selected to the Pro Bowl, joining Reggie Roby (1984, 1989).

The 2012 campaign built off a strong 2011 season for Rizzi and the Dolphins special teams. Rick Gosselin of the Dallas Morning News ranked Miami as one of the top five special teams units in the NFL for the second consecutive year, making the Dolphins the only team in the NFL to rank in the top five during both the 2012 and 2011 seasons, following a second place finish in '11.

In 2012, Fields continued to establish himself as one of the most productive punters in NFL history, leading the NFL with a 50.2 average, while moving into first place in team history for highest career punting average (46.4), highest career net punting average (38.7) and second place in NFL history for highest career punting average (46.4). Newcomer Marcus Thigpen became the first player in team history to return a kickoff (96 yards at Buffalo on November 5, 2012) and a punt (72 yards at Houston on September 9, 2012) for touchdowns in the same season. Thigpen also stood alone as the only player in the NFL to rank in the top five in kickoff return average (27.4) and punt return average (12.2) in 2012. Additionally, Miami became the first NFL team in the last 20 years to block a field goal, block a punt and recover their own onside kick in the same game when the unit accomplished that feat at the New York Jets on October 28, 2012.

Rizzi led an impressive 2011 season by the Dolphins special teams. The units showed the biggest improvement of any NFL special teams unit in the NFL from 2010 to 2011 according the annual special teams report compiled by Gosselin. The improvement saw the Dolphins jump from their 2010 ranking of 24th in the NFL to second in 2011. The 22 place advancement was aided by Carpenter's 13 of 16 in field goals from 40 yards and beyond and Fields' net punting average of 41.1 yards, finishing just behind the special teams units of the San Francisco 49ers.

After Rizzi took over the special teams in week five, the Dolphins improved in almost every major statistical special teams category, including net and gross punt average, punt and kick return average, average drive start and opponent's gross and net punt average.

Rizzi joined the Dolphins with four years of experience as a college head coach, including the 2008 season at the University of Rhode Island. Prior to taking over the program at URI, Rizzi was an assistant at Rutgers for the previous six seasons (2002-07), where he headed up the Scarlet Knights' special teams unit. He also tutored the team's running backs his first three years there and the linebackers for his final three. In addition, he held the title of assistant head coach from 2004-06 and associate head coach in 2007. In Rizzi's six years at RU, he coached three players who earned first-team All-Big East honors in special teams including kick returner Nate Jones (2002), kick/punt returner Willie Foster (2005) and punter Joe Radigan (2006). Jones also was named the conference's co-Special Teams Player of the Year in 2002 while Foster was the Big East Special Teams Player of the Year in 2005.

Before his stint at Rutgers, Rizzi was the head coach at the University of New Haven, where he guided the Chargers to a three-year record of 15-14 from 1999-2001. Rizzi was the special teams and linebackers coach at Northeastern University in 1998. He coached at New Haven from 1994-97, where he was UNH's defensive coordinator in his final year there, after overseeing the special teams and defensive line his first three. Rizzi began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Colgate in 1993.

Rizzi played tight end at Rhode Island, where he first walked on in 1988. He went on to tally 160 receptions for 2,426 yards and 15 touchdowns in his collegiate career and was a consensus All America selection in 1992. Following his time at Rhode Island, Rizzi was signed as a free agent by the Philadelphia Eagles prior to beginning his coaching career. A native of Hillsdale, N.J. and a graduate of Bergen Catholic High School in New Jersey, Rizzi earned a degree in speech communications from URI in 1992. During the spring of 2013, Rizzi was inducted into the Bergen Catholic High School Hall of Fame. A two sport high school star, he concluded his prep football career with 69 receptions, a school record which stood for 22 years, while also excelling as an All-League outfielder for the baseball team.

Kacy Rodgers enters his seventh season as a member of the Dolphins' coaching staff, having joined the club after a five-year stint with the Dallas Cowboys (2003-07), the final three of which he tutored that team's defensive line.

Since Rodgers joined the Dolphins as defensive line coach prior to the 2008 season, Miami's defense has totaled 248 sacks, tied with the Philadelphia Eagles for the third-most in the NFL, behind only the Minnesota Vikings (259 sacks) and Pittsburgh Steelers (252 sacks) from 2008-13.

In 2013, Rodgers' defensive line contributed 34 sacks to a unit that totaled 42 sacks, marking the third consecutive season that the defense has recorded 40-plus sacks and the first time in team history the team has accomplished that feat in three straight seasons. Additionally, the Dolphins are one of only four teams to record 40-or-more sacks in each of the past three seasons (2011-13). The defense also has recorded 84 sacks over the past two seasons (2012-13), which is the fifth-best total in the AFC over that time span. Defensive end Cameron Wake earned his third Pro Bowl nod in 2013 with 8.5 sacks and fellow defensive end Olivier Vernon notched a team-high 11.5 sacks.

In 2012, Rodgers guided a defensive line which helped Miami finish seventh in the AFC in rushing yards allowed per game (108.4) and fourth in sacks (42). After switching from a 3-4 defense in 2011 to a 4-3 in 2012, Rodgers saw two of his players, Wake, who transitioned from outside linebacker to defensive end, and Randy Starks, who moved from defensive end to defensive tackle, earn Pro Bowl recognition. Wake established a career-high 15 sacks, while Starks added 4.5 sacks of his own.

In 2011, Rodgers' line anchored a defense that finished third in the NFL against the run, with nose tackle Paul Soliai earning his first Pro Bowl recognition. Miami finished seventh in rush defense and third in fewest rushing yards per carry at 3.6 in 2010 as Starks earned Pro Bowl honors.

Rodgers' first two years with the Cowboys (2003-04) were spent coaching the club's defensive tackles. Under Rodgers, defensive tackle La'Roi Glover was selected to the Pro Bowl each year from 2003-05. In four of Rodgers' five seasons with Dallas, the team ranked in the top ten in the NFL in rush defense, including a No. 6 finish in 2007 when they allowed an average of just 94.6 yards rushing per game.

Before entering the NFL coaching ranks, Rodgers was an assistant at the collegiate level, including posts at Tennessee-Martin (1994-97), Louisiana-Monroe (1998), Middle Tennessee State (1999-2001) and Arkansas (2002). He tutored the defensive line at all four stops, while having also been assistant head coach at Tennessee-Martin (1997) and Middle Tennessee (2000-01).

Rodgers went to training camp with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1992 as a college free agent. He also played with the Shreveport Pirates of the Canadian League in 1994.

A four-year letterman at the University of Tennessee (1988-91), Rodgers played linebacker and defensive end on teams that won a pair of Southeastern Conference championships (1990, 1991) and appeared in three New Year's Day bowl games. He earned his degree in political science from the school in 1993. Rodgers is a native of Humboldt, Tennessee where he starred at Humboldt High School.

Rodgers and the players on his defensive line participated in the Miami Dolphins "All-Community Team" program. Under the group name "The First Line of Defense", the unit has purchased a block of tickets to each of the team's regular season home games and donated them to a charitable organization.

ACQUIRED: FA, 1997
COLLEGE: ATLANTIS '97
NFL: 18TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: 18TH SEASON

T.D., the official mascot of the Miami Dolphins, has been a fixture at Dolphins games since his introduction at the Miami Dolphins' Draft Party on April 19, 1997. His charming personality, outstanding sense of humor, and ability to relate to young and old alike make him a "Fin"-tastic ambassador for the Dolphins.

T.D. performs at every Dolphins home game, but his job isn't done when the season is over. He can be found throughout South Florida, making appearances at schools, parades, hospitals, and various other functions.

An nine-time Pro Bowl mascot, T.D. has also performed at the Chinese New Year's Day Parade in Hong Kong, and he was the first mascot to participate in the Hall of Fame Game in Canton, Ohio.

When T.D. originally debuted, he had not yet been named. The Dolphins' "Name the Mascot Contest" drew more than 13,000 entries from all 50 states and more than 22 countries. Sara Fernandez of Miami was the first to submit the name "T.D.," and she won two tickets to Super Bowl XXXII when the name was selected at the annual Dolphins Awards Banquet on June 4, 1997.

Prior to T.D., the club had a live dolphin named "Flipper," who was situated in a fish tank in the open end of the Orange Bowl. The club also had "Dolfan Denny" patrol the sidelines for several seasons. However, with the debut of T.D., the Dolphins finally had an official mascot.

If you'd like to score a "T.D." at your next event, please e-mail JQuadrozzi@dolphins.com.

FLIPPER

From 1966-68, a live dolphin was situated in a water tank in the open (east) end of the Orange Bowl. He would jump in the tank to celebrate touchdowns and field goals. Flipper was removed from the Orange Bowl after 1968.

In the 1994 feature film, "Ace Ventura", starring Jim Carrey, the plot involved Snowflake, a fictional live dolphin who did tricks after the Dolphins score a touchdown and was the basis of the film after he was kidnapped as part of a revenge plot against Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino.

MIAMI DOLPHINS FOUNDATION

Established in 1996 as the fundraising arm of the Miami Dolphins Football Team, the Miami Dolphins Foundation is committed to making a year-round difference in the South Florida community. Since Chairman of the Board and Managing General Partner Stephen Ross assumed the leadership of the organization, the Foundation refocused its philanthropic efforts to provide support in the South Florida communities.

The Foundation is working to raise awareness and funds for cancer research "One Mile At A Time" through its Dolphins Cycling Challenge, which has raised more than $7 million for the UM Sylvester Comprehensive Medical Center over its four years.

The Foundation also established the Special Teams Driven by Chevy program in 2010, a grassroots volunteer organization whose mission is to offer hands-on services to communities and families in need. The Special Teams Driven by Chevy program, which provides more than 50,000 hours of community service each year, supplies local charitable programs with volunteers to support their missions.

SUN LIFE STADIUM

With 27 years as one of the nation's premier sports facilities, Sun Life Stadium is South Florida's home to the Miami Dolphins, University of Miami Hurricanes, Orange Bowl game, the Guinness International Champions Cup and other world-class events. This multi-purpose, open-air complex hosted its first football game in August 1987 and its first regular season Major League Baseball game in April 1993. It has been home to five Super Bowls, four BCS National Championships and was the first stadium to host the NFL Pro Bowl after 30 years of the game being held in Hawaii.

On June 17, 2014, the Miami-Dade County Commission approved by a 7-4 vote a Performance-Based Marquee Event Grant Agreement, which moved forward the Sun Life Stadium modernization plan. The agreement gives bonus payments to the Miami Dolphins for hosting major events in exchange for Dolphins owner Stephen Ross being financially responsible for the renovation of the stadium without county assistance. The agreement, which is designed to help bring marquee events such as Super Bowls, college football championships, college football semifinals, World Cup soccer matches as well as other international soccer events, is for a period of 20 years. The modernization of the stadium will take place during the next two off-seasons (2015 and 2016). When complete, the stadium will have a canopy to protect fans from rain and sun, more seats closer to the field, a reduced capacity of about 65,000, new HD lighting, upgraded sound system, four new video boards and other modern amenities.

In 2007, the stadium underwent $250 million in improvements and innovations, adding 360,000 square feet of programmable space, and other general enhancements. In 2010, new corporate offices were built on the east side of the Stadium in order to consolidate the business offices of the Miami Dolphins. "A Perfect Moment In Time" statue honoring Don Shula and the team's perfect moment in time immediately after the Dolphins completed their undefeated season in 1972, was unveiled and proudly adorns the entrance of the new offices.

HISTORY

Now in its 28th year of operation, the 75,000 seat, multi-purpose, open-air facility was the first of its kind to be constructed entirely with private funds, costing 115 million dollars when it was completed in 1987. The late Joe Robbie led the financing campaign to build "Joe Robbie Stadium" for the Miami Dolphins of the NFL. JRS revolutionized the economics of professional sports when it opened that year. Inclusion of a Club Level, along with Executive Suites, helped to finance the construction of the stadium. Season ticket holders committed to long-term agreements and in return they received first-class amenities in a state-of-the-art facility, which is still used as a model for new facilities across the country.

On March 7, 1990, H. Wayne Huizenga, then Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Blockbuster Video and Huizenga Holdings Inc., agreed to purchase fifty percent of Joe Robbie Stadium and became the point man in the drive to bring Major League Baseball to South Florida. That effort was rewarded in July of 1991, when South Florida was awarded a National League expansion franchise. On January 24, 1994, Huizenga acquired the remaining fifty percent of the stadium to give him 100 percent ownership. Since 1991, more than 80 million dollars have been spent to upgrade and renovate the stadium. The improvement and revitalization of the building under Huizenga allowed the stadium to remain the finest sports and entertainment facility in the United States.

On August 26, 1996, Pro Player, the sports apparel division of Fruit of the Loom, sponsored the renaming of Joe Robbie Stadium as Pro Player Stadium. They became the first sports marketing and products company to entitle a stadium or arena.

The first football game in Joe Robbie Stadium was held on August 16, 1987, when the Miami Dolphins met the Chicago Bears in a preseason battle. The game also marked the 22nd anniversary of the Dolphins franchise. The stadium hosted the National Football League's premier game, Super Bowl XXIII, on January 22, 1989. It marked the return of the Super Bowl to South Florida after a ten-year absence. Subsequent Super Bowls staged at Land Shark Stadium are Super Bowl XXIX (January 29, 1995), Super Bowl XXIII (January 31, 1999) and Super Bowl XLI (February 4, 2007).

Major League Baseball officially began in South Florida in the spring of 1993 as the Florida Marlins opened their inaugural campaign as a National League team. On April 5, 1993, the "new" look of Joe Robbie Stadium as a baseball facility was unveiled to the public for the first time as the Florida Marlins hosted the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Marlins began their existence by finishing the first day in first place with a 6-3 win over the Dodgers. On September 28, 2011, the Marlins played their final game at Sun Life Stadium. A crowd of 34,615 watched as the Marlins dropped a 3-1 decision to the Washington Nationals. In all, the Marlins played 1,504 games in the stadium and posted a record of 781-723.

In 1997, the stadium hosted four World Series games between the Marlins and the Cleveland Indians, including Game One on October 18, 1997, the first Series game ever played at the stadium, and Game Seven on October 26, 1997, which the Marlins won, 3-2 in 11 innings, to capture their first World Championship.

Before the arrival of the Marlins, the stadium had played host to 13 spring training games that attracted 370,000 fans and paved the way for baseball in South Florida.

Sun Life Stadium is equipped with a Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system which provides draining for its natural grass, and during February and March of 1995, the old PAT system was removed, and a new advanced mechanical drainage system was installed. At a cost of one million dollars, the new system provides three times the drainage capacity of the old system and ensures a firm, dry playing surface within half an hour's time after as much as a three inch per hour rainfall.

The stadium was renamed Dolphins Stadium in January 2005, as part of a major plan renovation initiated by Huizenga. In April 2006, two hi-definition video boards, the largest and second largest in professional sports, were unveiled A new fascia LED ribbon-board was installed in July 2006.

Working with HOK Sport and Stiles Construction, both renowned in their respective fields of venue design and construction, the stadium completed a $250 million improvements and innovations project that included the addition of 360,000 square feet of enclosed space, new casual sitting and gathering areas throughout the stadium, an all-new Club Level, refurbished luxury suites, new team merchandise store and other amenities.

In 2008, Huizenga sold 50 percent of the team, stadium and surrounding developable land to Stephen M. Ross, Chairman of the Related Companies, an international real estate development company. Huizenga remained the managing general partner of the franchise until he sold another 45 percent of the team and stadium to Ross in January 2009. Ross became general managing partner with 95 percent ownership of the Dolphins and the stadium while Huizenga retained a five percent share of both and remained a 50 percent partner in the land.

In one of his first moves to improve the fan experience at the stadium, in May, 2009, Ross and celebrated singer songwriter Jimmy Buffett announce that Dolphin Stadium will be renamed Land Shark Stadium. The unique branding brought Buffett's Margaritaville and Land Shark themes to enhance the game-day experience. To mark the announcement, Buffett performed three songs and unveiled the new lyrics to his iconic song "FINS", written expressly for the team.

On January 20, 2010, the stadium's name was changed to Sun Life Stadium as the leading international financial services organization made Miami and South Florida a major part of a multi-city philanthropic endeavor through a comprehensive marketing partnership with the Miami Dolphins and the Miami Dolphins Foundation. The partnership's impact is felt beyond the stadium and into the South Florida community. The two organizations have teamed up to bring the Sun Life Rising Star Awards program to South Florida through an annual donation to the Miami Dolphins Foundation.

DOCTORS HOSPITAL TRAINING FACILITY AT NOVA SOUTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY

On July 11, 1993, the Miami Dolphins officially moved into their brand new training facility at Nova Southeastern University in Davie, Florida, from their long-time base at St. Thomas University in Miami. On August 8, 2012, the Dolphins announced a comprehensive marketing and community partnership agreement with Doctors Hospital Center for Orthopedics & Sports Medicine, a division of Baptist Health South Florida. The partnership includes the naming rights to the team's training facility. As a result of the partnership, the complex will be officially known as the Doctors Hospital Training Facility at Nova Southeastern University.

The ten million dollar state-of-the-art facility covers 98,452 square feet and incorporates the latest technology and advances that were utilized in the design of other NFL training facilities.

The Dolphins' training center not only houses the team's football operation personnel, but it also serves as the site of the club's preseason training camp and all off-season conditioning programs.

The facility includes a large locker room area, sauna and steam rooms, a therapy swimming pool, a cold plunge pool, whirlpools, and one of the largest weight training rooms in the NFL.

In addition to the physical training needs, modern support facilities also were constructed. Those include a full-size kitchen and dining lounge, player lounge, conference rooms, equipment rooms, laundry areas, video editing labs, an auditorium that functions as a site for major press conferences as well as for full team and staff meetings and the Dolphins Pro Shop, which sells official team merchandise.

Administrative offices, located on the second floor, include the head coach's office with an adjacent conference room overlooking the practice fields. Offensive and defensive coaches' offices flank these areas. Other office space exists for personnel and administrative staff members.

At the rear of the facility are two full-sized grass football fields, which were constructed utilizing the Prescription Athletic Turf (PAT) system that also is used for the field at Sun Life Stadium. That system incorporates underground pipes and electronic pumps to remove water from the fields when natural drainage is not adequate.

The Dolphins also now have their own indoor practice field, which was completed in July 2006. The 96,000-square foot structure sits on a three-acre tract adjacent to the two outdoor fields. The 100-yard field is made of a "Twenty-Four/Seven" grass-like synthetic turf, manufactured by The Motz Group.

With a primary emphasis to design the complex in a "fan-friendly" manner, a bleacher structure adjacent to the fields was constructed, utilizing elements of Sun Life Stadium itself. When the stadium was revised to accommodate baseball, large sections of seats from the stadium were removed. Those sections were relocated to the Nova Southeastern facility as part of the new complex. As a result, the bleacher facility at Nova Southeastern can accommodate 2,000 spectators, including 600 in chair-back seats, for open practice sessions and other special events. The structure also provides fans permanent amenities such as concession areas, a merchandise pro shop and rest rooms.

GALLERY OF LEGENDS

On Wednesday, November 2, 2005, the "Gallery of Legends" made its public debut at Sun Life Stadium. Located at Gate D on the Club Level of the stadium, the Gallery is a tribute to the history of Miami Dolphins football. Special exhibits were created to track the team's history, from its inception in 1966 to the present. Features include Dolphins memorabilia and photographs, as well as elements of life in South Florida and a Dan Marino timeline through those years. It also consists of such artifacts as the chairs the players used for meetings at St. Thomas University, in addition to the office desk utilized by Hall of Fame Head Coach Don Shula.

THE ORANGE BOWL

The 1986 season marked the end of an era for the Miami Dolphins as the team played its final season in the Orange Bowl.

In 21 years at the venue, the Dolphins posted a 110-38-3 (.738) regular-season record. In the playoffs, Miami was 10-4 at the 75,206-seat Orange Bowl, giving the team a 120-43-3 (.736) mark in all games played there.

Miami played in the Orange Bowl from the team's initial season in 1966 through the 1986 campaign. From 1966 to 1969, the Orange Bowl had a grass playing field. The playing surface was changed to Poly-Turf in 1970, was replaced in 1972 and finally removed in March 1976, so that Prescription Athletic Turf could be installed.

The Orange Bowl was the site of many great sporting events, including five Super Bowls, the annual Orange Bowl Classic, Olympic soccer matches and championship boxing matches.

The 2007 season was the final one for the Orange Bowl. The University of Miami, who called the OB home from 1937-2007, played its final game there on November 10, 2007, when they dropped a 48-0 decision to the University of Virginia. The final collegiate game at the Orange Bowl occurred on December 1, 2007 when Florida International defeated North Texas, 38-19. The final organized game took place on January 4, 2008 in "The O-D All-American Bowl," a high school all-star game. A "Farewell To The Orange Bowl" celebration was held on January 26, 2008. Approximately 15,000 people watched a team of ex-Miami Hurricanes beat a team of ex-Dolphins, 65-51, in a flag-football exhibition. Demolition began in March of 2008 and was completed in May.

A PLAYER'S COACH

When Bryan Cox was named the team's pass rush coach in 2011, he became the ninth person to have both played and coached with the Dolphins. Cox was chosen by Miami in the fifth round of the 1991 Draft and played the first five years of his career with the Dolphins at linebacker (1991-95). The first to have achieved this was Bob Matheson, who was a linebacker from 1971-79 before going on to serve with the staff from 1983-86. The others who followed Matheson and preceded Cox are Larry Seiple (P/RB/TE, 1967-77; Coach, 1988-99), Tony Nathan (RB, 1979-87; Coach, 1989-95), Dwight Stephenson (C, 1980-87; Coach, 1992), Bernie Parmalee (RB, 1992-98; Coach, 2002-04), Jeff Dellenbach (T/C, 1985-94; Coach, 2004), Terry Robiskie (FB, 1980-81; Coach, 2007) and James Saxon (RB, 1992-94; Coach, 2008-10). In addition, while not seeing action in a game, Jason Garrett served as the team's 3rd quarterback for five games in 2004 before joining the coaching staff from 2005-06 as the team's quarterbacks coach.

TRADING PLACES

When the National Football League rescheduled the Dolphins' home game against the Kansas City Chiefs in 2005 to Friday, October 21 because of the impending arrival of Hurricane Wilma, it was not the first time the club had to change a contest's date or venue for a variety of reasons. In fact, that marked the third straight year and fourth time in five seasons this occurred.

Since 1990, the Dolphins have had to alter the date or venue of a game six times, and the Dolphins are 3-3 in such games. The following are games in which the Dolphins have either had to change a date or site on short notice since 1990:

Original Date, Venue	Opp.	New Date, Venue	Reason	Result

LEAGUE LEADERS IN FEWEST SACKS ALLOWED

The Dolphins hold NFL records for most seasons leading the league in fewest sacks allowed (10 – 1973, 1982-90) and most consecutive seasons leading the league in the same category (1982-90). In addition, during the 1988 and 1989 seasons the Dolphins set an NFL record by not allowing a quarterback sack in 19 consecutive games. The streak far outdistanced the previous NFL mark of five straight games, which was accomplished on many occasions. In 1988, Miami also set an NFL sack record by allowing only seven sacks in the 16-game season.

GAME 1

DOLPHINS 23, BROWNS 10 — FirstEnergy Field
September 9, 2013 — Cleveland, OH

The Miami Dolphins defense was considered a strength coming into the 2013 season and that unit held up its end in a season-opening 23-10 win at the Cleveland Browns. Two-time Pro Bowl defensive end Cameron Wake paced the unit with 2.5 of the six sacks of Browns quarterback Brandon Weeden. His fellow defensive teammates came up with three interceptions – two by cornerback Dimitri Patterson and one by cornerback Nolan Carroll. Those three turnovers were forced in the first half when Miami's offense got off to a slow start resulting in just two field goals. Quarterback Ryan Tannehill and crew found their rhythm in the second half as the second-year starter finished the game completing 24-of-38 passes for 272 yards, one touchdown and one interception. Brian Hartline caught the 34-yard scoring pass and was Tannehill's leading receiver with nine catches for 114 yards. Rookie kicker Caleb Sturgis was 3-for-3 on field goals with kicks of 37, 45 and 49 yards and booming each of his kickoffs into the end zone.

GAME 2

DOLPHINS 24, COLTS 20 — Lucas Oil Stadium
September 15, 2013 — Indianapolis, IN

It was a complete team effort which led the Miami Dolphins to an impressive 24-20 victory on the road against the Indianapolis Colts. The win improved Miami's record to 2-0 in 2013. The last time the Dolphins opened a season with back-to-back road wins was in 2010 at the Buffalo Bills and Minnesota Vikings. It was a breakout game for wide receiver Mike Wallace and third-year tight end Charles Clay. Second-year quarterback Ryan Tannehill evened his career record at 1-1 against Colts quarterback Andrew Luck.

Tannehill completed 23-of-34 passes for 319 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions, finding Wallace nine times for 115 yards and an 18-yard score, the wideout's first touchdown in a Dolphins uniform, on the first drive of the game. He also found Clay five times for 109 yards and the tight end also scored a rushing touchdown. Defensively, the Dolphins were getting taken advantage of by Luck in the first half to the tune of 248 passing yards but shut him down over the final 30 minutes and sacked him twice. Cornerback Brent Grimes came up with the biggest play of the game late in the fourth quarter when he intercepted Luck's pass in the end zone intended for veteran wide receiver Reggie Wayne for a touchback. Former Colts linebacker Philip Wheeler and Randy Starks sacked Luck on 4th-and-10 with a little over a minute left in the game and Indianapolis out of timeouts.

DOLPHINS 27, FALCONS 23 — Sun Life Stadium
September 22, 2013 — Miami Gardens, FL

The Miami Dolphins pulled out a dramatic 27-23 comeback win over the Atlanta Falcons at Sun Life Stadium to improve to 3-0 in 2013. Second-year quarterback Ryan Tannehill capped off a flawless 75-yard scoring drive with a 1-yard touchdown pass to rookie tight end Dion Sims with 38 seconds left in the game. Sims fought off Falcons linebacker Stephen Nicholas and made a nifty one-handed grab of Tannehill's pass for the game-winning score. Safety Jimmy Wilson sealed the victory with a leaping interception of Falcons quarterback Matt Ryan with 26 second left in the game and ran out of bounds at the Atlanta 41. Tannehill completed 24-of-35 for 236 yards, two touchdowns and one interception. He connected earlier in the third quarter with wide receiver Brian Hartline on an 18-yard score and rookie kicker Caleb Sturgis drilled field goals of 46 and 50 yards. The Falcons led 10-0 early in the second quarter before the Dolphins even touched the ball a second time, yet Tannehill and company never panicked. Running back Lamar Miller's 49-yard burst up the middle keyed a six-play, 80-yard scoring drive that culminated with fellow running back Daniel Thomas' 5-yard touchdown run, and then Tannehill executed the two-minute drill at the end of the half well enough to set Sturgis up for his 46-yard field goal as time expired. Miami trailed only 13-10 at intermission. Unfortunately, Tannehill's opening drive of the second half ended in a sack and a lost fumble that was recovered at his own 12 by Falcons defensive tackle Peria Jerry. Atlanta converted on the turnover when Ryan found tight end Levine Toilolo from 2 yards out to extend his team's lead back to 10 points. After Sturgis made it a one-score game again at 20-13 with his 50-yard field goal early in the third quarter the Miami defense forced Atlanta to punt for the first time and Matt Bosher shanked it out of bounds at the Dolphins' 40. A tipped pass off the hands of tight end Charles Clay resulted in an interception by Falcons safety William Moore but their offense stalled again with a three-and-out, before their defense responded by forcing a Brandon Fields 53-yard punt. Covering Fields' kick, Dolphins rookie safety Don Jones forced a fumble by Harry Douglas that was recovered by John Denney and three plays later Tannehill found Hartline alone in the end zone. It was up to the Dolphins' defense for the rest of the second half to contain Atlanta and keep the score close enough so that the offense could have a chance to pull out the win.

SAINTS 38, DOLPHINS 17 — Mercedes Benz Superdome
September 30, 2013 — New Orleans, LA

Looking for their first 4-0 start since 1995, the Miami Dolphins ran into a New Orleans Saints offense hitting on all cylinders on a Monday night and came up on the wrong end of a 38-17 score. Second-year quarterback Ryan Tannehill led the Dolphins on two scoring drives, including one of 81 yards that resulted in a touchdown to make it a four-point game, but his fumble on a scramble and interception late in the half led to two New Orleans touchdowns. Saints quarterback Drew Brees completed 30-of-39 passes for 413 yards, four touchdowns and no interceptions. Tannehill, who had looked solid in the first three games, especially in the fourth quarter, finished the night 22-of-35 for 249 yards, one touchdown and three interceptions. He also picked up 48 yards on the ground on four carries. Second-year running back Lamar Miller led the way with 62 rushing yards on 11 carries. Wide receiver Brandon Gibson was the Dolphins' leading receiver with six catches for 71 yards and tight end Charles Clay also grabbed six passes for 42 yards. The Saints defense also got after Tannehill with its pass rush, sacking him four times.

GAME 5

RAVENS 26, DOLPHINS 23 — Sun Life Stadium
October 6, 2013 — Miami Gardens, FL

Defense dictated the tone at Sun Life Stadium with timely plays, but it was the Baltimore Ravens that had the last word with two key stops, escaping with a 26-23 win over the Miami Dolphins. Miami had a chance to send the game into overtime in the final minute when rookie kicker Caleb Sturgis lined up to try a 57-yard field goal. He was a perfect 10-of-10 on the season coming in but his kick sailed wide to the left and Baltimore kneeled to end the game. Dolphins safety Reshad Jones awoke the crowd with a 25-yard interception return for a touchdown with 8:03 left to tie the game after his team had fallen behind by 10 points. It was Jones' first career touchdown and the first interception returned for a score by Miami since Kevin Burnett did so on December 4th, 2011 against the Oakland Raiders. It was also the first interception returned for a touchdown by a safety since Brock Marion ran one back 100 yards against Buffalo on January 6, 2002. But after Miami's defense stopped the Ravens and forced a punt, Baltimore linebacker Terrell Suggs sacked Dolphins quarterback Ryan Tannehill twice to force another punt and his quarterback, Joe Flacco, engineered what proved to be the game-winning scoring drive. Justin Tucker's 44-yard field goal was the difference in the end as he finished 4-for-4 with a long of 50 yards on the afternoon.

GAME 6

BILLS 23, DOLPHINS 21 — Sun Life Stadium
October 20, 2013 — Miami Gardens, FL

After digging themselves an early hole in the first quarter, the Miami Dolphins were on the verge of completing a crucial comeback win at home against the Buffalo Bills, but former Dolphins kicker Dan Carpenter's 31-yard field goal with 33 seconds remaining gave Buffalo a narrow 23-21 win. Miami had stormed back from a 14-0 deficit to take a 21-17 lead in the third quarter on the strength of three Ryan Tannehill touchdown passes – two to wide receiver Brandon Gibson and one to tight end Charles Clay. It appeared that Tannehill was going to make up for his two early interceptions by engineering the comeback, but after his defense pinned the Bills deep and forced a short field on a punt, disaster struck. Tannehill dropped back to pass on 2nd-and-8 and had the ball stripped out of his hands by Bills defensive end Mario Williams. Defensive tackle Kyle Williams recovered the loose ball at the Miami 34 and Buffalo ate up the clock while moving into the red zone to set Carpenter up for the game-winning kick. Marcus Thigpen returned the ensuing kickoff 44 yards out to the Miami 46, but Tannehill couldn't advance the ball any further. His desperation pass on 4th-and-10 after scrambling to his right was knocked down in the end zone by Buffalo's Stephon Gilmore.

GAME 7

PATRIOTS 27, DOLPHINS 17 — Gillette Stadium
October 27, 2013 — Foxborough, MA

What started out as a promising display on the road against the Patriots fell apart in a 27-17 defeat at Gillette Stadium. Cornerback Dimitri Patterson kick started the Dolphins with an interception of Patriots quarterback Tom Brady's first pass attempt, setting up quarterback Ryan Tannehill's 4-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Brandon Gibson. The pressure created by Miami's front seven got to Brady in the first half, holding him to just 25 passing yards and a 38.0 passer rating. His offense managed just 59 total yards in the first half. Tannehill found running back Daniel Thomas for a 5-yard score in the second quarter and rookie kicker Caleb Sturgis nailed a 52-yard field goal to allow the Dolphins to carry a 17-3 lead into the locker room. Sturgis' 46-yard field goal attempt in the third quarter bounced off the right upright and that's where the game turned, as New England scored 24 unanswered points. Tannehill absorbed six sacks in the second half. An unlucky bounce in the third quarter when he went deep down the right sideline for speedster Mike Wallace resulted in his first interception, as New England's Devin McCourty jumped in the air and tipped the ball volleyball style to teammate Marquise Cole. He managed to barely keep his feet inbounds at his own 18. Brady turned that into six point to stretch a three-point lead to 10 points.

GAME 8

DOLPHINS 22, BENGALS 20 (OT) Sun Life Stadium
October 31, 2013 Miami Gardens, FL

On a night when linebacker John Offerdahl, one of the greatest defensive players in Miami Dolphins history, was inducted into the Dolphins Honor Roll, this era's best defensive player secured a crucial win over the Cincinnati Bengals. Defensive end Cameron Wake's sack of Bengals quarterback Andy Dalton with 6:38 left in overtime resulted in a game-winning safety and a 22-20 victory. The game marked only the third time in league history that a game in overtime ended on a safety. The other two times occurred when the Minnesota Vikings defeated the St. Louis Rams 23-21 (11/5/89) and when the Chicago Bears defeated the Tennessee Titans 19-17 (11/14/04). It was Wake's third sack of the game and put an end to Miami's four-game losing streak, evening the team's record at 4-4 and improving the Dolphins' record on Halloween to 6-0. Wake's first sack of the game also was a strip of Dalton that he recovered and his defensive teammates came up with three interceptions. Cornerback Brent Grimes' 94-yard interception return for a touchdown in the third quarter gave Miami a 17-3 lead. Running back Lamar Miller had his first career 100-yard rushing game, finishing with 105 yards and quarterback Ryan Tannehill had a 1-yard touchdown run as the Bengals saw their four-game winning streak come to an end.

BUCCANEERS 22, DOLPHINS 19 Raymond James Stadium
November 11, 2013 Tampa Bay, FL

Ten days after fighting their way to an overtime victory at home on Halloween, the Miami Dolphins dropped a heartbreaker on the road to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, 22-19. Miami erased a 15-0 deficit by scoring 19 unanswered points behind a career night for second-year wide receiver Rishard Matthews. Bobby Rainey's 1-yard touchdown run early in the third quarter proved to be the difference and then back-to-back sacks of Dolphins quarterback Ryan Tannehill on the Dolphins' final drive sealed it. Matthews caught 11 passes for 120 yards and two touchdowns, the first two of his career, to spark Miami's passing game. Tannehill finished 27-of-42 for 229 yards, two touchdowns and an interception on his final throw of the game on a 4th-and-28 and rookie kicker Caleb Sturgis was 2-of-2 on field goals of 40 and 30 yards. Safety Jimmy Wilson had an interception in the third quarter.

GAME 10

DOLPHINS 20, CHARGERS 16 Sun Life Stadium
November 17, 2013 Miami Gardens, FL

Miami's defense stepped up in the fourth quarter to help preserve a 20-16 victory over the San Diego Chargers at Sun Life Stadium. After allowing a short touchdown drive in the first quarter that was set up by a Chargers interception, Miami's defense held them to three field goals the rest of the way and got stronger in the fourth quarter. Olivier Vernon's sack of Philip Rivers midway through the fourth quarter pushed San Diego out of field goal range and was one of three in the quarter by the Dolphins. Jared Odrick and Cameron Wake had the others. Cornerback Brent Grimes came up with his third interception of the season. Meanwhile on the offensive side of the ball, tight end Charles Clay caught six passes for 90 yards and his 39-yard catch-and-run touchdown in the third quarter helped turn the tide. Clay bowled over Chargers safety Marcus Gilchrist home crowd and the Miami sideline. Quarterback Ryan Tannehill completed 22-of-35 passes for 268 yards, one touchdown and an interception, while Daniel Thomas rushed the ball 10 times for 57 yards and a touchdown, a 1-yard leap in the second quarter to give the Dolphins a 10-7 lead. Rookie kicker Caleb Sturgis was a perfect 2-for-2 on field goals and Brandon Fields' 61-yard punt late in the game forced Rivers to have to try and go 83 yards for the win.

GAME 11

PANTHERS 20, DOLPHINS 16 — Sun Life Stadium
November 24, 2013 — Miami Gardens, FL

A late touchdown by the Carolina Panthers allowed them to escape with a 20-16 win over the Dolphins at Sun Life Stadium. Panthers quarterback Cam Newton's 1-yard touchdown pass to tight end Greg Olsen with 43 seconds remaining thwarted Miami's upset bid. Dolphins wide receiver Mike Wallace had his best outing of the season, catching five passes for 127 yards and a touchdown. In fact, 110 of those yards came in the first half, including a 53-yard scoring reception, when Miami took a 16-6 lead into the locker room. Newton was harassed all afternoon by an active Dolphins defensive front and was sacked three times, twice by Olivier Vernon and once by rookie defensive end Dion Jordan. He also threw what looked like a costly interception late in the first half, as Dolphins cornerback Nolan Carroll jumped the route and set up his offense deep in Panthers territory. It looked like the turnover was going to result in seven points and a 20-3 halftime lead for Miami but Tannehill's pass to Rishard Matthews in the back of the end zone ended up incomplete when Matthews was drilled by Panthers linebacker Luke Kuechly. A penalty flag was initially thrown for an illegal hit but it was picked up and the Dolphins had to settle for a 23-yard field goal by rookie kicker Caleb Sturgis. Newton drove Carolina 52 yards on eight plays in 1:01 at the end of the half to set up Graham Gano's 46-yard field goal as time expired, giving his team a little momentum. Newton then engineered a drive to open the second half, capping it off with a 5-yard touchdown run to cut the deficit to 16-13. The two teams kept trading punts after that until Newton was able to come up with the necessary plays on that final drive. Early on in the drive it appeared that Miami was going to close the deal, putting the Panthers in the position of having to convert on fourth-and-10 from their own 20, but Newton found wide receiver Steve Smith for 19 yards to keep the drive alive.

GAME 12

DOLPHINS 23, JETS 3 — Met Life Stadium
December 1, 2013 — East Rutherford, NJ

The Miami Dolphins made it clear they were intent on controlling the tempo against the New York Jets, and they never let up in a convincing 23-3 win. Quarterback Ryan Tannehill completed 28-of-43 passes for 331 yards, two touchdowns and one interception and he was only sacked once. Defensively, the Dolphins held New York to 177 total yards and suffocated the Jets' passing attack, chasing starter Geno Smith from the game after the first half. The unit didn't let up on Smith's replacement, Matt Simms, sacking him three times in the second half and picking off his late desperation pass in the fourth quarter. Veteran cornerback Brent Grimes came up with the interception in the end zone, his fourth of the season, and it was the third turnover of the day forced by the Miami defense, which finished with a total of four sacks. Rookie kicker Caleb Sturgis converted on 3-of-4 field goals from 19, 34 and 43 yards. Brian Hartline led all receivers with nine catches for 127 yards and a 31-yard touchdown that broke open a 6-0 game early in the third quarter. Mike Wallace added seven receptions for 82 yards, including a 28-yard scoring pass where he broke a tackle near the right sideline and waltzed into the end zone to make it a 20-3 ballgame. Charles Clay caught seven passes for 80 yards, all in the first half. Defensive end Olivier Vernon remained hot with three sacks on the afternoon, giving him 10.5 for the season. Linebackers Ellerbe, Philip Wheeler and Koa Misi all had solid performances, with Ellerbe intercepting Smith at the end of the first half to set up Sturgis' second field goal, Wheeler recovering a fumble and Misi picking up a sack. Miami's ground game was efficient, gaining 126 yards on 35 carries. Lamar Miller led the way with 72 yards on 22 attempts and Tannehill added 23 yards on two rushes, including an 18-yard scramble. Rookie Mike Gillislee picked up 21 yards on six carries in his NFL debut for the Dolphins.

GAME 13

DOLPHINS 34, STEELERS 28 — Heinz Field
December 8, 2013 — Pittsburgh, PA

Miami made key plays down the stretch in a 34-28 comeback win at the Pittsburgh Steelers. Ryan Tannehill's two favorite targets all season long – tight end Charles Clay and wide receiver Brian Hartline – made themselves at home at Heinz Field by combining for three touchdown catches, with Clay's 12-yard highlight reel reception with just under three minutes left in the game giving Miami the lead for the last time. Tannehill ended up completing 20-of-33 passes for 201 yards, three touchdowns and one interception. Running back Daniel Thomas, returning from a severe ankle injury that almost ended his season, set up Clay's heroics with a 55-yard run that was the longest of the season by any Miami player. Two plays later, Clay caught the pass from Tannehill in the right flat, fought free of one tackle, broke another tackle by Troy Polamalu and somehow managed to keep his balance and trot into the end zone to give the Dolphins a 31-28 lead. Miami's defense responded with a tough stand on Pittsburgh's next possession and defensive end Olivier Vernon chased down Steelers quarterback Ben Roethlisberger from behind on a 4th-and-10 and dragged him down two yards short of the first down. A personal foul penalty on Pittsburgh set up Tannehill and the offense at their 9 and after chewing up some clock, rookie kicker Caleb Sturgis drilled a 27-yard field goal to force Roethlisberger to have to go for a touchdown in the closing minute plus and no timeouts. Thomas led all rushers with 105 yards and a touchdown on 16 carries and became the primary ball carrier after Lamar Miller left the game with a concussion. Clay caught seven passes for 98 yards and the two scores to lead all receivers, including a 40-yarder in the first half, and Hartline caught five passes for 51 yards and an 18-yard touchdown. Defensively, the Dolphins sacked Roethlisberger three times, with Cameron Wake setting up his team's first touchdown by forcing a Roethlisberger fumble that was recovered by Randy Starks at the Pittsburgh 31. He and Olivier Vernon combined on a sack late in the game and safety Jimmy Wilson blocked a punt in the first half.

DOLPHINS 24, PATRIOTS 20 — Sun Life Stadium
December 15, 2013 — Miami Gardens, FL

Dolphins quarterback Ryan Tannehill outdueled future Hall-of-Famer Tom Brady in a 24-20 victory at Sun Life Stadium, hitting Marcus Thigpen with a 14-yard touchdown pass with 1:15 remaining. Cornerback Michael Thomas, who was signed off of San Francisco's practice squad earlier in the week, intercepted Brady in the end zone with two seconds left on a 4th-and-5 to seal the win. Tannehill completed 25-of-37 passes for 312 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions and Mike Wallace caught six passes for 105 yards and a 39-yard touchdown pass at the end of the first half. Cameron Wake sacked Brady once late and hit him a number of other times to throw him off his game. Thomas led a group of reserve defensive backs, including rookie cornerback Will Davis, who were called into action due to injuries to starting cornerbacks Brent Grimes and Nolan Carroll. Brady put his team ahead 10-0 late in the first half before watching the Dolphins take a 17-10 lead on the first play of the fourth quarter on a 2-yard scoring pass to Daniel Thomas. But like Brady and the Patriots have done all season, they flipped the scoreboard again by scoring the next 10 points to hold a 20-17 lead with just over four minutes left. The Dolphins scored the final points of the game as Tannehill hit Marcus Thigpen on a 14-yard pass with 2:52 left in regulation to take a 24-20 lead.

GAME 15

BILLS 19, DOLPHINS 0 — Ralph Wilson Stadium
December 22, 2013 — Orchard Park, NY

The Buffalo Bills put a damper on the Miami Dolphins' playoff push with a 19-0 victory in the freezing rain at Ralph Wilson Stadium. Buffalo's pass rush proved to be the difference as Dolphins quarterback Ryan Tannehill was sacked seven times and knocked out of the game for a series in the fourth quarter with a leg injury. He managed to return to the game but could not deliver a comeback, finishing the day completing just 10-of-27 passes for 82 yards, as the Dolphins were shutout for the first time since losing at New England, 28-0, on Dec. 30, 2012. Backup quarterback Matt Moore temporarily ignited Miami with a 50-yard bomb to wide receiver Brian Hartline on a 3rd-and-18 from his own end zone, but he was intercepted on the next play by Bills safety Jim Leonhard. That led to Dan Carpenter's third of four field goals to make it a two touchdown lead at 16-0 and he finished off the scoring with a 26-yard field goal with 2:18 remaining. Buffalo's ground game also did in the Dolphins by gashing the front seven for 203 rushing yards on a bruising 51 carries, with Fred Jackson leading the way with 111 yards and a touchdown on 19 carries. C.J. Spiller added 77 yards on 20 carries. Quarterback Thad Lewis completed 15-of-25 passes for 193 yards and one interception. Dolphins punter Brandon Fields had to punt the ball 10 times and delivered a 74-yarder and a 67-yarder, with six of his kicks downed inside the Buffalo 20.

GAME 16

JETS 20, DOLPHINS 7 Sun Life Stadium
December 29, 2013 Miami Gardens, FL

Riding the arm and legs of rookie quarterback Geno Smith, the New York Jets pulled out a 20-7 victory on an overcast South Florida day to stop Miami's run to the postseason. With the loss the Dolphins finished at 8-8, one game better than last season. The Dolphins actually led early in the game on the strength of Ryan Tannehill's 5-yard scoring pass to Mike Wallace. That capped off the longest scoring drive of the season for the offense, one that covered 89 yards on 14 plays in 6:56 and included a 25-yard pass to Brian Hartline to put him over 1,000 receiving yards for the second straight season. But Smith answered after the two teams exchanged punts with an efficient drive of his own, taking the Jets 71 yards on 10 plays in 5:21. Defensive lineman Sheldon Richardson capped it off with a 1-yard touchdown run and then Smith ended the half with an 11-play, 70-yard drive, running the last seven yards himself into the end zone to give the Jets a 14-7 lead at the half. Three second-half interceptions by Tannehill and a physical running game employed by the Jets did Miami in down the stretch. Tannehill ended up competing 20-of-40 passes for 204 yards, one touchdown and three interceptions and his leading receiver in terms of catches was Wallace with five for 25 yards and in terms of yards it was Rishard Matthews with four catches for 58 yards. Second-year running back Lamar Miller finished with 73 yards on 17 carries to lead the team in that category.

PRESEASON GAME 1

COWBOYS 24, DOLPHINS 20 — Fawcett Stadium
August 4, 2013 — Canton, OH

The Dolphins fell short in their attempt to come back from a 17-0 deficit. Two costly first half turnovers proved the difference in the outcome as the Dallas Cowboys held on for a 24-20 victory in the NFL's annual Hall of Fame Game in Caton, Ohio. After scoring 10 points in the fourth quarter to pull within 17-13, the Dolphins had a chance to take their first lead after beginning a drive at their own 37 with just over 3 minutes left, but running back Jonas Gray was dropped for a 2-yard loss after catching a swing pass from Matt Moore on fourth-and-3. Dallas then put together a quick touchdown drive to make it 24-13. Moore quickly threw passes of 24 yards to tight end Kyle Miller and 27 yards to Keenan Davis to set up a 5-yard touchdown pass to Miller on fourth-and-goal. The Dolphins' first touchdown came with 9:26 left in the fourth quarter on a 5-yard pass from Pat Devlin to Davis on fourth-and-goal. Trailing 17-3, the Dolphins had gone for it on fourth-and-6 from the Dallas 8-yard line late in the third quarter but wide receiver Chad Bumphis was stopped 1-yard short of the first down after catching a pass from Devlin. Dan Carpenter added two field goals for the Dolphins, hitting from 27 yards in the second quarter and 45 yards in the fourth. Players who stood out for the Dolphins included defensive end Derrick Shelby, who responded with two sacks; Gray, who had a 29-yard run in the fourth quarter and also had three catches for 37 yards; and Bumphis, who had five catches for 85 yards, including a 45-yard gain in the second quarter.

PRESEASON GAME 2

DOLPHINS 27, JAGUARS 3 — EverBank Field
August 9, 2013 — Jacksonville, FL

Tight end Dustin Keller caught a 22-yard touchdown pass, running back Jonas Gray had two short touchdown runs and rookie kicker Caleb Sturgis hit field goals of 58 and 36 yards to lead the Dolphins to a 27-3 win against the Jacksonville Jaguars at EverBank Field. After failing to come up with a takeaway in the preseason opener against Dallas, the Dolphins had four against Jacksonville and were plus-3 in the turnover ratio. After recording only one first down on its first three possessions, the Dolphins offense got into Jacksonville territory when Ryan Tannehill hit Keller for 24 yards. Two runs by Daniel Thomas gained an additional 17 yards and after a pass interference penalty gave the Dolphins a first down, Tannehill hit Keller for the touchdown. Miami's next drive started at the Jaguars 47-yard line after an interception by cornerback Nolan Carroll. A 27-yard completion from Matt Moore to Brian Tyms was followed by a 12-yard run by Marvin McNutt on an end-around before Gray punched it in from the 1-yard line to give the Dolphins a 14-0 lead. Gray's second touchdown came from 2 yards out in the fourth quarter after John Denney's fumble recovery of a muffed punt gave the Dolphins a first-and-goal at the Jacksonville 4-yard line. Gray's touchdown closed out the scoring in the Dolphins' most lopsided preseason victory since they beat Kansas City 24-0 in Miami in 2008.

TEXANS 24, DOLPHINS 17 — Reliant Stadium
August 17, 2013 — Houston TX

The Dolphins fell to 1-2 on the preseason with a 24-17 loss to the Houston Texans at Reliant Stadium. The Texans' first two drives were stopped as cornerback Brent Grimes came up with an interception and Cameron Wake sacked Matt Schaub on third down to end the second drive. Trailing 7-0, wide receiver Mike Wallace had 3 receptions for 58 yards and capped the drive with a 9-yard scoring catch from Ryan Tannehill that tied the game. In the second quarter, Wallace threw a key block as he pushed a Texans defensive back to the sideline to spring Lamar Miller's 4-yard touchdown run which tied the game at 14. The drive was kept alive by a nifty 27-yard catch-and-run by Daniel Thomas off a shovel pass from Tannehill on third-and-13. In addition, Brandon Gibson had catches of 15 and 17 yards on the drive. Tannehill played five offensive series and finished the game 10-for-15 for 141 yards with a TD and no interceptions.

PRESEASON GAME 4

BUCCANEERS 17, DOLPHINS 16 — Sun Life Stadium
August 24, 2013 — Miami Gardens, FL

Tampa Bay scored a late touchdown to earn a 17-16 win at Sun Life Stadium. The Dolphins dominated when both first teams were in the game, and only a couple of special teams miscues and problems in the red zone kept Miami from having a bigger lead than 13-10. The Dolphins controlled play in the first two quarters, leading 15-6 in first downs, 180-63 in total yards and 18:04-11:56 in time of possession. Ryan Tannehill had a strong outing, completing 17-of-27 passes for 150 yards with one touchdown and no interceptions. He had success connecting with his wide receivers as Brandon Gibson, Brian Hartline and Mike Wallace combined for 12 receptions. Gibson gave the Dolphins their 13-10 lead when he scored on a 4-yard TD pass with 10 seconds left in the first half. The first-team defense held Tampa Bay running backs Brian Leonard and Mike James to 18 yards rushing on 12 attempts and sacked quarterback Josh Freeman three times. Jared Odrick and Olivier Vernon recorded first half sacks, while Derrick Shelby recovered the fumble at the Tampa Bay 48 with 1:29 left in the first half. Safety Kelcie McCray and linebackers Jonathan Freeny and Josh Kaddu added sacks for the Dolphins in the second half. Rookie kicker Caleb Sturgis finished the night 3-for-3 on field goal attempts. The second half was quiet on both sides from an offensive standpoint, before the Buccaneers' game-winning touchdown – a 12-yard pass from rookie quarterback Mike Glennon to David Douglas with 1:03 left in regulation – was set up by a 55-yard return by safety Sean Baker after he recovered a Jonas Gray fumble.

PRESEASON GAME 5

DOLPHINS 24, SAINTS 21 — Sun Life Stadium
August 29, 2013 — Miami Gardens, FL

Quarterback Pat Devlin thought his work was over when he was replaced midway through the fourth quarter. Instead, he was called back into action and led the Dolphins to a come-from-behind 24-21 victory over the New Orleans Saints in the preseason finale at Sun Life Stadium. Devlin, who was on the sideline for only one play when Aaron Corp was injured on a sack, threw a 56-yard touchdown pass to Marvin McNutt and then added a two point conversion on a run. The Dolphins secured the victory with a defensive stand after New Orleans drove inside the Miami 10-yard line in the final minute and cornerback De'Andre Presley recorded an interception at the 6-yard line. Devlin, who started the game as both quarterbacks Ryan Tannehill and Matt Moore were given the night off, ended the game with 22 completions in 38 attempts for 259 yards with two touchdowns and two interceptions. McNutt finished with 99 yards receiving on four receptions. Caleb Sturgis added three field goals, completing the preseason at 9-for-9 on field goal attempts, to stake the Dolphins to a 16-7 lead before New Orleans scored twice in a span of 2:54 early in the fourth quarter to take a 21-16 lead.

In the 2012 Pro Bowl, wide receiver Brandon Marshall caught a Pro Bowl-record four touchdowns and was named as the game's MVP. Prior to that, the most recent Dolphins player to have accounted for a touchdown in the Pro Bowl was wide receiver Chris Chambers, who scored on a 16-yard reception from Peyton Manning in the first quarter to open the 2006 game's scoring. Other Dolphins scoring Pro Bowl touchdowns include running back Ricky Williams, who scored on a pair of one-yard runs as he was named the MVP in the AFC's 45-20 route of the NFC in the 2003 game, wide receiver Mark Clayton, who caught a nine-yard touchdown pass from Buffalo's Jim Kelly in the 1991 game, tight end Ferrell Edmunds, who had a five-yard scoring reception from Seattle's Dave Krieg in the 1989 game, and Hall of Fame wide receiver Paul Warfield, who caught a 32-yard TD pass from Dolphins teammate Bob Griese in the '74 contest.

DOLPHINS NAME

Mariners, Marauders, Mustangs, Missiles, Moons, Sharks, Suns. None of those names suggested to the American Football League expansion franchise in 1965 could raise a fin to the runaway winner.

"Dolphins" was submitted by 622 entrants in a contest which attracted 19,843 entries and more than a 1,000 different names. The dozen finalists were delivered to a seven-member screening committee of local media.

The bottlenose dolphin, an intelligent creature with an irresistible built-in grin, has inspired wonder for centuries. Plutarch observed 1,900 years ago that the dolphin "is the only creature who loves man for his own sake." Every trainer will have a tale of the dolphin's cleverness and ingenuity, and scientists are fascinated by a dolphin's natural equipment which far surpasses the range of Navy sonar equipment.

Mrs. Robert Swanson with Dolphins founder Joe Robbie.

"The dolphin is one of the fastest and smartest creatures of the sea," Joe Robbie said in announcing the team name on October 8, 1965. "Dolphins can attack and kill a shark or a whale. Sailors say bad luck will come to anyone who harms one of them."

Mrs. Robert Swanson of West Miami won two lifetime passes to Dolphins games with her nickname entry. The tiebreaker was picking the winner and score of the 1965 game between the University of Miami and Notre Dame. It ended in a scoreless tie.

1970 AFC PLAYOFF

RAIDERS 21, DOLPHINS 14 — Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
December 27, 1970 — Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Daryle Lamonica unloaded an 82-yard touchdown pass to Rod Sherman with 9:34 left to play as Oakland spoiled the Dolphins' first appearance in the playoffs, 21-14, on a field oozing with mud. The Dolphins, who had won six consecutive games to finish the season 10-4 and gain a wild-card berth, took a 7-0 lead in the second quarter when Bob Griese fired a 16-yard strike to Paul Warfield in the end zone. Lamonica matched that TD with a 22-yard toss to Fred Biletnikoff only 1:50 before halftime. Raiders right cornerback Willie Brown intercepted a wet and wobbly pass by Griese and fled 50 yards along the sideline for the tie-breaking TD. It came minutes after Jake Scott recovered an Oakland fumble at the Miami 10-yard line. The heave to Sherman was insurance. Only three plays earlier, Dolphins kicker Garo Yepremian missed a 24-yard field goal attempt for the second time in the game. Oakland's George Blanda also missed a 23-yarder.

1971 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 27, CHIEFS 24 (2 OTs) — Kansas City Municipal Stadium
December 25, 1971 — Kansas City, MO

Garo Yepremian ended 82 minutes and 40 seconds of an epic struggle by booting a 37-yard field goal with 7:40 elapsed in the second overtime, lifting the Dolphins past Kansas City, 27-24, on Christmas Day. The Dolphins battled from behind three times to tie the AFC West champions, the third time on Bob Griese's five-yard pass to tight end Marv Fleming with 96 seconds remaining in regulation. Kansas City running back Ed Podolak, who amassed 350 yards of all-purpose running, returned the ensuing kickoff 78 yards to the Dolphin 22 where Curtis Johnson missed a desperation tackle. With 35 seconds on the clock, Jan Stenerud missed a 32-yard field-goal try. Stenerud had a 42-yarder blocked by Nick Buoniconti in the fifth quarter, and Yepremian was short with a 45-yard effort. But Larry Csonka crashed 29 yards to the Chiefs 36, and that put Yepremian, the NFL's scoring leader, in position to win it. Goal posts were on the goal line; in 1974 the uprights were moved to the end line.

1971 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 21, COLTS 0 — Orange Bowl
January 2, 1972 — Miami, FL

Three lightning plays and a persistent defense propelled the Dolphins into Super Bowl VI with a 21-0 rout of Baltimore before an all-time Orange Bowl record crowd of 78,939. Strong safety Dick Anderson intercepted a Johnny Unitas pass which was deflected by Curtis Johnson, and behind a wall of six open-field blocks, Anderson weaved 62 yards for a third-quarter touchdown. "My eyes were popping as I ran," Anderson said. "I've never seen so many people land on their heads." Before Anderson's convoy made it 14-0, the Dolphins staggered the defending Super Bowl champions when Bob Griese and Paul Warfield hooked up for a 75-yard TD pass. Warfield applied the clincher when he escaped 50 yards with a Griese pass, setting up a five-yard TD slam by fullback Larry Csonka. The Colts had not been held scoreless for 97 games over seven seasons. They were stopped at the Dolphins' 9 in the second quarter. Jim O'Brien missed two field-goal attempts and had another blocked by Lloyd Mumphord.

SUPER BOWL VI

COWBOYS 24, DOLPHINS 3 — Tulane Stadium
January 16, 1972 — New Orleans, LA

A 252-yard rushing attack and sharp passing by Roger Staubach spurred the Dallas Cowboys to a 24-3 victory over the Dolphins at Tulane Stadium. Duane Thomas pranced 95 yards on 19 carries, fullback Walt Garrison added 74 yards on 14 carries and Staubach passed twice for touchdowns to Lance Alworth and Mike Ditka. Staubach, who was sacked twice in the first quarter, bounced back to complete 12 of 19 passes, and he scrambled from the Dolphin pass rush five times. The Dolphins were frustrated all day; in the first quarter, Larry Csonka lost a fumble and Bob Griese was chased by tackle Bob Lilly for a 29-yard loss. Griese also fumbled away a snap at the Dallas 16 in the fourth period. Although it was an intriguing 10-3 at halftime, the Cowboys marched 71 yards in eight plays after the kickoff, and Thomas swept three yards for the TD.

1972 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 20, BROWNS 14 — Orange Bowl
December 24, 1972 — Miami, FL

On the ropes in the fourth quarter after an unprecedented 14 victories, the Dolphins responded to a poised Earl Morrall and drove 80 yards for a touchdown with 4:56 to play for a 20-14 victory over the Cleveland Browns. Morrall, the NFL's leading passer after replacing the injured Bob Griese 10 weeks earlier, had completed only four passes for 38 yards. But he threw 15 and 35 yards to Paul Warfield, reaching the Browns 20, and a pass interference call against linebacker Billy Andrews put the ball at the eight. Halfback Jim Kiick then bulled eight yards up the middle on a trap for the winning points. The triumph was sealed with a minute to play when Dolphins linebacker Doug Swift intercepted Cleveland QB Mike Phipps at the Dolphin 20. Despite stealing five of Phipps' passes, the Dolphins were stung by a 27-yard TD pass to Fair Hooker and trailed 14-13 with 8:11 to play.

1972 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 21, STEELERS 17 — Three Rivers Stadium
December 31, 1972 — Pittsburgh, PA

Quarterback Bob Griese, playing 11 weeks after he had broken his right leg, ignited a third-quarter touchdown drive with a 52-yard pass to Paul Warfield, and the Dolphins overtook the Pittsburgh Steelers, 21-17, in unusually warm 63-degree weather. Griese was given the nod in the second half after Earl Morrall had flipped a nine-yard touchdown pass to Larry Csonka for a 7-7 halftime deadlock. Punter Larry Seiple broke loose on a daring 37-yard run on fourth down to set up that TD. Trailing 10-7, Griese directed TD drives of 80 and 49 yards with Jim Kiick blasting two and three yards for the scores. Steeler quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who closed the gap with four straight completions on a 71-yard TD drive, was intercepted by Nick Buoniconti at midfield with 2½ minutes to play. In addition to Seiple's dash, the Dolphins converted fourth-down situations on both Griese-led drives.

SUPER BOWL VII

DOLPHINS 14, REDSKINS 7 — Memorial Coliseum
January 14, 1973 — Los Angeles, CA

"This is the ultimate," Coach Don Shula said quietly after his unbeaten Dolphins dominated the Washington Redskins, 14-7, to cap a perfect season. It was Shula's first Super Bowl triumph in three tries. A record Super Bowl paid crowd of 90,182 saw the Dolphins surge to a 14-0 halftime lead even as one touchdown was nullified by an offside penalty. Miami intercepted three of Bill Kilmer's passes, and Manny Fernandez scuttled the Redskin running game with 17 tackles. An original Dolphin, Howard Twilley, eluded cornerback Pat Fischer to snare a 28-yard touchdown pass from Bob Griese in the first quarter. Griese's 57-yard TD bomb to Paul Warfield was erased by the penalty, but a 32-yard interception return by linebacker Nick Buoniconti set up the Dolphins' second score. Safety Jake Scott thwarted Kilmer with an end zone interception and 55-yard runback. The Redskins finally scored on a bizarre 49-yard fumble recovery by Mike Bass after a blocked field goal and attempted pass by kicker Garo Yepremian. Scott was named MVP.

1973 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 34, BENGALS 16 — Orange Bowl
December 23, 1973 — Miami, FL

A defense which had allowed only 15 touchdowns all season kept the Cincinnati Bengals out of the end zone while the Dolphins hammered 241 yards on the ground for a convincing 34-16 victory. Mercury Morris scooted 106 yards on 20 carries and Bob Griese completed 11 of 18 passes, including TDs of 13 yards to Paul Warfield and seven yards to Jim Mandich. Garo Yepremian converted field goals of 50 and 46 yards in the second half to widen the winning margin. The Dolphins led 21-3 when a lapse just before halftime gave life to the Bengals. Safety Neal Craig intercepted Griese and returned it 45 yards for a score, and Horst Muhlmann booted field goals of 46 and 12 yards – the second coming after Morris fumbled a kickoff – to make it 21-16.

1973 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 27, RAIDERS 10 — Orange Bowl
December 30, 1973 — Miami, FL

A relentless running attack with Larry Csonka and Mercury Morris accounting for 203 of the 266 yards, respectively, powered the Dolphins to a 27-10 triumph over the Oakland Raiders for a third straight American Conference title. Csonka, a 237-pound battering ram who had his third consecutive 1,000-yard season, scored three touchdowns with his 117 yards on 29 carries. The Dolphins covered 64 and 63 yards exclusively on the ground for a 14-0 halftime lead. Then as the Raiders battled to within 17-10, Bob Griese directed ground assaults of 63 yards, culminating in a field goal, and 42 yards, ending in Csonka's third TD. Defensively, safety Dick Anderson forced a fourth-down fumble by Marv Hubbard at midfield, and the Dolphins took possession with a 20-10 lead and six minutes to play. Oakland had stopped Miami's 18-game winning streak, 12-7, three months earlier.

SUPER BOWL VIII

DOLPHINS 24, VIKINGS 7 — Rice Stadium
January 13, 1974 — Houston, TX

Winning for the 32nd time in 34 games, the Dolphins repeated as Super Bowl champions and proved themselves "Best Ever" with a 24-7 rout of the Minnesota Vikings at Rice Stadium. There was no doubt from the beginning. The Dolphins swept 62 yards in 10 plays with the opening kickoff, scoring on Larry Csonka's five-yard smash. Minnesota punted, and the onslaught resumed with a 56-yard, 10-play Dolphin drive capped by Jim Kiick's one-yard plunge. It was 17-0 before the Vikings crossed their 40, and a fourth-down fumble by Minnesota's Oscar Reed was recovered by safety Jake Scott at the Dolphins' six-yard line. A brilliant, diving catch by Paul Warfield netted 27 yards on a third-quarter TD drive that hiked the score to 24-0. Csonka finished with his best-ever total of 145 yards on 33 carries. The Dolphins rushed for 703 yards and outscored opponents 85-33 in the three-game playoff blitz. Csonka's yardage was a Super Bowl record and he was named MVP.

1974 AFC PLAYOFF

RAIDERS 28, DOLPHINS 26 — Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
December 21, 1974 — Oakland, CA

Oakland quarterback Ken Stabler, falling in the clutches of Vern Den Herder, unloaded a wobbly eight-yard pass that Clarence Davis wrestled from three defenders in the end zone, and the Raiders scored a stunning 28-26 victory over the defending champion Dolphins. Stabler, who had spent the last of his timeouts, appeared to have thrown an interception. But running back Davis clutched the football when bodies were untangled with 26 seconds remaining. It was the fourth TD pass for lefthander Stabler and his second "freak" score. Four minutes earlier Cliff Branch fell while catching a pass at the Dolphins' 27, but defender Henry Stuckey also slipped, and Branch got up and escaped for a 72-yard TD. The Dolphins, trailing by two points, went ahead with 2:08 remaining as rookie Benny Malone broke two tackles on a 23-yard touchdown run along the sideline.

1978 AFC WILD-CARD PLAYOFF

OILERS 17, DOLPHINS 9 — Orange Bowl
December 24, 1978 — Miami, FL

The Houston Oilers amassed a 455-209 margin in total yardage, and aided by five Dolphins turnovers, gained a 17-9 victory in a battle of AFC wild-card entries at the Orange Bowl. Toni Fritsch kicked a 35-yard field goal with 7:25 remaining to snap a 7-7 tie that existed since the first quarter. An interception by linebacker Greg Bingham led to a clinching 50-yard touchdown drive capped by Earl Campbell's one-yard dive with 1:55 to go. Campbell, the NFL rushing leader with 1,450 yards as a rookie, had been checked for only 16 yards on 13 carries in the first half. Dolphins quarterback Bob Griese, playing with very sore ribs, connected with tight end Andre Tillman for a 13-yard TD after Earnie Rhone had recovered a fumbled punt at the Houston 21. But Griese completed only 13 of 28 passes. Twice the Dolphins lost the ball inside the Oilers 10-yard line when the game was tied. Houston's Dan Pastorini wore a flak jacket to protect three broken ribs, and he passed for 261 of his 306-yard total in the first half.

STEELERS 34, DOLPHINS 14 — Three Rivers Stadium
December 30, 1979 — Pittsburgh, PA

Launching a drive to their fourth Super Bowl title in six years, the Pittsburgh Steelers scored touchdowns on their first three possessions and coasted to a 34-14 victory at Three Rivers Stadium. Miami managed only 25 yards rushing against the Steel Curtain and was stopped twice in the second quarter after achieving a first down inside the Steelers 10-yard line. The Dolphins got as close as 20-7 with a seven-yard TD pass from Bob Griese to Duriel Harris in the third period, but Pittsburgh responded with a 69-yard TD drive. The Steelers marched 62, 62 and 56 yards for their first-quarter scores when quarterback Terry Bradshaw completed 8 of 10 passes, including touchdowns to John Stallworth and Lynn Swann, who was standing alone in the end zone. Don Strock directed a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive after relieving Griese in the fourth quarter

1981 AFC PLAYOFF

CHARGERS 41, DOLPHINS 38 (OT) Orange Bowl
January 2, 1982 Miami, FL

A record-setting showcase of the passing game resulted in NFL playoff marks for most points (79), most total yards (1,036) and most drama as the San Diego Chargers outlasted the Dolphins 41-38 in overtime. "The Miracle That Died" was the Miami Herald headline after the Dolphins rallied behind reserve quarterback Don Strock to overcome a 24-point deficit. The Pro Football Hall of Fame voted the contest as the "NFL's Game of the '80s." Strock completed 29 of 43 passes for 403 yards and four touchdowns, spurring the Dolphins to a 38-31 lead. A 12-yard sweep by Tony Nathan on the first play of the fourth quarter put the Dolphins on top. But Chargers quarterback Dan Fouts, who passed for an NFL record 4,802 yards during the season, led an 82-yard drive capped by a 9-yard pass to James Brooks to tie the game with 58 seconds remaining. Five players had more than 100 yards in receptions, topped by Chargers tight end Kellen Winslow with 13 catches for 166 yards. Fouts, who finished with 433 yards on 33 of 53 marksmanship, hooked up with Charlie Joiner for 39 yards to the Dolphins 10-yard line. Rolf Benirschke then kicked a 29-yard field goal to end the struggle after 13:52 of overtime. Benirschke had missed a 27-yard attempt eight minutes earlier, and Miami's Uwe von Schamann had two attempts blocked – a 43-yarder on the last play of regulation and a 35-yarder after 11:27 of overtime. It was the first game in NFL history in which two quarterbacks passed for more than 400 yards.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (first round)

DOLPHINS 28, PATRIOTS 13 Orange Bowl
January 8, 1983 Miami, FL

For the first time in nine years, the Miami Dolphins won a playoff game, defeating the New England Patriots 28-13. Dolphins QB David Woodley had one of his finest games, completing 16 of 19 passes for 246 yards and two TDs. He was a perfect 8-8 in the second half. The Dolphins had not experienced a playoff win since January 13, 1974, when they downed Minnesota in Super Bowl Vlll. The Dolphins took command in the second quarter, putting together back-to-back TD drives of 76 and 79 yards that turned a 3-0 deficit into a 14-3 halftime advantage. The four Miami TDs came on a pair of two-yard passes from Woodley to tight end Bruce Hardy, a one-yard run by Andra Franklin and Woody Bennett's two-yard burst up the middle. Franklin finished with 112 yards on 26 carries, but lost the ball three times on fumbles. Two of those fumbles resulted in John Smith field goals of 23 and 42 yards for New England.

1982 AFC PLAYOFF (second round)

DOLPHINS 34, CHARGERS 13 Orange Bowl
January 16, 1983 Miami, FL

The Dolphins choked off the famed Chargers offense and won 34-13. The Dolphins defense stopped the San Diego offense, holding it to a total of 247 yards – 203 yards below its league-leading average - while holding the Chargers scoreless in the second half. Dolphins defenders intercepted QB Dan Fouts five times, sacked him three times and held the Chargers to 15 completions for 191 yards – their lowest output since a January, 1982, playoff game in the ice at Cincinnati. The Dolphins offense kept Fouts and Company on the sideline by utilizing ball control that produced 80 plays to San Diego's 54 and an overwhelming time of possession advantage; the Dolphins had the ball for 40:46 to the Chargers' 19:14. Dolphins QB David Woodley guided his team to a 214-yard ground attack while connecting on 17-22 passes for 195 yards and two TDs. Woodley opened the scoring with a three-yard pass to Nat Moore in the first quarter and made it 14-0 by directing Miami 89 yards on 13 plays. Chargers kickoff returner Hank Bauer fumbled a kickoff which was recovered by Uwe von Schamann at the Chargers 23-yard line. Seven plays later, Woodley hit tight end Ronnie Lee on a six-yard look-in pass for the score. On the next kickoff, Dolphins rookie Rich Diana recovered a fumble by the Chargers' James Brooks, but this time Miami had to settle for a 29-yard von Schamann field goal. The Chargers scored two late TDs, one on a 28-yard pass from Fouts to Charlie Joiner and the other on Chuck Muncie's one-yard dive that ended the San Diego scoring. Von Schamann added a second field goal shortly before the end of the first half and Woodley scored on a seven-yard QB draw early in the fourth quarter.

1982 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 14, JETS 0 — Orange Bowl
January 23, 1983 — Miami, FL

For the third time in as many games in 1982, the Miami Dolphins defeated the New York Jets, this time on a rainy, mud-soaked Orange Bowl field. The Dolphins set an AFC Championship Game record by holding the Jets to 139 total yards. A.J. Duhe set an AFC playoff record with three interceptions, including one he returned for a 35-yard TD. The Dolphins set an NFL record by being the first team to have defeated the same team three times in a season – two times during the regular season and once in a playoff game. On nine occasions since the AFL-NFL merger, teams had met three times in a season – but no team had won all three games. Before a crowd of 67,396, the Dolphins' Woody Bennett rumbled seven yards up the middle to score the only points the Dolphins would need. That came in the third quarter after the teams had trudged through a scoreless first half on the soggy Prescription Athletic Turf.

SUPER BOWL XVII

REDSKINS 27, DOLPHINS 17 — Rose Bowl
January 30, 1983 — Pasadena, CA

The Washington Redskins, behind the power running of John Riggins, came from behind to win Super Bowl XVII in the famed Rose Bowl, beating Miami 27-17. Before the second-largest crowd for a Super Bowl – 103,667 fans – the Redskins took the lead for the first time with a little more than 10 minutes left on the clock. The game was marked by a Super Bowl record performance by Fulton Walker, who returned four kickoffs 190 yards, including a 98-yard TD that gave Miami a 17-10 halftime lead. It was the first kickoff returned for a TD in Super Bowl history and the longest kickoff return in playoff history. Riggins ran up 166 yards on 38 carries, both Super Bowl records. On a short-yardage play – fourth-and-one from the Redskin 43 with 10:01 to play – Riggins broke a tackle and scored on a 43-yard run. Riggins accounted for 181 total yards, five more yards than the entire Miami offense could manage in the game. In the first quarter, Miami jumped to a quick lead with a 76-yard David Woodley to Jimmy Cefalo pass for a TD.

1983 AFC PLAYOFF

SEAHAWKS 27, DOLPHINS 20 Orange Bowl
December 31, 1983 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins saw their season end on a sour note as they lost a 27-20 decision to the Seattle Seahawks in the first round of the AFC playoffs. Before 71,032 fans in the Orange Bowl, Dolphins rookie quarterback Dan Marino returned from his December 4 knee injury. On their second possession, the Dolphins launched a 12-play, 80-yard drive ending with a 19-yard TD pass from Marino to tight end Dan Johnson (PAT missed). A 59-yard return by Zachary Dixon on the ensuing kickoff led to a six-yard scoring toss from Seattle's Dave Krieg to Cullen Bryant with the extra point, giving the Seahawks a one point lead. Miami immediately retaliated, using a 17-yard Marino to Mark Duper hook-up to pave the way for a 32-yard circus catch by Duper for the touchdown. Early in the third quarter, a David Overstreet fumble in Seattle territory set the Seahawks up for a 55-yard TD march featuring a 28-yard completion from Krieg to Paul Johns, and culminating in a one-yard run by Curt Warner. Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter gave Seattle a 17-13 lead. The Dolphins managed to regain the lead at 20-17 following a Gerald Small interception (18-yard return) and Woody Bennett's two-yard run with only 3:43 remaining. However, the lead was shortlived as the Seahawks came right back to score on Warner's short run following a pair of Krieg to Steve Largent completions for a total of 56 yards. Miami's Fulton Walker then fumbled the Seattle kickoff, thus leading to a 37-yard Johnson field goal. Another Walker kickoff fumble iced the game for the Seahawks, who were participating in the playoffs for the first time in their eight-year history.

1984 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 31, SEAHAWKS 10 Orange Bowl
December 29, 1984 Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by quarterback Dan Marino's three touchdown passes and a defense that shut out the opposition in three of four quarters, defeated the Seattle Seahawks 31-10 before 73,469 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins moved in front on their second possession and stayed there. Running back Tony Nathan keyed the 68-yard drive by gaining 38 yards on four carries, including the touchdown on a 14-yard run. A 26-yard Marino to Mark Clayton completion was the long play of the scoring march. A 32-yard interception return by Seattle's John Harris and a 25-yard pass from Dave Krieg to Steve Largent paved the way for Norm Johnson's 27-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to 7-3. The Dolphins, however, came right back to score on their next series as a 20-yard reception by Woody Bennett preceded Marino's 34-yard scoring hook-up with Jimmy Cefalo. The Seahawks made it 14-10 at halftime when Largent scored on a 56-yard catch-and-run play. After Miami's defense had stopped Seattle on the Dolphins 24-yard line to open the second half, the Dolphins embarked on a 13-play, 76-yard TD drive that included a Bruce Hardy touchdown catch from three yards out. After the Seahawks' Jeff West managed just a seven-yard punt, Clayton made an acrobatic catch on a tipped ball in the end zone for a 33-yard TD. Miami closed out the scoring on Uwe von Schamann's 37-yard field goal in a drive that featured a 32-yard Marino to Hardy pass.

1984 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

DOLPHINS 45, STEELERS 28 — Orange Bowl
January 6, 1985 — Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins, led by Dan Marino's 421 yards passing (four touchdowns) and Mark Duper's 148 yards receiving, advanced to Super Bowl XIX by defeating the Pittsburgh Steelers, 45-28, in the AFC Championship Game before 76,029 fans in the Orange Bowl. The Dolphins scored on their first offensive series as they moved 67 yards in four plays following a William Judson interception, with the TD coming on a 40-yard pass from Marino to Mark Clayton. Pittsburgh's first score came on Rich Erenberg's seven-yard run that had been set up by Walter Abercrombie's 38 yards gained in the 66-yard march. A 26-yard Uwe von Schamann field goal preceded a 65-yard toss from the Steelers' Mark Malone to John Stallworth that gave Pittsburgh a 14-10 lead. The Dolphins then scored two TDs in the final 2:52 of the first half, the first score coming on a 41-yard reception by Duper. After Lyle Blackwood's interception, Marino hit TE Joe Rose for a 28-yard gain before Tony Nathan gave the Dolphins a 24-14 lead on a two-yard run. Miami then scored on its first three second-half possessions, leading off with Marino's 36-yard scoring strike to Duper. The Steelers closed the gap to 31-21 on Malone's 19-yarder to Stallworth (33-yarder to Louis Lipps in drive). Completions to Duper (41 yards), Nathan (20 yards) and Nat Moore (28 yards) then led to a one-yard TD dive by Woody Bennett. Moore then caught a six-yard touchdown pass before Wayne Capers closed out the scoring with a 29-yard TD reception.

SUPER BOWL XIX

49ERS 38, DOLPHINS 16 — Stanford Stadium
January 20, 1985 — Palo Alto, CA

The Miami Dolphins, unable to score in the game's final two quarters, dropped a 38-16 decision to the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XIX before 84,059 fans in Stanford Stadium. The Dolphins were outgained in the contest by a 537-314 margin with the 49ers maintaining possession for 37:11. Miami opened the scoring on its first possession as Uwe von Schamann converted a 37-yard field goal (key play – Dan Marino's 25-yard completion to Tony Nathan). San Francisco jumped ahead 7-3 when QB Joe Montana led the Niners on an eight-play, 78-yard drive that culminated in a 33-yard TD toss to Carl Monroe. The Dolphins scored their only touchdown of the game on their next series as two Marino completions to Mark Clayton (18, 13 yards) and a 21-yarder to Dan Johnson paved the way for Johnson's two-yard scoring catch. Touchdown runs of eight and two yards by Roger Craig and Montana's six-yard scamper gave San Francisco a 28-10 lead. Von Schamann then connected on field goals of 31 and 30 yards in the final 12 seconds of the first half to close the Dolphins' deficit to 28-16. The 49ers upped their lead on their initial second-half possession on Ray Wersching's 27-yard field goal, before closing out the scoring on Craig's 16-yard scoring reception (key play – 40-yard Montana to Wendell Tyler pass play).

1985 AFC PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 24, BROWNS 21 — Orange Bowl
January 4, 1986 — Miami, FL

Most people had not given them much of a chance to win, but the 8-8 Cleveland Browns nearly upset the 12-4 Dolphins in the Orange Bowl. It would take two Ron Davenport touchdowns in the final 17 minutes to send Miami to a 24-21 victory and the AFC Championship Game against New England the following week. Fuad Reveiz put the Dolphins on the board early with a 51-yard field goal on Miami's first drive of the game. But Cleveland came back to score 21 unanswered points, and held a 21-3 advantage midway through the third quarter. Cleveland rookie quarterback Bernie Kosar, who had played two college seasons in the Orange Bowl for the University of Miami, hit Ozzie Newsome with a 16-yard touchdown pass for the Browns first points of the day. Earnest Byner (16-161) ran in from 21 yards out just before the half, and then he broke a 66-yard touchdown jaunt 3:38 into the second half. Just like that, the improbable began to look possible. Dan Marino connected with Nat Moore for a six-yard touchdown pass just over six minutes later and Miami had closed the margin to 21-10. Then it was time for Davenport (6-48) to show his stuff. First, he hit the hole for a 31-yard touchdown run late in the third period and then he closed the scoring and put Miami up for good, going over from one yard out with just 1:57 remaining in the game.

1985 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

PATRIOTS 31, DOLPHINS 14 — Orange Bowl
January 12, 1986 — Miami, FL

The New England Patriots garnered a bid to their first Super Bowl by snapping an 18-game losing streak to the Dolphins in Miami with a 31-14 triumph, in what would be the final NFL postseason game at the Orange Bowl. The Patriots' only previous victory in Miami came in the first meeting between the two teams in 1966. New England backs Craig James (22-105) and Robert Weathers (16-87) combined for 192 yards rushing and quarterback Tony Eason was on target with a 10-12 performance for 71 yards as the Pats set up a Super Bowl date with the Chicago Bears. After New England got on the board first with a Tony Franklin 23-yard field goal, the Dolphins stormed back for their only lead of the afternoon when Dan Marino passed 10 yards to Dan Johnson early in the second quarter. Eason brought New England right back with three touchdown tosses, and the Pats led 24-7 after three quarters. Miami's last score of the day came early in the fourth quarter when Tony Nathan grabbed a 10-yard TD pass from Marino. New England fullback Mosi Tatupu ended the game's scoring with a one-yard TD jaunt midway through the fourth quarter.

1990 AFC FIRST ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 17, CHIEFS 16 — Joe Robbie Stadium
January 5, 1991 — Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw two fourth quarter touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a dramatic come-from-behind 17-16 playoff win over the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 67,276 at Joe Robbie Stadium. In the final period, Marino hit on all eight of his pass attempts for 101 yards and two touchdowns. It was the 16th time in his career that Marino has engineered a fourth quarter comeback. Including the third quarter, Marino hit on his last ten pass attempts to lead the Dolphins back from a 13-3 deficit to a 17-16 win. The Chiefs opened the scoring in the first quarter when Charles Washington blocked a Reggie Roby punt and returned the ball to Miami's 37-yard line. However, Miami's defense stiffened and held the Chiefs to a 27-yard field goal by Nick Lowery. Miami kicker Pete Stoyanovich tied the score at 3-3 in the second period by booting an NFL playoff record 58-yard field goal. Stoyanovich's kick broke the previous record of 54 yards by Detroit's Eddie Murray on December 24, 1983, against San Francisco and it was the second-longest kick of Stoyanovich's career. The Chiefs took a 10-3 halftime lead by scoring on a 26-yard touchdown strike from Steve DeBerg to Stephone Paige. The Chiefs extended their lead to 16-3 on a pair of third quarter field goals by Lowery from 25 and 38 yards. In the fourth quarter, the Dolphins closed the score to 16-10 as Marino hit fullback Tony Paige with a one-yard touchdown pass. The key play in the drive was a two-yard run by Sammie Smith on a fourth-and-two from Kansas City's 45-yard line. The Dolphins forced the Chiefs to punt on their next possession and received the ball on their own 15-yard line with 10:39 left in the game. The Dolphins converted three third downs and drove to the Chiefs' 12-yard line with 3:28 left in the contest before Marino hit Mark Clayton with a 12-yard touchdown pass to give Miami a 17-16 lead. However, the Chiefs had a chance to win the game as they drove from their own 22-yard line to the Dolphin 34 before Lowery's 52-yard field goal attempt was just short.

1990 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

BILLS 44, DOLPHINS 34 Rich Stadium
January 12, 1991 Orchard Park, NY

The Miami Dolphins saw the 1990 season come to an end with a 44-34 loss to the Buffalo Bills in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest in the snow and ice at Rich Stadium. The game was an offensive shootout as the teams combined for 78 points, 48 first downs, 923 total net yards, 662 passing yards, 261 rushing yards, nine touchdowns and five field goals. Individually, Dan Marino (23 of 49 for 323 yards with three TDs and two INTs) and Jim Kelly (19-29-339-3-1) both passed for over 300 yards. Kelly became the only quarterback to throw for over 300 yards against the Dolphin defense in 1990. Mark Duper (three catches for 113 yards and a score) and Buffalo's Andre Reed (4-122-2) and James Lofton (7-149-1) all went over the 100-yard receiving mark. On the ground, the Bills' Thurman Thomas (32 carries for 117 yards and two TDs) and Miami's Sammie Smith (21-99) led the way. Buffalo dominated the first quarter and jumped out to a 13-3 lead. The Bills scored on their first possession as Kelly hit Reed with a 40-yard touchdown strike and the Dolphins answered the score with a 49-yard field goal to close the score to 7-3. Buffalo added a pair of Scott Norwood field goals – from 24 and 22 yards – to close the first quarter scoring. The Bills struck first in the second quarter on a five-yard run by Thomas to lead 20-3. Miami answered the score on its next possession as Marino and Duper combined for a 64-yard touchdown. The Bills came right back and scored as Kelly threw 13 yards for a score to Lofton to take a 27-10 lead. On their next possession Miami was forced to punt, however the Bills' Al Edwards fumbled the punt and Reggie Roby recovered for Miami on Buffalo's 47-yard line. Miami drove down to the two-yard line where Marino ran in for the score to narrow Buffalo's lead to 27-17 at the half. The Dolphins and Buffalo exchanged third quarter field goals as Stoyanovich hit from 22 yards and Norwood connected from 28 yards. Miami closed the score to 30-27 early in the fourth quarter as Marino threw a two-yard touchdown pass to offensive guard Roy Foster. It was the first reception and touchdown of Foster's career as he became the first offensive or defensive lineman to score an offensive touchdown in a post-season contest since Chicago Bears' defensive tackle William Perry rumbled in from a yard out in Super Bowl XX on January 26, 1986. However, the Bills struck back for 14 quick points to put the game away. First, Thomas scored his second touchdown of the game on a five-yard run. On the ensuing kickoff, Miami returner Marc Logan fumbled the ball and Norwood recovered for Buffalo on the Dolphins' 29-yard line. Two plays later, Kelly and Reed combined for a 26-yard scoring toss and a 44-27 lead. The Dolphins scored the final touchdown of the game with just 1:15 remaining as Marino hit Tony Martin with an eight-yard touchdown pass.

1992 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 31, CHARGERS 0 — Joe Robbie Stadium
January 10, 1993 — Miami, FL

Miami cornerback Troy Vincent recorded a pair of interceptions and quarterback Dan Marino threw three touchdown passes to lead the Miami Dolphins to a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers in the AFC Divisional Playoffs before a crowd of 71,224 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Miami's 31-point margin of victory was the largest by the team in a playoff game. The previous largest margin of victory in the post-season by the Dolphins was three 21-point wins as Miami had a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972 in the Orange Bowl, a 34-13 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 16, 1983 in the Orange Bowl and a 31-10 win over the Seattle Seahawks on December 29, 1984 in the Orange Bowl. Overall, the Miami defense totaled four interceptions (also safety Louis Oliver and linebacker Bryan Cox), a forced fumble (by cornerback Stephen Braggs), a fumble recovery (by linebacker Dwight Hollier) and a sack (by defensive end Jeff Hunter). The Dolphins held the Chargers to just ten first downs (three rushing and seven passing), 202 yards of total offense (70 rushing and 132 passing) and three of 15 on third down conversions. The Chargers' 15 possessions ended in seven punts, four interceptions, twice on downs, once on a lost fumble and once at the end of the first half. Following a scoreless first quarter, the Dolphins exploded for 21 points in the second quarter to take a 21-0 lead at the half. Miami's 21 points in the second quarter was the most scored by the Dolphins in any quarter of a playoff game in team history. The previous team high for points in a quarter was 20 points which was scored by Miami in the second quarter against San Diego on January 6, 1983. Miami opened the scoring following a Vincent interception which gave the team possession on San Diego's 48-yard line. Marino led the Dolphins on a nine-play, 48-yard drive which was capped-off as Marino tossed a one-yard scoring pass to fullback Tony Paige. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-0 later in the period as the team again gained possession of the ball following a Vincent interception and drove 37 yards and scored on a nine-yard connection from Marino to tight end Keith Jackson. Miami scored the final points of the first half as Marino again connected with Jackson and the tight end made a diving 30-yard reception in the end zone for the score. Jackson became just the fourth player in team history to record two touchdown receptions for the Dolphins in a playoff contest. Miami and San Diego played to a scoreless third quarter before the Dolphins scored the game's final ten points in the fourth quarter. Miami increased its lead to 24-0 early in the final stanza as kicker Pete Stoyanovich booted a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins scored the final points of the game as running back Aaron Craver scored on a 25-yard run to increase the margin to 31-0.

1992 AFC CHAMPIONSHIP

BILLS 29, DOLPHINS 10 — Joe Robbie Stadium
January 17, 1993 — Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins suffered five turnovers (two interceptions and three fumbles) as the team dropped a 29-10 decision to the Buffalo Bills in the AFC Championship Game before a crowd of 72,703 at Joe Robbie Stadium. Buffalo opened the scoring midway through the opening period as defensive end Bruce Smith sacked Miami quarterback Dan Marino and forced a fumble which was recovered by Bills linebacker Darryl Talley on the Dolphins' 47-yard line. Buffalo scored off the takeaway as Steve Christie converted on a 21-yard field goal. Miami tied the score at 3-3 later in the period as Pete Stoyanovich converted on a 51-yard field goal attempt. The Bills took a 10-3 lead early in the second period as quarterback Jim Kelly threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to running back Thurman Thomas. On Miami's next possession, Marino's pass attempt was batted in the air by Buffalo defensive end Phil Hansen and intercepted by Hansen on the Dolphins' 17-yard line. The Bills increased their lead to 13-3 as Christie kicked on a 33-yard field goal. Buffalo took a 20-3 lead early in the third quarter by capitalizing on another Miami turnover as kick returner Mike Williams fumbled the second half kickoff and Buffalo's Carwell Gardner recovered the ball on the Dolphins' 25-yard line. The Bills scored four plays later as running back Kenneth Davis ran into the end zone for a two-yard touchdown. Buffalo increased its lead to 26-3 as Christie hit on a pair of field goals from 21 and 31 yards. Miami closed the score to 26-10 as Marino connected with wide receiver Mark Duper on a 15-yard touchdown pass. With the TD pass, Marino extended his streak to ten consecutive playoff games with one or more touchdown passes which is tied with the Raiders' Ken Stabler (1973-77) for the NFL's all-time record for consecutive post-season games with a touchdown pass. In addition, Duper's touchdown reception was his fifth post-season touchdown catch and broke the team's playoff record for career touchdown receptions. Duper was tied with wide receiver Paul Warfield (four TDs on 34 career playoff catches) and tight end Bruce Hardy (four TDs on 26 catches). Buffalo closed the scoring later in the period as Christie converted his fifth field goal of the game with a 38-yarder.

1994 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 27, CHIEFS 17 — Joe Robbie Stadium
December 31, 1994 — Miami, FL

Dan Marino threw a pair of touchdown passes to lead the Dolphins to a 27-17 win in a First-Round playoff contest against the Kansas City Chiefs before a crowd of 69,757 at Joe Robbie Stadium. The game was billed as Marino-Montana III and the duel between the two future Hall of Famers lived up to the pregame hype. Marino completed 22 of 29 passes for 257 yards with two touchdowns and no interceptions and Montana countered by hitting on 26 of 37 passes for 314 yards with two scores and an interception. The first half was an offensive shootout which was tied at 17-17 with neither team being forced to punt. Kansas City opened the scoring as Montana tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Derrick Walker. Miami answered the score on its first possession as Bernie Parmalee scored on a one-yard run. The Chiefs came right back to close the first quarter scoring at 14-7 as Montana threw a short pass to fullback Kimble Anders who turned the play into a 57-yard catch and run for the touchdown. Miami cut the score to 14-10 early in the second quarter as Pete Stoyanovich booted a 40-yard field goal. Kansas City upped its lead to 17-10 later in the quarter as Lin Elliott booted a 21-yard field goal. The Dolphins closed the first half scoring as Marino tossed a one-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ronnie Williams. The scoring pass set an NFL record as it marked Marino's 11th consecutive post-season game with a touchdown toss. He moved past a tie with Montana (San Francisco/Kansas City) and Ken Stabler (Oakland) for the longest all-time streak of playoff games with a touchdown pass in NFL history. The Dolphins dominated the second half and outscored the Chiefs by a 10-0 margin. Miami took its first lead of the ballgame at 24-17 on the first drive of the third quarter as Marino and Irving Fryar connected on a seven-yard touchdown pass. Miami increased its lead to 27-17 on a 40-yard field goal late in the third period. The Dolphins forced a pair of turnovers by the Chiefs in Miami territory to preserve the win. First, cornerback J.B. Brown intercepted a Montana aerial on the goal line to stop a drive and then safety Michael Stewart forced and recovered a fumble by Marcus Allen on the Dolphins' 34-yard line.

1994 AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CHARGERS 22, DOLPHINS 21 — Jack Murphy Stadium
January 8, 1995 — San Diego, CA

Natrone Means rushed for 139 yards and a touchdown to lead the Chargers to a 22-21 win over the Miami Dolphins in an AFC Divisional Playoff contest before a crowd of 63,381 at Jack Murphy Stadium. San Diego had the first scoring threat of the game as they drove down to Miami's 26-yard line, but Miami's Marco Coleman forced a fumble by Means to stop the drive. Following the takeaway, the Dolphins opened the scoring as Dan Marino capped a nine-play, 79-yard drive with an eight-yard scoring pass to tight end Keith Jackson. The Chargers closed the score to 7-3 on their next possession as John Carney booted a 20-yard field goal. Prior to the field goal attempt, San Diego had a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' six-yard line but the Miami defense stiffened and held the Chargers out of the end zone. The Dolphins increased their lead to 14-3 on their next possession as Marino and Jackson connected again in the end zone for a nine-yard touchdown pass. Jackson's two touchdown receptions in the contest tied Miami's all-time single-game playoff record, which was accomplished five previous times. San Diego answered the touchdown with another field goal as Carney connected on a 21-yard effort. Once again, San Diego had a first-and-goal on Miami's six-yard line and the Dolphin defense limited the Chargers to a field goal. Miami closed the first half scoring as Marino threw a 16-yard touchdown pass to Mike Williams with just 27 seconds left in the first half to take a 21-6 lead. San Diego opened the third quarter with a long drive which was halted when Means was held for no gain on a fourth-and-one play from Miami's one-yard line and the Dolphins took possession of the ball. However, on Miami's first play following the goal line stand, Dolphins running back Bernie Parmalee was tackled in the end zone for a safety to bring the score to 21-8. Following a free kick by Miami's John Kidd, the Chargers got the ball on their own 46-yard line and drove for a 24-yard touchdown run by Means to cut the score to 21-15. Miami had the ball for just one play — the safety by Parmalee – in the entire third quarter. San Diego took a 22-21 lead with just 35 seconds left in regulation as Stan Humphries threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver Mark Seay. The Dolphins had one final chance to win the game as Marino drove the team down to the Chargers' 30-yard line but Pete Stoyanovich's 48-yard field goal attempt with just eight seconds remaining was wide right.

December 30, 1995 — Orchard Park, NY

The Buffalo Bills cruised out to a 24-0 halftime lead en route to a 37-22 victory in an AFC First Round Playoff game in front of 73,103 fans at Rich Stadium. The contest proved to be the last game for Don Shula as head coach of the Dolphins. The Bills, led by running back Thurman Thomas' 158 yards, grounded out an AFC Playoff record 341 rushing yards, breaking the old mark of 318 set by the San Diego Chargers against Boston in 1963. Miami quarterback Dan Marino tied an NFL postseason record, with Bernie Kosar while he was a member of the Cleveland Browns in 1986, with 64 passing attempts and completed 33 (tied for second-highest in NFL postseason) of them for 422 yards (third-highest in NFL postseason). The two teams set a new NFL postseason record with 1,038 combined total net yards, breaking the old mark of 1,036 by the Dolphins and the San Diego Chargers in an overtime game in 1981. The Bills took an early 7-0 lead when Thomas scored on a one-yard touchdown run. Buffalo kicker Steve Christie put the Bills ahead 10-0 at the midway point of the first quarter with a 48-yard field goal. Buffalo needed just four plays to go 68 yards and took a 17-0 advantage when fullback Darick Holmes ran 21 yards for a touchdown with 9:54 left in the half. On the Dolphins' next possession, they drove to the Buffalo 40-yard line but Marino was hit by Bills defensive end Phil Hansen as he threw and the tipped ball was intercepted by linebacker Marlo Perry. It took Buffalo just 49 seconds to make the score 24-0 as Kelly connected with Steve Tasker on a 37-yard touchdown pass to cap a three-play, 62-yard drive midway through the second quarter. The Bills added to their lead in the third quarter by driving 55 yards on ten plays and extended their lead to 27-0 when Christie booted a 23-yard field goal late in the third quarter. Miami got on the board when they took the ball on their next possession and drove 67 yards on nine plays and made the score 27-7 when Marino hit wide receiver O.J. McDuffie on a five-yard touchdown pass. The Bills increased their lead to 34-7 when they culminated a 61-yard drive with a 44-yard touchdown run by fullback Tim Tindale with 9:31 remaining in the game. The Dolphins cut the lead to 34-14 on their next possession as Marino connected with wide receiver Randal Hill on a 45-yard touchdown to close out a seven-play, 68-yard drive. The Bills answered with an eight-play, 44-yard drive that saw Christie kick a 42-yard field goal to make the score 37-14. Miami then took its next possession and marched 73 yards on eight plays and cut the lead to 37-22 when running back Terry Kirby ran one-yard for the score and a two-point conversion from Marino to McDuffie was good. The Dolphins then attempted an onside kick and safety Michael Stewart recovered at the Buffalo 49-yard line. However, Miami's last threat of the game was stopped when Marino was intercepted by Bills cornerback Ken Irvin at Buffalo's 13-yard line with 1:51 left in the game. McDuffie set a new club postseason record (tied with nine others for sixth-highest all-time in NFL postseason) with 11 receptions for 154 yards (a new Dolphin postseason record, surpassing Mark Duper's 148 yards vs. Pittsburgh in 1985).

1997 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

PATRIOTS 17, DOLPHINS 3 — Foxboro Stadium
December 28, 1997 — Foxboro, MA

The New England Patriots recorded their third win of the 1997 season over the Dolphins, and their fourth straight over Miami dating back to 1996, by holding Miami to just a field goal in their 17-3 triumph in a first-round playoff game at Foxboro Stadium. The loss was the Dolphins' third straight in the postseason. New England held Miami to 162 yards of total offense, the lowest total in the 32-game postseason history for the Dolphins, below a 176-yard performance against Washington in Super Bowl XVII. In addition, the three points scored by the Dolphins equalled the fewest points scored by the team in a playoff game with a 24-3 loss to the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl VI. Overall, New England forced three Miami turnovers, while the Patriots did not commit any miscues and 14 of New England's 17 points resulted from a Dolphins turnover. The Patriots sacked Dolphins quarterback Dan Marino four times on the day and Marino was held without a touchdown for the first time in 14 career playoff games. The Dolphins got to the Patriots' 39 late in the first quarter, but were stopped on third and fourth-and-one. The Patriots had an opportunity to take a 3-0 lead early in the second quarter, but Adam Vinatieri missed wide left on a 48-yard field goal attempt. Three plays later, Chris Slade intercepted a Dan Marino pass and returned it 22 yards to the Dolphins' 29. That led to a 24-yard touchdown pass from Drew Bledsoe to Troy Brown three plays afterward, on third-and-five, 4:33 into the second quarter. New England took over at its own 40 with 2:16 left in the first half and drove to the Dolphins' 30 before Vinatieri missed wide right on a 47-yard field goal try with 30 seconds on the clock. On the second play of the second half, Todd Collins picked off a Marino pass and brought it back 40 yards for a touchdown. The Patriots extended their lead to 17 points with 1:58 left in the third quarter when Vinatieri capped a 15-play, 67-yard drive with a 22-yard field goal. The Dolphins got their only points of the game nine seconds into the fourth quarter, on an Olindo Mare 38-yard field goal. Miami had gained possession at the Patriots' 43 after a Corey Harris 40-yard kickoff return and a ten-yard tripping penalty on the Patriots. Harris recovered the ensuing onside kick, and the Dolphins took over at their own 44. On the next play, however, Chris Canty stripped the ball from Marino and Slade recovered at the Dolphins' 41. Miami got into New England territory on each of its last two possessions – getting as far as the 45 and 43 – but were stopped on fourth down on each occasion.

1998 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 24, BILLS 17 — Pro Player Stadium
January 2, 1999 — Miami, FL

The Dolphins recorded their first playoff win since the 1994 season, snapping a three-game losing streak in the postseason with a 24-17 win in an AFC First-Round Playoff game over the Buffalo Bills at Pro Player Stadium. Doug Flutie connected with Eric Moulds for a 65-yard completion on the game's first play from scrimmage, but Terrell Buckley stripped the ball and Brock Marion returned the fumble 17 yards to the Dolphins' 29-yard line. That led to a 16-play, 57-yard drive which used 8:23 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 31-yard field goal. Miami made it a 6-0 game on Mare's second field goal of the afternoon, from 40 yards out, 4:24 into the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 66-yard drive that consumed 6:22 of the clock. Mare attempted an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that was recovered by the Bills' Dan Brandenburg. Three plays later, Buffalo took its first lead of the game when Thurman Thomas ran it in from one-yard out, two plays after Flutie and Moulds combined for a 37-yard completion to the Dolphins' five-yard line. Buffalo got to the Dolphins' six-yard line with 24 seconds remaining in the first half, but Marion picked off a Flutie pass and returned it 19 yards. A personal foul penalty on the Bills put the Dolphins at their own 35. Dan Marino then completed a 52-yard pass to Oronde Gadsden who then lateraled the ball to O.J. McDuffie, putting the Dolphins at the Bills' nine-yard line. Mare, however, hit the right upright on a 26-yard field goal attempt as time expired in the half. The Dolphins regained the lead at 13-7 on Karim Abdul-Jabbar's three-yard touchdown run with 2:32 left in the third quarter. Abdul-Jabbar rushed for 21 yards on the 52-yard drive, which was accomplished in 12 plays and saw the Dolphins connect on three third down conversions. Stanley Pritchett punched it in for the two-point conversion. Buffalo answered less than two minutes later with a 32-yard touchdown pass from Flutie to Moulds which tied the game at 14 with 48 seconds left in the third quarter. Miami got the ball back and embarked on a 17-play, 77-yard drive that ended with Mare's third field goal of the game, from 23 yards out, 5:15 into the fourth period. Four plays afterward, Jerry Wilson forced the ball loose from Andre Reed after a reception and Terrell Buckley recovered, returning it six yards to midfield. The Dolphins capitalized off that turnover when Marino connected with Lamar Thomas for an 11-yard scoring strike on third-and-seven with 3:32 remaining in the game, capping the eight play drive. The Bills took over at their own 20 and got to the Dolphins' 15-yard line before Steve Christie connected on a 33-yard field goal with 1:33 left in the game. Kurt Schulz recovered the ensuing onside kick for Buffalo, giving them possession at their own 31 with 1:30 to play. The first play of the drive was a 30-yard completion from Flutie to Moulds, putting the Bills at the Dolphins' 39-yard line. From there, Buffalo converted three consecutive third downs, giving them a first-and-goal from the Dolphins' five-yard line with 17 seconds remaining. Trace Armstrong then sacked Flutie, forcing the ball loose, which was recovered by Shane Burton to preserve the victory. Moulds finished the game with an NFL playoff record 240 receiving yards.

BRONCOS 38, DOLPHINS 3 — Mile High Stadium
January 9, 1999 — Denver, CO

Miami failed to score a touchdown in its second straight road playoff game, as they dropped their seventh consecutive postseason road game overall, with a 38-3 loss to the Broncos at Mile High Stadium. After stopping the Dolphins on the first series of the game, the Broncos took over at their own eight and embarked on a 14-play, 92-yard drive that used 7:56 of the clock and ended with a Terrell Davis one-yard touchdown run with 5:55 left in the opening quarter. Davis ran for 38 yards on seven carries on the drive, and John Elway completed five of six passes for 48 yards. Denver took a two-touchdown advantage before the first quarter was over when Davis scored on a 20-yard run with 1:02 remaining in the opening period. The touchdown came three plays after Elway connected with Ed McCaffrey for a 33-yard completion to the Dolphins' 33-yard line. Miami answered with an 11-play, 76-yard drive that consumed 5:55 of the clock and ended with an Olindo Mare 22-yard field goal, 4:53 into the second quarter. Dan Marino completed six of seven passes for 55 yards on the march. Denver scored a touchdown on their third consecutive series when Derek Loville ran it in from 11 yards out with 4:39 left in the second quarter. The score capped an 11-play, 87-yard drive that used 5:28 of the clock. As a team, the Broncos rushed for 62 yards on the drive, including 47 yards by Davis. Davis broke loose for a 62-yard run to the Dolphins' 18-yard line on the first play of the second half, leading to a Jason Elam 32-yard field goal four plays afterward. Denver opened a 28-point advantage 1:37 into the fourth quarter when Elway combined with Rod Smith for a 28-yard touchdown strike. The Broncos finished off the scoring when Neil Smith recovered an Oronde Gadsden fumble following a reception and rumbled 79 yards for a touchdown.

1999 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 20, SEAHAWKS 17 — Kingdome
January 9, 2000 — Seattle, WA

In the last game ever played at the Kingdome, the Dolphins recorded their first road playoff win since 1972 with a 20-17 triumph over the Seattle Seahawks. The Seahawks' second possession of the game started at the Dolphins' 47 after Miami was forced to punt from its own four-yard line. From there, Seattle needed eight plays before Jon Kitna connected with Sean Dawkins for a nine-yard touchdown pass on third-and-three, with 6:18 to play in the first quarter. The score marked the second third-down conversion on the drive for the Seahawks. Kitna and Mike Pritchard hooked up for a pair of completions on the drive, totaling 29 yards. Brock Marion returned the ensuing kickoff 47 yards to midfield. The Dolphins then moved 37 yards in seven plays, leading to an Olindo Mare 32-yard field goal with 2:05 remaining in the opening quarter. The Seahawks re-gained their seven-point advantage with 45 seconds left in the first half on Todd Peterson's 50-yard field goal, which capped an eight-play, 49-yard drive that used 3:45 of the clock. The Dolphins took over at their own 40 on the opening possession of the second half after Peterson's kickoff went out of bounds. Led by Dan Marino, who completed all six of his passes, totaling 56 yards, Miami embarked on a ten-play, 60-yard drive that consumed 6:05 of the clock and ended with a one-yard touchdown pass from Marino to Oronde Gadsden on third-and-goal. The touchdown pass was the 31st for Marino in his playoff career, moving him past Terry Bradshaw into sole possession of second on the NFL's all-time postseason list. The key play on the march was a 27-yard completion from Marino to O.J. McDuffie on third-and-seven from the Seattle 46. Charlie Rogers took the ensuing kickoff and raced 85 yards for a touchdown to give Seattle the lead once again. The Dolphins pulled to within four points on Mare's 50-yard field goal with 2:22 to play in the third quarter, culminating a six-play, 32-yard drive in which Autry Denson rushed for 25 yards. The ensuing onside kick was recovered by Miami's Shawn Wooden, and the Dolphins took over at their own 42. Although they could not take advantage of that opportunity, Tom Hutton's punt that followed pinned Seattle at their own six. Down by four points with 9:09 to play, Miami gained possession at their own 15. On the third play of the series, they faced a third-and-17 from their own 8 when Marino hit Tony Martin for a 23-yard completion. From there, Miami marched the length of the field in just eight more plays, the final one being a two-yard TD run by J.J. Johnson with 4:48 to play in the game. Two plays prior to the score Marino connected with Gadsden for a 24-yard completion on third-and-10 from the Seahawks 29, giving them a first-and-goal from the 5. Seattle went three and out on their next series, and a Terrell Buckley interception with 23 seconds remaining ended any Seattle comeback hopes. The Dolphins dominated the second half of the game, as they gained 230 yards while holding Seattle to just 32 yards over the final 30 minutes of the game. Miami registered a club playoff record six sacks on the afternoon, including three by Trace Armstrong, who was named NFL Defensive Player of the Week for the Wild Card Round of the playoffs.

January 15, 2000 — Jacksonville, FL

The Dolphins allowed the most points in club history and suffered their worst defeat ever as well. The Jaguars took a 7-0 lead on an eight-yard touchdown pass from Mark Brunell to Jimmy Smith on the first series of the game, 4:28 into the contest. A 41-yard completion from Brunell to Smith to the Dolphins' 22 was the key play on the 73-yard drive, in which Jacksonville converted all three of their third down attempts, including the touchdown. On the next play from scrimmage, Aaron Beasley intercepted a Dan Marino pass and Jacksonville took over at the Dolphins' 41. From there, the Jaguars moved 14 yards, setting up a Mike Hollis 45-yard field goal, with 6:19 to play in the opening quarter. The Jaguars scored for the third time in as many possessions when Fred Taylor broke loose for a 90-yard touchdown run with 3:46 remaining in the first quarter. On the following play from scrimmage, Tony Brackens stripped the ball from Marino, Brackens recovered and went 16 yards for the score. On the first play of the second quarter, Jacksonville scored again on a 39-yard touchdown pass from Brunell to Taylor on third-and-14. The Jaguars gained possession at the Dolphins' 21 on their next series after Corey Chamblin blocked a Tom Hutton punt. That led to a James Stewart 25-yard TD run three plays later. Hollis added a 28-yard field goal 1:51 prior to the half. That score came five plays after Carnell Lake recovered a J.J. Johnson fumble at the Dolphins' 30. Miami got its first points of the game three seconds before halftime when Marino and Oronde Gadsden combined for a 20-yard TD pass, on third-and-10. Jay Fiedler connected with Jimmy Smith for a 70-yard touchdown pass, 2:57 into the third quarter, giving Jacksonville 48 points on the afternoon, marking the most points that Miami had ever given up in the postseason. Fiedler fired his second touchdown pass of the day with 6:19 to play in the third quarter when he hit Alvis Whitted for a 38-yard scoring pass. Jacksonville finished the scoring with a Chris Howard five-yard touchdown run 4:23 into the fourth quarter, one play after Donovin Darius recovered an Autry Denson fumble.

2000 AFC FIRST-ROUND PLAYOFF

DOLPHINS 23, COLTS 17 (OT) — Pro Player Stadium
December 30, 2000 — Miami, FL

The Miami Dolphins recorded the second-largest comeback win in team playoff history as they rallied from a 14-0 halftime deficit to earn a 23-17 overtime win against the Indianapolis Colts at Pro Player Stadium. The Dolphins faced a fourth-and-six from the Colts' 39 on their first possession of the game, but could not convert. The Colts took over and marched 47 yards in seven plays, en route to a Mike Vanderjagt 32-yard field goal. The Dolphins made it to the Colts' 33 late in the first quarter, but on third-and-14, Chad Cota intercepted a Jay Fiedler pass in the end zone. Vanderjagt lined up to attempt his second field goal in as many series, but the run by holder Hunter Smith on the fake was short of the first down. On the next play from scrimmage, Chad Bratzke intercepted a Fiedler pass and returned it four yards to the Dolphins' 25. That led to a seven-play, 17-yard drive that culminated with a Vanderjagt 26-yard field goal. Fiedler suffered his third interception in as many series three plays later when Cota picked off his second pass of the day, giving the Colts the ball at the Dolphins' 18. Two plays later, Peyton Manning connected with Jerome Pathon for a 17-yard score. That was followed by a Manning to Ken Dilger pass for the two-point conversion. The Dolphins had a chance to put their first points on the board with 31 seconds left in the first half, but Olindo Mare missed wide right on a 38-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins opened the second half with an 11-play, 70-yard drive that ended with a two-yard scoring run by Lamar Smith, 6:51 into the half. Smith rushed for 42 yards on seven attempts on the march. The Dolphins cut the lead to four points 4:37 into the fourth quarter on a 38-yard field goal by Mare, which capped a nine-play, 53-yard drive. The Colts answered with a nine-play, 45-yard march which ended with a Vanderjagt 50-yard field goal. The Dolphins took over at their own 20 with 4:55 to play in the game, and marched the length of the field in 14 plays towards the game-tying score, a nine-yard touchdown pass from Fiedler to Jed Weaver on third-and-goal, with 34 seconds remaining in the game. Fiedler threw for 52 yards on the drive, as he completed six of 10 passes while also rushing three times for 15 yards. The Colts got into field goal position 5:44 into the overtime period, but Vanderjagt missed wide right on a 49-yard field goal attempt. The Dolphins took over at their own 39, and on the third play from scrimmage, they got into Colts territory at the 48 on a six-yard completion from Fiedler to Jeff Ogden on third-and-three. Eight plays later, Smith gave the Dolphins their third straight victory in the First Round of the playoffs on a 17-yard touchdown run with 3:34 left in overtime. Smith's 40 attempts represented a new NFL playoff single-game best. His yardage figure was the second-most ever in an NFL postseason contest.

RAVENS 20, DOLPHINS 3 — Pro Player Stadium
January 13, 2002 — Miami, FL

The Dolphins dropped their first home playoff game since January 17, 1993, snapping a three-game home playoff win streak. Twan Russell stripped the ball from Jermaine Lewis on the game's opening kickoff and Tommy Hendricks recovered at the Ravens' 24-yard line, leading to an Olindo Mare 33-yard field goal four plays later. The score remained that way until the third play of the second quarter when Terry Allen scored on a four-yard run, culminating a 17-play, 90-yard drive in which Baltimore ran the ball 12 times totaling 61 yards, led by Allen, who rushed for 27 yards on four carries. With just more than a minute remaining in the first half, Jamie Sharper recovered a Travis Minor fumble at the Dolphins' 41-yard line. The Ravens were unable to capitalize, however, as Matt Stover's 40-yard field goal attempt as time expired hit the left upright. Baltimore extended its lead to 11 points with 1:20 to play in the third quarter when Elvis Grabc hit Travis Taylor in the end zone for a four-yard touchdown pass on third-and-goal, capping an 11-play, 99-yard drive. The key play was a 45-yard completion from Grbac to Taylor on third-and-one from the Ravens' 10-yard line. Peter Boulware stripped the ball from Jay Fiedler on a sack on the third play of the fourth quarter, and Boulware recovered at the Dolphins' 37-yard line. That resulted in a Matt Stover 35-yard field goal six plays afterward. Stover added his second field goal in as many series with a 40-yarder with 2:01 to play in the game. That three-pointer came 11 plays after a Duane Starks interception after the Dolphins had made it to the Ravens' 42-yard line. Baltimore rushed for 49 yards on eight attempts on the scoring drive.

DOLPHINS POST THREE PLAYOFF SHUTOUTS

Since the 1970 merger of the American and National Football Leagues, the Miami Dolphins have recorded three of the seven shutouts registered by AFC teams in the playoffs. The Dolphins recorded a 31-0 win over the San Diego Chargers on January 10, 1993, a 14-0 win over the N.Y. Jets on January 23, 1983, and a 21-0 win over the Baltimore Colts on January 2, 1972. The only other AFC playoff shutouts were by the New York Jets (41-0 over the Indianapolis Colts on January 4, 2003), Oakland Raiders (27-0 over the Dolphins on January 6, 2001), the San Diego Chargers (17-0 over the Kansas City Chiefs on January 2, 1993) and the Baltimore Colts (17-0 over the Cincinnati Bengals on December 26, 1970).

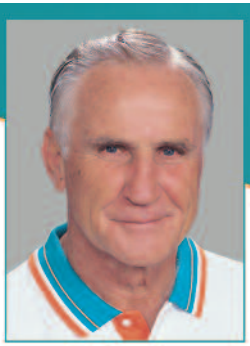
DOLPHINS IN THE HALL OF FAME



Don SHULA

HEAD COACH/VICE CHAIRMAN

INDUCTED: 1997
BORN: 1/4/30
COLLEGE: JOHN CARROLL
PLAYER: 1951-57
ASSISTANT COACH: 1960-62
HEAD COACH: 1963-95
DOLPHINS HEAD COACH: 1970-95

On July 26, 1997, Don Shula capped an illustrious career when he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio, following his election into that shrine on January 25, 1997, his first year of eligibility. Shula's unanimous election to the Hall was the ultimate honor in a career full of record-setting accomplishments.

For the past 19 years, Shula has served as Vice-Chairman of the Miami Dolphins, having been named to that position on January 5, 1996. This year marks his 45th season with the Dolphins, a tenure that started when he was named head coach of the club in 1970. He was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium on November 25, 1996, and was inducted in the Dolphins Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011.

Shula's record as head coach of the Dolphins (1970-95) and before that as head coach of the Baltimore Colts (1963-69) is unmatched in National Football League history. In 1995, he concluded his 33rd season as an NFL head coach and his 26th season as head coach of the Dolphins. He owns a career record of 347-173-6 (.665), including a regular season mark of 328-156-6 (.676), and is the winningest coach in NFL history. On November 14, 1993 in Philadelphia, when the Dolphins defeated the Philadelphia Eagles 19-14, Shula won his 325th career game, moving him past the immortal George Halas (324-151-31) and setting an NFL record for most career victories, a mark once thought to be unreachable. Shula's 328 regular season wins also is an NFL record, surpassing Halas' former NFL mark of 318 regular season victories. Shula and Halas are the only NFL coaches to win 300 or more career games, as Shula recorded his 300th career win on September 22, 1991, with a 16-13 triumph over Green Bay in just his 29th year as an NFL head coach, as compared to 36 seasons for Halas to accomplish that feat.

In addition, Shula won Super Bowl titles in 1972 and 1973, one of only six coaches in NFL history to win consecutive Super Bowls. His 1972 team went 17-0, recording the only undefeated season in NFL annals. He has appeared in more Super Bowls (six) than any other coach, and is one of only two coaches (along with Buffalo's Marv Levy) to reach the Super Bowl three straight seasons (1971-73). He also advanced to the Super Bowl with the Dolphins in 1982 and 1984, as well as in 1968 as head coach of the Baltimore Colts.

A remarkable 20 times in 33 seasons, Shula's teams reached the playoffs. His teams won at least ten games 21 times in those 33 years, and he suffered only two losing seasons (6-8 in 1976 and 6-10 in 1988) in that span. He averaged more than ten wins per season in his career (347 wins in 33 years as a head coach), and he was the youngest coach to win 100, 200 and 300 games.

During Shula's tenure with the Dolphins, from the time he replaced George Wilson on February 18, 1970 to become the franchise's second-ever head coach through his final season in 1995, his winning percentage of .658 (257-133-2) during that time was the best record in all of professional sports. The Dolphins either won or shared first place in the AFC East 15 times in the 26 years under Shula, and reached the playoffs 16 times. His ultimate achievement was the NFL's only unbeaten, untied record of 17-0 in 1972, capped by a 14-7 win over the Washington Redskins in Super Bowl VII. He won a second consecutive Super Bowl title in 1973, defeating the Minnesota Vikings 24-7 in Super Bowl VIII, and compiled an overall record of 32-2 in those back-to-back seasons, a two-year mark that has yet to be surpassed.

Before joining the Dolphins, Shula spent seven years (1963-69) as head coach of the Colts. In that span he compiled a record of 73-26-4 (.728) and advanced to the playoffs four times, including two appearances in the NFL Championship Game, in 1964 and 1968 after 12-2 and 13-1 campaigns, respectively. He became the youngest head coach (33 years old) in the history of the NFL when he was named the Colts' head coach in 1963.

Shula succeeded Weeb Ewbank as head coach in Baltimore after serving three years (1960-62) as defensive coordinator of the Detroit Lions, with the team going 26-13-1 in that period. Shula entered the coaching ranks with an assistant's job at Virginia (1958) and Kentucky (1959) before joining the Lions.

Shula broke into the NFL as the lone rookie on Coach Paul Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951. He was involved in the largest trade in modern NFL history, a 15-player deal with Baltimore in 1953, and Shula played four seasons with the Colts (1953-56) and one season at Washington (1957) at right cornerback. He had 21 career interceptions for 247 yards in seven seasons. In college, he was a running back at John Carroll University in Cleveland, and in 1950 he gained 125 yards when the Blue Streaks upset Syracuse, 21-15.

Shula also contributed to the growth of the NFL off the field by serving from 1975 though 1995 (including the last two years in that span as co-chairman along with George Young of the New York Giants) on the league's influential Competition Committee, which evaluates and recommends changes in playing rules to make the game more open and exciting, and to improve player safety.

In addition to his own election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Shula was selected to present five other members for induction into the Hall (Larry Csonka, Bob Griese, Jim Langer, Larry Little and Dwight Stephenson), including two (Csonka and Langer) on the same day.

Coach Shula was further honored on January 31, 2010, when NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell announced the establishment of a new league award – "The Coach Shula Award" – that honors each NFL season a football coach that displays the integrity, achievement and positive impact on others that Coach Shula exemplified throughout his NFL career.

In addition, on that same day the Dolphins unveiled the "Perfect Moment in Time" statue in honor of Coach Shula. The ten-foot sculpture depicts Coach Shula raised upon the shoulders of two players, Nick Buoniconti and Al Jenkins, and captures the perfect moment in time immediately after the Dolphins completed their undefeated season in 1972. The statue adorns the entrance of the Dolphins' corporate headquarters at Sun Life Stadium, and that office bears the address of "347 Don Shula Drive" to reflect the total number of victories Shula amassed during his career.

Along with his football responsibilities, Shula always has given considerable time, plus financial and emotional support, to many area charities. The Don Shula Foundation, formed primarily to assist breast cancer research, was established as a tribute to his late wife, Dorothy. Shula also has been active in the American Cancer Society, March of Dimes, American Red Cross, the United Way and Catholic Charities.

A member of the Class of 1951 at John Carroll, Shula helps fund a $1 million chair in the University's Department of Philosophy. On September 27, 2003, John Carroll University showed its appreciation for Shula's support of the school by naming its new stadium Don Shula Stadium. Shula also has received honorary doctorate degrees from John Carroll, St. Thomas University, the University of Miami and Florida Atlantic University.

Because of his success on the football field and his long-time civic and charitable service, Shula has received countless prestigious awards recognizing his contributions, including the 1993 Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year Award and the 1994 Horatio Alger Award. In addition, along with Ken Blanchard, in 1995 Shula co-authored "Everyone's A Coach," a highly acclaimed book that outlines the application of their managerial philosophies for business and personal success. Shula personifies those business principles himself, serving as an equity partner in two highly successful undertakings, Shula Enterprises, Inc. along with Don Shula's Steakhouse, LLLP.

Shula's oldest son, David, 55, and his wife, Leslie, have three sons, Danny, Christopher and Matthew. David served as the head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals from 1992-96, and when Don Shula's Dolphins played Dave Shula's Bengals on October 2, 1994 and October 1, 1995, both at Cincinnati's Riverfront Stadium, it marked the only two times in the history of professional sports that a father and son faced each other as head coaches. Dave currently is President of Don Shula Steakhouse, Inc.

Shula's other son Mike, 49, currently is in his second season as offensive coordinator for the Carolina Panthers after servng the previous two years as the team's quarterbacks coach. He joined the Panthers after serving four years as the QB coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars (2007-10). He spent four seasons (2003-06) as the head coach at the University of Alabama and led the Crimson Tide to a Cotton Bowl win and a 10-2 record in 2005. He had rejoined the Dolphins' staff as quarterbacks coach in 2000 after serving the four previous seasons as the offensive coordinator of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers; he also spent the 1991-92 seasons as a coaches' assistant under his father in Miami. Mike and his wife, Shari, have three daughters, Samantha, Brooke and Ryan.

Mike and David Shula presented their father for induction into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1997, becoming the first pair ever to present a Hall of Famer for induction.

Shula's oldest daughter, Donna, has five children, Alex, Lindsey, Tyler, and twins Calvin and Carly. Another daughter, Sharon, resides in New York, while youngest daughter, Annie, lives and works in Broward County.

Shula and his wife, Mary Anne, reside in Miami Beach and continue to be very active in charitable and community affairs. Most recently they visited U.S. soldiers stationed in Iraq and Afghanistan as part of a USO tour to raise troop morale. They were married on October 15, 1993, and their family together now includes eight children, 16 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren

DON SHULA'S MILESTONES

Don Shula passed the immortal George Halas to become the winningest coach in NFL history when he registered victory number 325 in Miami's 19-14 win at Philadelphia on November 14, 1993. Shula concluded coaching with a career record of 347-173-6 (.665). On December 25, 1994, in Miami's 27-20 win over Detroit, Shula won the 319th regular season game of his career and broke the NFL record for most regular season coaching wins by Halas (318 wins). Shula owned a 328-156-6 (.676) regular season record. In 1991, Shula joined Halas (324 wins) as the only NFL coaches with 300 or more career wins. Shula accomplished his milestone 300th career win with a 16-13 triumph over the Green Bay Packers on September 22, 1991. Shula won the 300th regular-season game of his coaching career with a 16-13 overtime win at New England on December 27, 1992.

Shula added another historic career milestone in Miami's 30-7 win over the Buffalo Bills on September 16, 1990, as he recorded his 200th regular season victory since joining the Dolphins in 1970. Shula joined Hall of Fame coaches Curley Lambeau (Green Bay), George Halas (Chicago) and Tom Landry (Dallas) as the only NFL coaches to earn 200 or more regular season wins with one NFL club.

Nick BUONICONTI

LB | 85

INDUCTED: 2001
BORN: 1/15/40
COLLEGE: NOTRE DAME '62
NFL: 1962-76
DOLPHINS: 1969-76

Nick Buoniconti, the driving force of the Dolphins' famed "No-Name Defense," inspired his teammates with his outstanding play and fiery leadership. During his seven years with the Dolphins the team advanced to three straight Super Bowls (1971-73) and won twice (1972, 1973), with one of those wins coming after their unparalleled undefeated season in 1972. Buoniconti was only 5-11 and 220 pounds and was considered to be too small to play middle linebacker. However, as many coaches noted, he always "played bigger than his size" during a stellar 14-year career with the Dolphins and the Boston Patriots.

The only member of the Dolphins defense to be elected to the Hall of Fame, Buoniconti joined the team in 1969 after playing seven seasons with the Patriots. During his tenure with the Dolphins, he was honored as the team's Most Valuable Player three times (1969, 1970, 1973), named to the AFL All-Star game in 1969 and was selected to two Pro Bowls (1973, 1974) following the merger of the two leagues. In 1990, he was voted as a linebacker on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on November 18, 1991, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011.

Before joining the Dolphins, Buoniconti helped the Patriots capture the 1963 AFL Eastern Division title, and he played in five AFL All-Star games. Overall in his 14-year career, he played in 183 games and recorded 32 career interceptions. He was named to the All-Time AFL team in 1970, and overall was named a first team All-AFL/AFC choice eight times.

A native of Springfield, Massachusetts, Buoniconti had an outstanding collegiate career at Notre Dame. Following his retirement from the Dolphins, he and his son, Marc, were the driving forces behind the establishment of the Miami Project to Cure Paralysis, one of the world's leading research and treatment centers for spinal cord injuries.

Buoniconti was elected to the Hall of Fame in 2001 after being named for the first time that year as a nominee from the pre-1976 era by the Hall's Seniors Committee.

Larry Csonka ranks as the Dolphins' all-time leading rusher with 1,506 carries for 6,737 yards (4.5 average) and 53 TDs. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, he put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. Csonka shined in those three Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and going over 100 yards rushing in two of them. Originally drafted in the first round out of Syracuse in 1968, he was named the MVP of Super Bowl VIII after carrying 33 times for 145 yards and two touchdowns as the Dolphins steamrolled the Minnesota Vikings, 24-7, for their second straight NFL title. Called a "modern-day Bronko Nagurski" by Dolphins coach Don Shula, "Zonk" also played three seasons with the N.Y. Giants (1976-78) and one year with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975). His career rushing totals in the NFL when he retired following the 1979 season are: 1,891 carries for 8,081 yards (4.3 average) and 64 TDs. At the time of his retirement, he ranked fifth in NFL history for most total rushing attempts and sixth for most career rushing yards and rushing touchdowns. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his second year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted the fullback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team and was named as a running back on the Super Bowl Silver Anniversary all-time team. On November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium. Csonka was further honored when his number 39 was retired by the team during halftime ceremonies on December 9, 2002, becoming the third Dolphin to have his number retired. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011.

Bob GRIESE

QB | 12

INDUCTED: 1990
BORN: 2/3/45
COLLEGE: PURDUE '67
NFL: 1967-80
DOLPHINS: 1967-80

He was unquestionably the "thinking man's quarterback." Bob Griese, renowned for his poised leadership and ingenious play-calling, sustained the Dolphins offense with a flair for winning from 1967-80.

The bespectacled quarterback became the 14th passer in the NFL's exclusive 25,000-yard club in 1980. On the same day he reached that milestone, he suffered a shoulder injury which ultimately forced his retirement on June 25, 1981. His No. 12 jersey became the first in Dolphins history to be retired, on May 6, 1982, in ceremonies at the team's annual awards banquet. In 1990 he was also voted the quarterback on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011.

Including playoffs, he had a .681 winning percentage (88-41-1) under Coach Don Shula. "Cornerstone of the franchise," Dolphins founder Joe Robbie called him. He was a consensus All-Pro quarterback in 1971 and 1977, made six appearances in the Pro Bowl and was voted the team's Most Valuable Player six times by South Florida media.

After becoming eligible for induction into the Hall of Fame in 1985, Griese was named as a finalist all five years before being elected to the Hall of Fame in 1990.

"He's probably the most unselfish guy I've ever been around," Shula said. "He got as much of a thrill calling the right running play for a touchdown as he did connecting on a bomb. That's just his makeup."

INDUCTED: 1987
BORN: 5/16/48
COLLEGE: S. DAKOTA STATE '70
NFL: 1970-81
DOLPHINS: 1970-79

Jim Langer was the anchor of the Miami offensive line during the Dolphins' championship years of the 1970s. Coming out of South Dakota State in 1970, he was signed as a free agent by Cleveland but was released on the final cut. Langer was picked up on waivers by the Dolphins and, after spending most of the year on the taxi squad, played in the final five games of 1970, mainly on special teams. After serving as a backup at center the following season, he won the starting job in 1972, which he would hold until sidelined with a knee injury in 1979. A consensus All-Pro from 1973-77, Langer was a six-time Pro Bowl selection (five times as a starter). Over a 10-year period from 1970-79, he played in 128 straight games. He also made 109 consecutive starts between 1972-79. Voted the team's Most Valuable Player by South Florida media in 1975, Langer also holds the distinction of having played every offensive down in the Dolphins' perfect 1972 season. Wanting to spend the final years of his career near his Royalton, Minn. home, at his own request Langer was traded to the Minnesota Vikings in 1980, where he played for two seasons (1980-81). He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In addition, on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011.

Larry LITTLE

INDUCTED: 1993
BORN: 11/2/45
COLLEGE: BETHUNE COOKMAN '67
NFL: 1969-80
DOLPHINS: 1969-80

A rumbling giant in the Dolphins' trenches for 12 seasons, Larry Little's very presence in leading a sweep was an intimidating force in a Miami running attack which led the NFL during the 1970s at 2,372 yards per season. Coming out of Bethune-Cookman in 1967, Little entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the San Diego Chargers for a $750 bonus. He was traded to the Dolphins on July 2, 1969, in exchange for Miami cornerback Mack Lamb, a former high school teammate. After having started just four games during his two seasons with the Chargers, Little emerged with the Dolphins and played in 158 regular season games with 152 starting assignments. He also started 12 playoff games for Miami and was a key ingredient of the Dolphins' back-to-back Super Bowl championship teams of 1972 and '73. Little earned All-Pro honors six times (1971-75 and 1977) and was a Pro Bowl selection on four occasions (1971-74). He was the first player in league history to be named as AFC Offensive Lineman of the Year three straight seasons (1970-72) by the NFL Players' Association. Little, who anchored the offensive line which helped set a then-NFL record with 2,960 rushing yards during the Dolphins'

"perfect season" in 1972, was named by the National 1,000-Yard Club as the league's Outstanding Blocker for the '72 campaign. A native Floridian, Little was the first Dolphins player inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame, on March 6, 1978. In 1990, he was voted as a guard on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team. Little was elected into the Hall of Fame in his eighth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on three occasions. On December 13, 1993, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium and was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011.

INDUCTED: 1998
BORN: 11/20/57
COLLEGE: ALABAMA '80
NFL: 1980-87
DOLPHINS: 1980-87

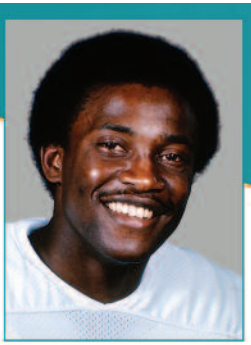
Dwight Stephenson spent his entire career with the Dolphins, and was considered by many to be the "best at his position ever" in the NFL. He was selected to five straight Pro Bowls (1983-87), and earned starting honors in four of those contests (1983-86). His four Pro Bowl starts is tied for the fourth-most in team history. Stephenson anchored an offensive line which allowed the fewest sacks in the NFL each of his seasons as a starter and enabled Miami quarterback Dan Marino to set numerous passing records. His playing career ended prematurely after suffering torn anterior cruciate and lateral colateral ligaments in his left knee against the New York Jets on December 7, 1987, when he was hit unexpectedly by Marty Lyons on a New York fumble return. Stephenson's greatest honor during his playing days came in 1985 when he was selected as the Miller Lite/NFL Man of the Year for his work in charity and community projects, the first Dolphin to win that award. Stephenson also served as an Assistant Offensive Line Coach on Don Shula's Dolphins staff in 1992. Before joining the Dolphins as a second-round draft choice in 1980, he had an outstanding college career at Alabama, where he was called "the greatest center I have ever coached" by the late Paul "Bear" Bryant. He was elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his sixth year of eligibility after having been a finalist on five occasions. In 1990, he also was voted as the center on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on December 12, 1994, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011.



Paul WARFIELD

WR | 42

INDUCTED: 1982
BORN: 11/28/42
COLLEGE: OHIO STATE '64
NFL: 1964-74, 1976-77
DOLPHINS: 1970-74

Paul Warfield sandwiched two stints with the Cleveland Browns (1964-69 and 1976-77) around a five-year career with the Dolphins. After spending his first six seasons in the NFL with the Browns, Warfield was acquired by Miami in January of 1970 in exchange for a first-round pick in the upcoming draft. In his five seasons with the Dolphins, Warfield had 156 receptions for 3,355 yards (21.5 average) and 33 TDs. When he left Miami following the 1974 season, Warfield ranked first on the team's career receiving yards and receiving touchdowns lists, while he was third on the Dolphins all-time record for receptions. His 21.5 average per reception is still the highest in Miami history. His career receiving totals in the NFL are 427 receptions for 8,565 yards (20.1 average) and 85 TDs. At the time of his retirement following the 1977 season, Warfield's career catches were tied for the 17th most in NFL history, his career receiving yards were the sixth-most and his 85 touchdown catches were tied for the third-highest total in the league's history. A member of both the '72 and '73 Super Bowl championship teams, he was selected to play in the Pro Bowl all five years he was with the Dolphins (once as a starter), in addition to being named to three Pro Bowl squads with the Browns. Warfield, one of two Dolphins (along with Mark Ingram) in the team's history to score four touchdowns in one game, also played one season with the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League (1975) before finishing his career with Cleveland. He was elected to the Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility. In 1990, he also was voted as a wide receiver on the Dolphins' Silver Anniversary all-time team, and on November 19, 1990, he was enshrined on the Dolphin Honor Roll at Sun Life Stadium. He also was a charter inductee in the Dolphins' Walk of Fame on December 4, 2011.

CRIS CARTER

WIDE RECEIVER YEAR INDUCTED: 2013
NFL CAREER: 1987-2002 DOLPHINS: 2002

A fourth round pick of the Philadelphia Eagles in the 1987 Supplemental Draft, Cris Carter developed into one of the most prolific receivers in the NFL. He spent his first three seasons as a member of the Eagles (1987-1989) and then played with the Minnesota Vikings for 12 years (1990-2001), where he helped re-write the team's record book.

Carter finished his NFL career as a member of the Miami Dolphins, coming out of retirement to sign with Miami as a free agent on Oct. 21, 2002. He remained on the team's roster until the conclusion of the season, playing in five games with the Dolphins, including one start, and recorded eight catches for 66 yards and one touchdown. He also was inactive for four games during that span due to a kidney injury.

Carter's career regular season totals include 1,101 receptions for 13,899 yards and 130 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement, Carter ranked second in NFL history in receptions and receiving touchdowns (behind Jerry Rice) and was fourth in reception yardage. During his tenure in Minnesota, he led the Vikings in receptions for 10 straight years, recorded eight straight 1,000-yard seasons and also earned eight consecutive Pro Bowl berths. In 1994, Carter set a then-NFL record for receptions in a season when he hauled in 122 passes for 1,256 yards and scored seven touchdowns. A year later in 1995 he registered his second straight 122-catch season and amassed a career-high 1,371 yards and 17 touchdowns. His two-year total of 244 catches was the most in NFL history. He was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s, and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2013.

An Ohio native, he played collegiately at Ohio State.

BILL PARCELLS

COACH/EXECUTIVE YEAR INDUCTED: 2007
NFL CAREER: 1983-90, 1993-99, 2003-06, 2008-10 DOLPHINS: 2008-10

Bill Parcells served the Miami Dolphins in an executive capacity, but he is best known for his success as a head coach in the NFL. In his 19 years as a head coach in the league, he experienced just five losing seasons. Four times he took struggling teams and turned them into winners. He won two Super Bowls, and his teams finished in either first or second place in their division 11 times.

Parcells spent almost three full seasons (2008-10) as the Executive Vice President of Football Operations of the Dolphins. He had an immediate impact, inheriting a 1-15 team and turning them around his first year, leading the Dolphins to an 11-5 record in 2008 along with the AFC East title and a playoff berth. The team's ten-game turnaround was tied for the biggest improvement in NFL history.

Parcells had the most success as head coach of the New York Giants. He took over that position in 1983, inheriting a Giants team that had just one winning season in its previous 10 years. After a 3-12-1 season in his first year, the Giants made the postseason as a wild-card team the next two years. In 1986, however, the Giants finished 14-2 and capped the year with a victory over the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXI. And in 1990 the team captured its second Lombardi Trophy with a dramatic 20-19 victory over the Buffalo Bills in Super Bowl XXV. Parcells took over as head coach of the New England Patriots, and in 1996 he led them to a berth in Super Bowl XXXI. After that he moved to the New York Jets, and in 1998 he guided them to a 12-4 record and advanced to the AFC championship game. His final stint as a head coach in the NFL came with the Dallas Cowboys from 2003-06. He led the team to playoff appearances twice during that tenure.

Overall Parcells spent 26 seasons as a coach and executive in the NFL. He compiled an overall coaching record of 172-130-1 in the regular season and 11-8 in the playoffs. He was named NFL Coach of the Year in 1986 and 1994 and was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2013.

THURMAN THOMAS

RUNNING BACK YEAR INDUCTED: 2007
NFL CAREER: 1988-2000 DOLPHINS: 2000

A second-round draft choice of Buffalo in 1988, Thurman Thomas went on to enjoy a stellar 13-year NFL career (1988-2000), the first 12 with the Bills. He was a critical component that catapulted Buffalo to an unprecedented four straight Super Bowl appearances, following the 1990-93 seasons.

Thomas concluded his career as a Dolphin after signing with the team as a free agent on March 7, 2000. He played in nine games that season and rushed for 136 yards on 28 carries and caught 16 passes for 117 yards and a TD. He sustained a career-ending knee injury in a game at San Diego on November 12, 2000.

Thomas' career regular season statistics include 12,074 rushing yards and 65 touchdowns on 2,877 attempts, and 472 receptions for 4,458 yards and 23 touchdowns. At the time of his retirement following the 2000 season, his rushing yardage total ranked ninth in NFL annals while his 16,532 total yards from scrimmage were sixth-most and fifth among running backs. He was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s, was selected as a first- or second-team All-Pro five times and was voted to the Pro Bowl five straight years. His election into the Pro Football Hall of Fame was announced on February 2, 2007 in Miami.

A native of Houston, Texas, Thomas played collegiately at Oklahoma State.

DUAL 100-YARD RUSHING GAMES

In their history, the Dolphins have had four dual 100-yard rushing games. Two of these were accounted for by the tandem of Larry Csonka and Jim Kiick (both in 1971). The most recent game in which the Dolphins have had two runners reach the 100-yard plateau occurred on October 5, 1975 at Green Bay when Mercury Morris rushed for 125 yards on 31 attempts, while Don Nottingham ran for 102 yards and three touchdowns on 21 carries. The Dolphins are 4-0 in games when they have had a pair of 100-yard rushers.

DOLPHINS ON THE AIR

WBGG (105.9 FM) and WINZ (940 AM)

Flagship Stations for the Miami Dolphins Radio Network

WBGG (105.9 FM) and WINZ (940 AM) are in their fifth year as the flagship stations for the Miami Dolphins Radio Network.

On March 1, 2010, the Dolphins announced a multi-year radio broadcast rights partnership with Clear Channel Communications that resulted in WBGG-FM (Big 105.9) and WINZ-AM (940 – The Sports Animal) being the Dolphins flagship stations. All Dolphin preseason, regular season and playoff games are broadcast exclusively in South Florida on those two outlets and throughout South and Central Florida on The Miami Dolphins Radio Network.

In addition to the game broadcasts, a two-hour pregame and a two-hour postgame show rounds out "Dolphins Game Day Live" coverage on WBGG, WINZ, The Miami Dolphins Radio Network, Dolphins.com, FanVision, the In-Stadium Television Network, the Dolphins Television Network and the Dolphins mobile app.

In July 2014, the Dolphins announced a multi-year extension of their partnership with Univision Radio in Miami to be the Spanish language flagship of the Miami Dolphins. Univision Radio's WQBA AM (1140 AM) and the Miami Dolphins Spanish Radio Network broadcast every preseason, regular season and post-season Dolphins game. This season marks the 33rd consecutive year that Dolphins games will be broadcast in Spanish.

The radio and TV broadcasts are part of the Dolphins' fully integrated multimedia assets that include websites (Dolphins.com, TheFinsiders.com, DolphinsCheerleaders.com and SunLifeStadium.com); social media platforms (Dolphins Facebook page, Dolphins Twitter, and Dolphins Instagram); radio programming (the Finsiders daily radio show on 940 AM and WBZT in West Palm Beach, Dolphins Game Day radio on 940 AM, 105.9 FM and 1140 AM; television programming (Inside The Fins, The Joe Philbin Show, Dolphins Weekly Live, The Quarter, Finsiders Final Drive, and Under The Helmet airing on CBS4 and My33); video programming (the In-Stadium Television Network; FanVision (handheld in-stadium device); video boards; video streaming on Dolphins.com and TheFinsiders.com; print platforms (Finsiders Playbook game day publication) and mobile platforms (Dolphins Mobile App including live video streaming, updates and images available on phone or iPad devices).

Jimmy Cefalo begins his tenth season as part of the Dolphins' radio team, and is certainly well-known as both a broadcaster and a former Dolphins player. For many years he served as the sports anchor for WPLG-TV (Channel 10), first joining that station in October of 1992 as the host of Sports Monday. Since then he became the sports anchor for Local 10 News Monday through Friday and anchored the station's popular "Sports Jam Live," which aired on Sunday nights.

Before joining WPLG, Cefalo assembled a long list of impressive broadcast credentials. He is best known for his work as a color analyst on NBC's network telecasts of the NFL and also served as a correspondent for NBC News on the "Today Show," sports anchor for "NBC News at Sunrise" and co-host of NBC's broadcast of the 1988 Olympic Games in Seoul. Cefalo also co-hosted "PM Magazine" and "AM South Florida" on WTVJ-TV and hosted the "Trump Card" game show, nationally distributed by Warner Brothers Television.

In 1988, Cefalo snared an Emmy for his writing on NBC's Olympic telecasts. In addition, the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association named him Florida Sportscaster of the Year six times (1998, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004 and 2005).

Prior to his broadcasting career, Cefalo played seven seasons with the Dolphins (1978-84) as a wide receiver, and finished with 93 catches for 1,739 yards and 13 touchdowns. His best season came in 1981, when he caught 29 passes for 631 yards (21.8 yards per catch) and three touchdowns. He also was a member of two Dolphins Super Bowl teams, and in Super Bowl XVII against the Washington Redskins, he caught a 76-yard touchdown pass from David Woodley, which at the time was the second-longest reception in Super Bowl history. Cefalo originally joined the Dolphins as a third-round draft choice in 1978 following a stellar collegiate career at Penn State.

Joe Rose again joins Cefalo on the team's radio broadcasts, and like Cefalo he built a broadcast career after his playing days ended. He is in his ninth season as a Dolphins radio analyst and also serves as the sports director for WTVJ-TV (Channel 6), joining that station in 1992. In past years he has hosted "The Coaches Show" on that outlet and is featured on the station's successful "Sunday Sports Final" as well. Along with his television work, Rose is well-known locally for his popular 6-10 a.m. weekday show on WQAM.

Rose was a Dolphins tight end from 1980-85, and in that time caught 112 passes for 1,493 yards and 13 touchdowns. He had his best year in 1983, when he had 29 catches for 345 yards and three touchdowns. He is best known for catching Dan Marino's first regular season touchdown pass, a six-yard reception on September 19, 1983 in Los Angeles versus the Raiders. Rose originally was a seventh-round draft pick of the Dolphins in 1980 after playing at the University of California.

Joining Rose and Cefalo in the booth for the regular season is former Dolphins great and Pro Football Hall of Fame member Bob Griese, who is in his fourth year as a member of Miami's radio team after a long tenure on ABC and ESPN's broadcast teams for college football.

On the Spanish broadcasts, Raul Striker, Jr. returns for his ninth season. In addition to those duties, he is well-known for his extensive sports reporting on Spanish radio and television outlets in South Florida.

DOLPHINS ARE TRUE GLOBETROTTERS

The Miami Dolphins have been the NFL's globetrotters in their history, having played regular season games in London and Toronto as well as preseason contests in London, Berlin, Tokyo and Mexico City. Miami will make its second regular season appearance in London when the team battles the Oakland Raiders later this season on Sept. 28 at Wembley Stadium.

The Dolphins and Bills took part in the NFL's first-ever regular season game staged in Canada on Dec. 7, 2008 as Miami recorded a 16-3 victory at the Rogers Centre in Toronto. On Oct. 28, 2007, the Dolphins battled the New York Giants at London's Wembley Stadium before a crowd of 81,176 in the first-ever NFL regular season game that was staged outside of North America.

From 1986-2003, the NFL held American Bowl games and the Dolphins made four appearances in the preseason series. Miami was 4-0 in those games played on foreign soil, with wins in London (1988), Tokyo (1991), Berlin (1992) and Mexico City (1997). The Dolphins became the first NFL team to win four American Bowl contests, and they also became the first team to win an American Bowl matchup in each of the three continents in which the games have been played.
